Some people say Oddfellowship is calculated (8) to make men sceptical. This ZOPESA (from Brazil) cures Dyspep- he had completed the task he came to is a grave mistake. One never crosses the conclusion that any man living up the threshold of a lodge room until he God, avows that He is the Creater and preserver of all, that He will reward the good and punish the evil. Oddfellowship teaches the uncertainty of life, and reminds of the sure decay of earthly wealth and greatness and power. It teaches man to love his fellowman; it teaches a higher duty, to love and worship God. Some disapproves of the Order, because (4) it has in it some unworthy members. If the same read soning applied to the Churches there would not be one of them left open. There are some unworthy persons, but they are the exception, not the rule. The Order teaches that every one found guilty of intentional wrong must atons to au offended law. The preacher then proceeded to apply the teaching of the text. The words quoted were an exemplification of friendship. Jonathan resolved to protect David after his father had purposed to kill him. The son's virtues atoned for the father's vices. Friendship was not wanted in prosperity craves for the sympathy and friendship of some one else. Even Jesus longed for the company of the disciples. As in the case of Jonathan and David true
