CITY IMPROVEMENTS.

At last a movement is on foot for the improvement of King street west by way of private subscriptions towards an esplanade. Evidently the growing taste of the city is asserting steelf. The improvement of the City Park and the increaming nestness of private grounds have thrown more deeply into contrast the ugly and neglected state of a water front which many a gity would give tens of thousands for in an equally eligible situation. Over $500 has been subscribed towards the proposed improvement, and $800 more should be readily forthcoming, since only a partial canvass has been made. The property owners of the locality and the representatives of that section have put their names down for liberal amounts, and sherefore have paid their full share for the sectional benefit to be derived Further steps rest with the citizens at large, for few indeed would not enjoy she much pleasanter walk or drive their street would afford, not to speak of the pride which ought to be taken in the city. Kingston, by its spirit of ernamentation and improvement, has ad vanced rapidly within a dozen of years in the eyes of visitors and good opinions of outsiders. The Market Battery and King Street Front are the remaining public syssores. The city as a municipality should have taken up their improvement long since. The Council will not surely refuse when so hand somely assisted to build the esplanade. The estimated cost is $1,600

A CONFUSING APPAIR

While the world applauds the action of Admiral Nicholson and his sixty marines at Alexandria Secretary of the Navy Robeson and his friends at Washington demurand repudiate. This seems to the distant spectator to be a curious circumstance, and yet not so cur: us when the position of certain American politicians is fully understood. They have a Monroe doctrine, according to which the United States desires to exercise a controlling influence in all that pertains to the development of this great continent. The Panama Canal, dis severing North and South As not at the Isthmus, and designed to expedite the increasing traffic between the oceans. they would not or could not build. They did not object to DeLesseps with with his European capital undertaking the great work, with all its risks and probabilities of failure, but they wished it to be understood that in America the United States was supreme and had certain nondescript rights in the event of international difficulties Nonhere is just where the shoe pinches

The part the United States Govern ment would not consent to allow another power to play in American affairs it as. sumes in the Egyptian embroglio. Without having any direct interest at stake as England has, its representatives plunge into the fray, and the execution of a handful of men is referred to as most effective. They have not been acting under instructions, however, have not even communicated what they are doing to Secretary Robeson, but, in an irresponsible way, have demonstrated to Europe that the United States has a navy, and that the men have spirit for good service if they are without the equipment for much service on the water. The situation is an interesting one, and may lead to a change of front-on the Monroe doctrine

A MARINE QUESTION

The late boom in the grain carrying trade on the St. Lawrence route has produced a sensation in New York and Chicago To effectively offset the advantage which Canada is now having our American contemporaries are calling for free and enlarged canals, and the reduction of charges by the middlenen. elevator combinations, and shore sharks at Buffalo. The great difficulty - an insuperable one it would appear, sincit has been the theme of discussion for several years without result - is in regard to the canal. It is a State work. projected originally for the development of the State, and a matter of little con cern to other parts of the great union An unsuccessful effort has been made to have the canal converted into a mational enterprise, as it should be, but in the United States as in Canada there are sectional interests to be served, and New York cannot sway Congress and the Government, powerful as its mem bers may be at the Capital. The canal can be made free, but only by adding to the taxation of the people for its maintenance and repairs, and these are very costly, as the accounts of the officials in charge plainly indicate. "The farmer's bugbear is taxation," said the Chairman of a meeting of commercial men in New York on Thursday, "and he would be most likely to vote against an amend ment to the State constitution, in favour of a free canal, at the fall election. What then? He must be educated out of the iden." Such will take time. Farmers are not subject to sudden impulses. like the New York speculators, and especially when the prospective gain by such is so hazy and indefinite. The agitation has an interest to all Canadians. Our canals are not and need not be made free until the Erie is open to be travelled from end to end with perfect freedom. But one thing should be done -the Customs regulations should be made to bear as lightly as possible upon the shipping fraternity. The vessel men have grievances. Their shortages and the charges of duty upon them have become more than annoyance; they have forced the mariners, who dislike imposi tion, to decline to trade with this port

The Matter Arranged.

To-day the Board of Management in connection with the Crystal Palace grounds held a meeting. After a stormy time the Warden and Henry Wilmot were appointed to act with the Mayor and architect in looking after the repare of the Palace buildings.

Village of Routrew-A Late Pub-

tte Meeting A meeting was held on Monday Renfrew for the consideration of subject of aiding the Kingston & Perubroke RR., in the event of a junction being formed with that village.

The proposition submitted by Mr Gildersleeve to a previous meeting was then read. The following accompany. ing estimate of the cost of the junction as put in by Mr. Gildersleeve, and which formed the basis of the bonus of $25,000 asked for by the Company, was also sub-

Right of way from Madawa-ka Ri ver to near Renfrew 100 feet wide, 12 acres per mile for 13 miles at, say $250 per mile .. Two miles near Renfrew, say 24 Extra land in village, 10 acres at Passenger station Freight station .. Engine shed, &c.

EXPRESSING MEETING'S VIEWS. After some discussion the following motion was made by Mr. J. D. McDonald, seconded by Mr. John Smith That in view of the debt of $30,000 heretofore incurred by the municipality of the village of Renfrew, to assist in the construction of the Canada Central RR. from Sand Point to Renfrew, which debt still wholly unpaid; and in view of the fact that there is no certainty that the Kingston & Pembroke RR., if it should form a junction with the Canadian Pacific at the village of Renfrew, will for any length of time remain an in dependent line, it would not, in the opinion of this meeting being advisable or expedient for said municipality to incur at the present time any further liability for the purpose of granting a bonus to the said Kingston & Pembroke RR. AN AMENDMENT SUBMITTED

Mr. A. A. Wright moved, in amend ment, seconded by Mr. P. McRae "That it is desirable that we should assist in procuring a junction of the Kingston & Pembroke BR. in this village to the utmost of our ability, and that this village should undertake to procure the right of way through this village, and sufficient land for a station ground also, if the station be placed in a convenient position, and exemption from taxation for ten years."

SENTIMENTS OF THE SPEAKERS. Mr. McDonald said the villagers desition to grant the railway aid? If it is will the Legislature pass an Act legalizing a bonus by-law? He was of opinion that the by law would not carry, the municipality being already $30,000 in debt. When the raffway formed a junc tion with the village and erected work shops it would be time enough to consider the question of sid. He thought flag and cash prize. that the railway should have a connection with the village, and the Company would not punish the people if they did not grant a bonus. But they might assist in purchasing right of way.

Mr. Wright urged the people to take advantage of the tide in their affairsthe effec of the Railway Company. Was it not worth while for the village to give some aid, when the county was ready to give $180,000 to this railway. They should treat the Railway Company as | firemen they would any other desirable customer. If the Company become vexed with the village they could do it much injury. If a junction was not worth $8,000 and exemption from taxation for three years it was worth nothing. The prosperity of the municipality would be bonus without feeling it. A desultory debate ensued; then Mr. $100,000 would not stop them from tak those who offended them. Mr. Banner man emphatically denied Mr. Logan s. statement about Mr. Flower controlled the stock held by Kingston and other municipalities in the railway

AWARDING THE AMENDMENT

Mr. R. Airth move I, seconded by Mr. P. Devine, the following amendment to to the meeting, was lost by 16 to 24 That the Reeve convey to the President of the K. & P. Railway the dec: regret that the ratepayers of this village feel at their inability, on account of det t to give any direct aid to the road, and inform him that they will cheerfully exempt the Company's grounds and buildings from taxation for a period of ten years, and will use their influence public with landowners along the line to get the right of way at as low a price as possible. Mr. Wright's amendment was carried by 24 to 16 A LATER PROPOSITION. The Renfrew Mercury announces the the Reeve has since received an answer from the President of the K & P. RR. Mr. Gildersleeve saying that the ment offer of a bonus of only $3,000 was a isappointment, and submitting a new preposition, i.e., exemption from taxation for twenty years, a bonus of $3,000 payable on the completion of the ine into Renfrew, and $5,000 when the assessment shall have increased $30,000 over its present amount, or one pay ment of $6,000 on the completion of the me to Renfrew. The exemption and bonus by laws to be confirmed by the Legislature, but the expenses attendant thereon to be be borne by the Company. It was stated that there was a serious difference of opinion as to the advisability of going to Renfrew at all : but if the present preposal was accept ed the junction would be definitely settled at Renfrew, and might possibly be completed in fifteen months.

A STRANGE CASE,

dren-Suspicions of Font Play. The disappearance of two children from St. Lin caused much excitement. Belanger, father of the missing children, comes from St. Espeit, and his wife was formerly a Miss Renaud, of St. Lin, well educated, and previous to her marriage decidedly prepossessing. Her husband is of a jealous disposition. The family moved last spring to their present abode. On Sunday about 4 o'clock, Belanger proceeded to look for his cow in the woods between his home and a small lake three miles distant. After travelling half the distance he turned and saw the children following him. As they ropean population at Port Said are badhad found their way home; finding them missing, he first beat his wife for allowing the little ones to go out and then 150 from St. Julienne and St. Lin, walking from 15 to 20 feet apart, thoroughly examined three square miles of forest with no result, and two men carefully, but fruitlessly, searched the little river or creek which supplies motive power to Belanger's mill, situate about 10 acres from his house. In the evening he sta ted the result of their labour to Rev Father Onimet, of St. Julienne. That gentleman thanked them and said he was satisfied the children were not on the land searched, they were not in the creek, and there was now but one more place to examine, that was the lake. arge number of men dragged the lake. Three or four hundred men are excited over the affair, and should it turn out that Belanger has killed his children, he will never see the inside of a gaol or go through the farce of a trial for murder. "We will hang
