IN THE HIGH COURT OF JUSTICE, CHANCERY DIVISION.

HUMPHREYS VS. COOY.

PERMANENT TO THE judgment made in this case and leaving the Fourth Day of September, 1882, there will be made with the approval of James A. Henderson, Esq., Master of the High Court, at the City of Kingston, Ontario, in the County of Frontenac, a deed of conveyance in the following tenor:—

USE CANADIAN COCOA Superior to Foreign Article

THE consumption of Cocoa in preparation having largely increased in the Dominion during the past few years, it has become an important article of importation with every household. It is a food which is both nutritious and palatable, and is well adapted for family use as a condiment, pleasant and nutritious addition to the diet. The subscribers have direct access to the places where Cocoa is grown, which enables them to offer their goods at lower prices than foreign manufacturers can be brought into the market.
