CITY AND VICINITY. PROGS.—Decreasing westerly to north-westerly winds, fair milder weather.

NEW ELEVATOR.—The first. Nellie Thorne has discharged the first cargo of barley at the new elevator, 504 and 506.

CHEAP UTILITY CLOTHS, dress goods and fannels in the city at Hardy & Murray's, where it is no trouble to show the goods.

JUST OPENING at E. Delaney's, 289 Princess street, another stock of ostrich feathers, gents' cardigans and cheap hosiery.

FUNERAL MARCH.—Mr. Treadell has composed a funeral march, named "Elynt," to be performed by the band of the "Battery" at the late Major Herbert's requiem mass.

VITAL STATISTICS.—The registration for the past month has been fair, but yet many have not complied with the statutes. The returns were: Births, 51; Marriages, 10; deaths 16.

PURCHASED A MINE.—Messrs Platt and Allison, of Allipontown, have purchased an iron mine from one Jeffrey. It is near the Bedford Station, K & P. RR., and adjacent to the Glendow mines.

COMPLETED THE HOUSES.—Mr. W. Spaulding, contractor, has completed six double houses for the Bethlehem Iron Company at Wilton. The dwellings are 30x24 ft. (17 ft. posts) and very comfortable. In the spring six more double will be erected.

POLICE STATISTICS.—During the past month the police register shows that 53 were in for protection and 88 for drunkenness. The total registered was 119. Some 19 persons were fined and only six sentenced to gaol or penitentiary; 93 were discharged.

POLICE COURT.—FRIDAY.—Thos. Clark, a navy man from the Ontario Central R.R., acknowledged that he was drunk and in possession of cash. He was dismissed. John Parsons, accused of burglary, was not called up, but the case was remanded for a week.

HAD HIS HAIR CUT.—The Kingstonian whom Oct. 27th will remember his flowing hair. But he has it removed. He explained to a reporter that he was suffering from nervous prostration, and had decided to lessen his cares by removing his superfluous locks. The poor dear is easier now.

The verdict to be rendered to-morrow night by the crowds who will visit Bowes & Bissonnette is that they sell the cheapest in the city. Heavy ribbed shirts and drawers, 39 cents each; and heavy ribbed double braided shirts, drawers to match, only 85c. at 204 Princess street.

FOR MARKET.—The fur market is quiet now but is expected to become brisk shortly. The prices at present offered are: Mink $1.00, red for $1.25, and martain at $1.00. Otter continues in good demand at $9.00, to $10.00, beaver fair enquiry at $2.00, to $2.50 per lb., and skunk at 50 to 60c. each; seal lower in price than heretofore.

The only store showing all bargains with its patrons, and not waiting to mark down until forced by opposition, is Hardy & Murray's. In two issues this has been proved; not wanting to mark down. Usually mistakes do occur in the most awkward places. But every body is sure that Hardy & Murray do not have to push into giving bargains.

NO RESERVE YET.—The 15th of December, the day for Michael Lee's execution, is nearly at hand, and there are no indications that the sentence will be commuted. The Sheriff will delay action in the preparations for the execution until Monday next. Deputy Sheriff Payne says the Express seems quite confident that the prisoner will not be hanged.

REDUCTION OF WAGES.—On the 15th of next month the wages of the navvies employed on the Toronto & Ottawa, Quebec & Ontario, and K. & P. R.R.s will be reduced from $1.50 to $1.25 per day, the days being so short (daylight) that until Spring it will be impossible to put in ten hours work. The men, 4,000 of them, have no objection; it is usual and at the same time reasonable.

MACHINE WORKS.—Mr. Cochrane, who has been endeavouring to establish a moving machine works here has returned to his home in the Sheenandah Valley for a couple of weeks. There is every probability that his project will succeed. Mr. Cochrane has already received subscriptions amounting to $80,000. Those who have money to invest could not put it in a more profitable scheme.

CHANGE OF BUSINESS.—Mr. B. H. Roll, well known stationery business, has disposed of it to Mr. F. Nesbitt, for many years in the same line of business in Woodstock and for the last two years in the wholesale business at Toronto. He is a thorough "book man" and no doubt will keep up the reputation of the "Corner Book Store," which has not suffered in the hands of Mr. Roll. Mr. Nesbitt has arrived in the city and will make Kingston his home. We heartily wish him success.

The School Elections. The outgoing trustees this year are: R. Reed Ward, G. W. Walbran; Cataraqui Ward, W. M. Drennan; Ontario Ward, W. Irving; Sydenham Ward, H. J. Savage; Victoria Ward, J. S. Kirkpatrick; St. Lawrence Ward, T. C. Wilson; Frontenac Ward, T. N. Colson. All, we believe, are candidates for re-election.

HERE AND THERE. Local and General Interest—Gossip that is Worthwhile. Potatoes are scarce in Cape Vincent. Wood is very scarce and high at Cape Vincent.

The canvass in Sydenham Ward goes bravely on. November went out in a very lion-like manner. Several sleighs were out last evening and to-day.

There were two arrivals at Rockwood Asylum yesterday. Fraser, the Brockville thief, has been remanded until Monday next.

The Ministry have a majority on the Committee of School Management. The prohibition vote in New York State is about 80,000. Last year it was 4,600.

The school teachers will not get the increase of salaries for which they have petitioned. The bill to be given by the young people of Cataraqui to the young men of the city has been postponed until Dec. 14th.

A member of the Government in the School Board decided this morning to bet $10 that Dr. Fee would not be elected a chairman.

A meeting of the School Board will not be held until next week. The appointment of teachers is likely to provoke a hot discussion.

Is anything being done relative to the bringing together in Kingston of the U. E. Loyalists who settled in the Midland District? Next year is the centennial anniversary.

Mr. George Dennison, Conservative candidate for Addington in the Local House, is said not to be popular in the rear of the riding. Mr. Deroche will have an easy victory.

A special meeting of the Council will be held on Monday evening. Principal business: the selection of polling booths and appointment of returning officers to act in the municipal elections.

A. N. Diamond, Napanee, says he has purchased and shipped over 37,000 bushels of barley this season, or about one fourth of the whole amount shipped to Oswego from the Bay of Quinte district.

A meeting of the Reform Association of Addington will be held at Yarker, on Friday, Dec. 8th, for the purpose of electing officers for the ensuing year and to select a candidate for the Local House.

About a score of persons kicked at a tall tale on Clarence street yesterday. They didn't move it much. It covered a cobble stone which proved to be hardier than the toes of an accountant, judge, journalist and farmer, hence their lameness, and the soft language they were heard to utter.

We offer our congratulations on the marriage of Miss Rankin to Mr. J. Losen, of Collinsby. The union, a very auspicious one, was witnessed by many Kingstonians. The presents were numerous and costly. The happy couple have left on a tour through the Eastern Provinces.

PERSONAL MENTION. Mrs. Maggie Van Cott's health is much impaired by her incessant labors. Mr. James Wilson is spoken of as a representative candidate for the county in Victoria ward.

Mr. C. Files, of Newburg, will again be a candidate for the Reevesship. It is not likely that he will be opposed. Mr. C. F. Holden, formerly of Belleville, is now sole proprietor and editor of the Hampden, Neb., Journal.

Mr. Meacham, Postmaster at Belleville, has received six months' leave of absence on account of ill health. Mr. John Page is engaged in investigating a number of claims for extras made by contractors on the Welland Canal.

Mr. William Stewart, Manager of the Kingston and Montreal Forwarding Company, is in the city. He goes east to-morrow. Mr. Wm. Mulock, M.P. for North York, was re-elected Vice-Chancellor of the Toronto University, at a meeting of the Senate last evening.

Father O'Neil, late assistant of Father Sherry at Cape Vincent and Clayton, has been appointed pastor of the Catholic Church in Redwood.

Capt. Herriam, Montreal, and Capt. J. J. Randon, of Buffalo, representing the American Marine Insurance pool, are at the Morricks House.

Mr. D. Borric, of Montreal, has handed over the deed for an additional building to the Presbyterian College. It cost $50,000. R. D. Smith has given $75,000 towards a museum for McGill University.

Miss Genevieve Ward during her recent visit to Dublin went out nearly every evening after the performance to society parties. She is described as singing ballads very charmingly, and dressing in costly but very peculiar style.

Mr. C. J. West, representing Hague's British Minstrels, was in the city today arranging for the appearance of the company here on Thursday evening next. The Canadian tour only covers a period of three weeks, one of which has been spent in Montreal.

ST. ANDREW'S DAY. ITS CELEBRATION IN KINGSTON.—A CONCERT, SUPPER AND BALL.—A VERY PLEASANT GATHERING.

The 30th November is a date of great interest to every Scotchman; it revives memories which are pleasantly contemplated and dilated upon. Last year's form of entertainment by the St. Andrew's Society, participated in by the ladies as well as gentlemen, proved so popular that it was decided to repeat it this year, but on an enlarged scale.

There was first a concert, then a supper and finally a ball, all of which features were satisfactorily executed.

The City Hall. The concert occurred in the City Hall, attended by about 400 persons, and the programme was one of exceptional merit. The band of "B" Battery was engaged and opened both parts with appropriate selections—"Reminiscences of Scotland" by Godfrey, and a fantasia, "The Jacobite," with solos for clarinet, cornet, euphonium, yasal and basso, the rendition of which was very creditable and elicited repeated rounds of well deserved applause. Mr. John Middleton, who possesses a rich baritone voice, sang with fine effect "I Fear no Fox." It was well received and merited the applause passed upon it. Mr. Danlop gave a recitation, "Mrs. Janet Clamjampreys on the Agie," humorous, and especially enjoyed by those who appreciated the broad Scotch accent in which the words were spoken. Then came the star of the evening, Mrs. Robertson, of New York, who fulfilled her promise to sing at the concert through great personal inconvenience. "Within a Mile of Elinboro Town," made a very favorable impression, and in complying with a recital she sang "Coming Through the Rye" tenderly, pathetically, affecting, and a perfect storm of applause followed her retirement. In the second part she gave "Auld Robin Grey," with marked finish and expression, and her popularity was wonderfully increased when she expressed, in a musical way, her love for the "Auld Scotch songs," the mention of which raised the enthusiasm of the audience to what one termed "an explosive point." Perhaps her best contribution was "Auld Bannockburn," composed for and dedicated to her. In this piece the shading was particularly noticed. Messrs. C. J. and G. F. Cameron, brothers, students of Queen's College, poetic in temperament and possessed of considerable elocutionary ability, recited—"One The Polish Boy," the other "The Tribute of Affection." Both selections were of a patriotic and inspiring character; both were applauded with unusual heartiness. Mr. Greenwood's "The Sailor's Grave," was a creditable effort and worthy of the favour it received. The concert, as a whole, was a great success in every respect. Mr. F. C. Heath is entitled to special mention for the efficiency with which he performed the accompaniments.

Supper in Ontario Hall. At 10:30 o'clock the supper was served in the Ontario Hall, down the length of which three tables were run and seated to accommodate about 350 persons, and nearly that number participated in the festivities. The spread was as good as we have seen on any public occasion. It was the choice of Mr. B. Bird, and did him infinite credit. The bill of fare was lengthy and varied, and gratified the most epicurean tastes. Of course, haggis was the first item, and it seemed to be highly esteemed. An hour later there were the usual toasts and speeches, but the latter were wisely abbreviated.

USUAL TOASTS. The loyal toasts followed each other in rapid succession, proposed by the Chairman. For Queen—"God Save the Queen;" Governor General—"Campbell is Coming;" Army and Navy—"Red, White and Blue;" Response by Lieut. Drennon, of the Kingston Field Battery.

CIVIC DICTIONARIES HONORED. The Myer and Corporation—"We won't go Home till Morning."

A. J. McIntyre remarked that in view of the fact that the Council sat until very late hours, 1, 2 and 3 o'clock, for the benefit of the public, the music of the band had a special appropriateness. He would before him candidates for municipal honors and he wished that his good wishes would result in their being appointed to offices. He was sorry that the Mayor was not present, but being an incumbent, he was no doubt afflicted with the natural bashfulness characteristic of his race. He would, however, have the felicitation to convey to the absent civic dignitaries the compliment of the assemblage.

THE SISTERS SOCIETIES. Aid. Craig, the Vice-President, proposed "The Sister Societies," coupled with the names of the Presidents of St. George's and St. Patrick's Societies. He related in the manner in which the associations co-operated in charitable and benevolent works, and hoped that nothing would occur to disturb the harmony now existing between them.

M. Pease, President of St. George's Society, congratulated St. Andrew's Society on the return of another anniversary, and referred in fitting language to the useful and honorable career of the Society under whose auspices the entertainment was held. St. Andrew's Society had done a good work in the past; he hoped its future service would be a blessing, and he tendered the sympathy of the members of St. George's to the celebration of a national spirit and the performance of kindly deeds.

Aid. McGuire, President of St. Patrick's Society, made mention of the fellowship existing among the national societies of the city. This was a healthy sign, an indication of harmonious work in a good cause. While they met on different days and celebrated the anniversaries of different saints they did not forget that there were sister societies. National societies were useful notwithstanding the objections of some to them. We are desirous of attracting to this country our kith and kin in England, Ireland and Scotland, and it is well that they should be received by friends. Those removing from the old land were influenced by sad thoughts; they felt as if departing for a new world, of which they had mistaken conceptions, and thus appreciate the labor of any organization which extends the way to prosperity. If the national societies were not more than advertising agencies, they would do a service, the importance of which should not be overlooked. He sketched the love of the Scotch for their native land, the memories which particular occasions revived, the fondness for melodies which will live as long as the language subsists, and the spread toward English, the very best of the habitable globe. He alluded, specially, to the operations of the Scotch in the North West; there as elsewhere they had reached the top. There was no difficulty they could not surmount. He thanked the company for the compliment and to St. Andrew's Society.

DAY AND A' WEA REMOVED IT. Mr. Craig proposed "The day and a' we honour it;" also the "Land of Cakes." Band—"Auld Lang Syne."

Prof. Marshall, Queen's College, was called upon to respond. He said a difficulty about doing so, being the youngest member of the Society, but he made a good speech nevertheless. He pointed to Scotland's history what her sons had done to perpetuate her memory and greatness, and what a pleasure and gratification it was to meet friends and countrymen and live the past all over again. The day was honoured in China, Japan, Australia, New Zealand, India, Cape Colony, in every part of the civilized world.

OUR EDUCATIONAL INSTITUTIONS. Mr. Craig gave "The Colleges," coupled with the names of Mr. Danlop and Dr. Henderson, both of whom spoke glowingly of what the educational institutions did for Kingston. Dr. Henderson had an especially warm reception, and did his profession justice. He stated that among those engaged in the practice of medicine there were orators, embry statesmen and politicians, a fact which our citizens have had repeated evidence.

MANUFACTURERS OF KINGSTON. Mr. Mines proposed the manufacturers of Kingston, coupled with the name of Mr. N. McNeil, who made a capital speech. The manufacturers had redeemed the good home of the city, they had given it a stimulus, a life, and caused the people to regard it other than as a second Sleepy Hollow. He paid a tribute to the mechanics, and said that though a contrary opinion had been ventured in a newspaper the citizens of Kingston appreciated the toilers just as much as Hamilton or any other place. He quoted the lines of a poetess to the effect that the workmen were not judged by their appearance, but by their manliness and worth. His sentiments were loudly applauded.

THE CLOSING CEREMONIES. Mr. Mines proposed "The Press," which was briefly acknowledged. Mr. Mines also gave "The Ladies," whose acknowledgments were eloquently expressed through Messrs. F. Shaw and W. C. Carruthers. The latter was amazed that a sentiment every gentleman delighted to honor should be last of the list. He hoped such a thing wouldn't happen again.

Mrs. Robertson, the vocalist, was prevailed upon to sing "When the kye comes home," her rendition of which was even better than that of any piece at the concert.

Mr. Thompson repeated a sentiment to the effect that the people would see more clearly the beauties of Scotland, and increase daily in their loyalty to her.

Mr. Thompson toasted "The President and Officers of St. Andrew's Society," and Mr. McMillan made a happy response. Thus ended the supper, which was attended by a select company numbering about 200.

GREETINGS FROM SCOTCHMEN. During the evening the following telegrams were received and read: "The Scotchmen of Napanee send a cordial greeting to their Kingston brethren.—Thomas Symington, Chairman." "Health, wealth and prosperity to the Scotchmen of the limestone city. Then to your feet, fill up your glasses to honest men and bonnie lassies.—James Michie, President."

A Successful Ball. The ball followed the supper, and was participated in by about 100 couples. The hall retained the tasty decorations erected by the members of the Kingston & Pembroke Mutual Benefit Association, and looked extremely handsome under the gas light. The music was supplied by the quadrille band of "B" Battery, which did good execution. The assembly dispersed about 2 o'clock, and the memories of the occasion will keep green for at least another year.

WETHERILL, Sept. 28

INSURING A WRIT. The Execs of Barrie has a Writ Issued Against the County to Recover $161.—The Deighton Case. Mr. Thomas Tapping, Reeve of Barrie, has given Dr. E. H. Smythe instructions to serve a writ upon Warden Fair, demanding the payment by the county of $161, the amount due the Township by Mr. Deighton, late Sub-Treasurer of school monies. In 1871 Mr. Deighton was given charge of the school monies in Barrie. In 1878 a difficulty occurred about the funds, and the Government refused to contribute further grants until it was cleared up. The matter came repeatedly before the County Council, which authorized the collection of the deficiency from Mr. Deighton. This has not been done owing to the fact that certain outstanding demands had been made by the Sub-Treasurer against the county. Last summer the case came before Judge Price for investigation, and several days were occupied in examining and squaring up the accounts. Eventually Judge Price found that Mr. Deighton possessed $114 of the school monies. At the following session of the Council this amount was ordered to be collected; yet it was not done. A few days ago a compromise was effected and $79, left by Mr. Deighton in Mr. H. M. Deroche's hands, accepted rather than incur the costs of a law suit. Mr. Deighton, having no bondmen from whom the balance could be collected, thus dropped out of the affair and the deficit thus became a question for the county and township to settle. The amount in dispute is $161, according to the School Inspector's statement, and $114 according to that of the Judge. The School Inspector said no money will be paid over until the $161 be refunded. Mr. Tapping in the County Council introduced a motion authorizing the payment of $161 to the Treasurer, but it was defeated after a heated discussion. Mr. Walker stated that an attempt was being made to have the Council screen certain parties from investigation. Mr. Tapping said if the refund should not be made, he would have to issue upon the county. Mr. Walker retorted that the writ should be served upon himself (Tapping). Thereupon the Reeve of Barrie rushed out of the room, interviewed a lawyer, and caused the action stated at the outset of this article. Mr. Tapping holds that the Council is responsible for all school grants during the past two years, and an action for damages may also follow. Unless there is an immediate compromise the schools in Barrie must be closed.

Mr. Mines proposed the manufacturers of Kingston, coupled with the name of Mr. N. McNeil, who made a capital speech. The manufacturers had redeemed the good home of the city, they had given it a stimulus, a life, and caused the people to regard it other than as a second Sleepy Hollow.
