

The election of Rev. Dr. Edward Sul livan, of Montreal, as Bishop of Algoma has been a surprise, and not less : since the full account of the proceed. ings has appeared. The new prelate could command the best parishes on the continent (in which congregations had their will, and recently refused a call at a high salary to a New York Therefore his acceptance of amissionary bishopric is an eventuality which churchmen never contemplated. Since it is not attended by the solace of a high stipend, (indeed he will receive one far below that enjoyed at present,) Dr. Sullivan has proved that christian self denial is still a living impulse. The church, already proud his talents and nobility of character. will treasure him still more for the generous sacrifice he was made. It is a regret that while the laity were unanimous in the choice a small minority of the clergy should give fresh color to the charge against them of lacking too often the truest religion in the world, that charity towards a brother, by obtruding party votes upon a nomination which the Assembly caught up with enthu siasm, hailing it as an honor and bless ing to the Church, and a fresh hope for the future of Algoma.

We are told that Yorkville, being merely a suburb of Toronto, receives as a matter of course a free postal delivery as an extension of the city system, and that refusal here of such a pos tal book is not an act of Tory ill-favour or despotism. Indeed, let us see! Does Portsmouth share in the postal faci lities of Kingston, though as closely attached to it as Toronto is to Yerkville? Not, by any means. I is given a mail only once a day, has no postal messenger at all, and no letter boxes with regular calls. So this talk of a consequent extension of systems is all nonsense, disproved on the spot. Again Yorkville is not the only place must be charmed more then ever by M. Britten, Q.C., for defendant. their influence and the loving regard | The last case before Judge Senkler at
