LOTTA'S BURGLAR.

It was unprecedented at Erisham for the students to break out so late in the terms Still more unprecedented was it for a potent grave and reverend senior to have any share in the mischief. Yet. only three nights before commencement the students "made things howl," and fom Anstruther was head and front of the offending. They nailed up over the chapel door the sign "To Providence and way stations," stolen from the railroad They serenaded obnoxious members of the faculty in terms anything but flattering. They built a large bonfire on the campas, and indulged in a promiscuous song and dance performance around it. In the midst of the uproar there was the cry of "Faculty! faculty!" fellowed by an instant bush. The students scat in all directions.
