AGITATION FOR REFORMS. We call attention to the matter, feel ing that it is one which affects the whole community. If we have properly understood the subject there is ground for an agitation such as has not not occurred in marine circles during the season. Accidents on the water are frequent enough as steamboats are now managed. Let us hope that the action of the Government officials will not contribute to misfortunes from which all sensible people pray to be saved. Water Supply Short.

The Gananoque manufactories are only working half time owing to the lowness of water in the river. Heavy rains are anxiously hoped for. The Water Power Company have lately purchased the mill property at Marble Rock, and will now have entire control of the supply at that important point.
