PROVINCIAL FAIR.

We are glad that our Council fairly met the Board of Directors of the Agricultural and Arts Association and readily consented to provide such buildings and other accommodation as the latter suggested. We are aware that the Association carefully prepared the estimate, and did so with the purpose, expressed from the outstart, to make the local expense as light as possible consistent with efficiency. The observations of gentlemen at last night's meeting merit special consideration. Kingston cannot afford to let the coming fair be a failure, if it can be avoided by good management and reasonable ex penditure. There must be no ex travagance, no pentiriousness, but an outlay such as urgency and reason dictate. The Council have perhaps Mr. Ira Morgan as follows: undertaken a heavier contract than they anticipated, but the citizens will we feel satisfied, support their represen tatives cordially and to the best ends. The importance of unity of action and enthusiastic venture was never more impressively presented. Honour and reputation must be sustained.

Were these two gentlemen seeking the post no candidate could outrival them in merit; the position is, if anything, seeking them. Then, again, if we refer to Mr. White's speech at the Opera House, himself an honor to the press, we find that Mr. Romaine, late of the Peterboro Review, is doing most efficient work in the Government stationery department at Ottawa. just as Mr. Chamberlin, once of the Gazette, is saving shekels to the public, through a serupulous supervision of printing and advertising, saving, however, by ters let out by the bung-hole in their petent man. spoon-feeding of leading literary supporters.

The Government intend sending out close of next week, so that the work of laying out townships will not be delayed. Supplies have been sent to a point in the vicinity of Qu' Appelle for distribution. The Government land offices on the line of the Canadian Pacific Railway will not be permanently located for some time. In the meantime the agents will do their husiness under canvas. In Railway Committee Mr. Kirkpatrick's bill on ticket scalping passed with some amendments. The Montreal Telegraph Co.'s Bill was then taken up and a lengthy and somewhat heated discussion took place. Sir Charles Tupper said if a clause, making the maximum rate 25c. for 10 words, and the statement that this bill should not affect existing litigation were inserted, the Government would support the bill These propositions were assented to by the promoters of the bill. Mr. White (ardwell) moved in amendment that the maximum rate be 20 cts., which was lost on a division of 47 to 23. The remaining clauses were then passed and the bill reported.
