Painful news reaches us by telegraph from Labrador. The colonists being prevented in the fall from securing their usual winter supplies of food, especially of fish, a staple article, and being disappointed in their winter hunting expeditions, there have been many deaths, and others are expected to follow before succour can reach the distressed. Every thing depends upon the early opening of navigation, and certainly the hope and prayer of all with humane and sympathetic instincts will be that this contingency will not operate to the further disadvantage of the suffering ones.

N. P. AND MANUFACTURERS.

The Napanee Tory organ and a good many of its confreres over the country took a good deal of pains, some time ago, to suggest an apparent absence manufacturers in connection with the Lennox Reform Association. The Express of last week gives a few facts tend ing to dissipate any anxiety they may have on that subject, but which, probab ly, will not be published so readily. It states that the newly elected President Mr. W. F. Hall, is one of the leading manufacturers in these counties, being the principal manager and proprietor of the Napanee Paper Mills Company. He presided at the Napanee mass meet ing a few days ago and made a strong speech. The fact is also given that Mr. John Gibbard, the head of the firm o Gibbard & Son, was the mover of the erection of cattle passes on Lots 4 and strong resolution at the late Reform 5, 7th Conc., Tp. Gibbard & Son are among the largest and most successful manufacturers in their line of busimess in Central Canada, and they have no hesitation in saying that the N.P. is and their customers, without any compensating advantages in the way of protection. They are hard working members of the Reform party in Lennox.

Duplin, April 18 .- There is much doubt as to the whereabouts of Parnell. It is supposed that he intends to surrender so as to avoid demonstration by his friends. Some friends argue that as the warrant, by which he was arrest ed, is legally cancelled by release, he is not bound to return at all. The first supposition is apparently grounded, as Forster granted Parnell a parole ior the purpose of attending the funeral of his nephew, but did not mention about his return.

The Dublin Irish Times believes the Government will resort to a measure similar to the Westmeath Coercion Act, which gave power to search for arms in a proclaimed district at all times and without a warrant.

Dublin, April 17 .- Egan reports that the Land League's entire outlay has been £126,000. It has on hand £59,000. London, April 18.—The report of the release of a large number of suspects, from prison is partly sensational. There is an exaggerated but more hopeful feeling of the Government and Crown by the fact that the liberations are far in excess of the fresh arrests.
