102 Princess Street,

HE-Oh, sister, see the Galloway ship. So swiftly sailing into land See what a pretty sight she makes, She'll soon be unchored off the strand.

GALLOWAY.

SHE-Yes 'yes ' I see the pretty ship The winds so swiftly bear along The Galloway is the nice Hat House, The wild waves tell of in their soug GALLOWAY.

HE-What does she carry, as she sails? What is the cargo that she brings? A ship so beautiful and bright Must surely carry precious things.

SHE-I hat ship brings goods from foreign lands To make the Hats that Galloway sells, You've not forgotten in a week The story that the wild waves tell GALLOWAY.

GALLOWAY.

HE-Oh, no, the Galloway Fine Hat House Is not so easy to forget, Though imitated everywhere, It never has been equalled yet GALLOWAY.

BOTH-Every one has a ship coming in Whose arrival shall change everything. And most people spend life in a dream Of the freasures their good ship shall GALLOWAY.

If something is wanted for everyday gear, Two-fifty will cover the bill, And give a man something that's strong and While he's climbing prosperity's hill. GALLOWAY,
