A STABILING SERMON. At Least the Port Hope "Time." Thinks so-What Hell to-What Man is-What Mis Boat is.

(Port Times.) A sermon was preached by the Rev. Mr. Jeffrey on Sunday evening, August 27th, on the parable of the rich man whom God pronounced a fool on accoun of not combining godliness with his love of gain. The sermon surprised a number of his congregation. It smacked of a philosophy which is not in high favour with church conferences, more particularly Methodist Conferences. The rev. Quebec, the Quotiden, the Courrier, and gentleman evidently does not tie himself down to the dictum of "the higher ecclesiastical power." He began by illustrating his doctrine by means of penholder. Holding it up, he asked: that a penholder?" Then separating the pen from the stalk, he asked con cerning each, "Is that a penholder? No! Because a penholder for to be a
