NIGHT OF THE HOLY FIRE.

A Mysterious Illumination in the Counties of Galway and Mayo.

A correspondent in Ireland, whose remarks are very deserving of attention, writes to us that at about nine o'clock on the last night of the old year a large portion of the counties of Galway and Mayo were suddenly ablaze with torches formed roughly of sheaves of straw. It was not a quarter of an hour from the time the first torch was observed before the country to the horizon was all alight. Loud shouts were heard, horns and whistles were blown, cans were beaten, and the inhabitants seemed to have become demented. Country houses were hastily closed up and secured, the police prepared in their barracks for defence, and everybody outside the Land League made certain that the dreaded moment had come. The lights and the noises subsided about eleven o'clock, and the night passed over with no more than the usual number of outrages. The country people affect to be ignorant of the cause of the illumination; some said it was to celebrate the liberation of Parnell, but the facts of the trial are well known in every hamlet, and such a reason could not hold water. There is no custom of the kind on New Year's eve. The question asked on every side in Ireland is, we hear, Was it a preconcerted practice in signaling? Or was it an experiment? A few nights before the Fenian rising something of the same kind was observed in several parts of the country, and many well affected people are of opinion that the incident portends no good. In the winter of 1867 the country was observed one night to be full of flashing lights in every direction. Men were frantically running with lighted sods of turf in their hands, with which they rushed from one house to another. The origin of the phenomenon was never clearly traced, but it was supposed to have been a maniac appearing at a house and leaving a lighted sod of turf, at the same time giving directions that the house owner should rub it to seven other sods which he was to leave to seven houses that had not before received them. This was to be done on pain of eternal perdition. That night almost every house in Ireland was visited, and many died from the exertion of getting rid of their seven sods of turf. It is supposed that it was an experiment to see in how short a time communication might be effected on an emergency, from different centres of activity, acting simultaneously. It was called "the night of the holy fire." In Ireland no sign ought to be neglected. In 1867 the police were still in their country barracks when the day of the rising came, although orders had been issued for their concentration in the event of the near prospect of what was known must come.—St. James' Gazette.

Fifty Many Years.

An English vicar, the Rev. J. R. Jackson, tells the following story of a remarkable marriage in his church a few days ago:

"Forty years ago a young man named Thomas Griggs was 'engaged' to Elizabeth Goodyear, but, alas! a debilitating illness overtook the bride-elect, which so completely prostrated her that she took to her bed and kept it for eight and thirty years! During this long period of time, assisted by guardians, and by a small fund at her disposal, she maintained herself by needle and fancy work. During thirteen years and upward, I myself knew her in this condition, and never saw her off her bed. In the meanwhile Thomas Griggs waited patiently for the recovery of Elizabeth, but in 1865, despairing of this, he led another young woman to Elizabeth's bedside, and received from her full permission to marry this fresh acquaintance. Thomas forthwith married, but after five years of wedded life he became and remained a widower to this very day, when Elizabeth Goodyear, restored to health, walked into the parish church of Moulton, and was duly married by me to her old sweetheart. I cannot explain the nature of her prostration, nor her wonderful recovery; but I do know this, that a few months back she became conscious of a slight return of strength, that from feeble efforts to leave her bed and struggle across the room she gained power to pass her door, that the old subject of matrimony was revived by Thomas Griggs, that Elizabeth was willing, that banns were published, and that she is now the wife of her early and only love."

The Secret of Happiness.

How often have we longed for perfect enjoyment and how seldom found it. Misfortune has come, or ill health overtakes us. Perhaps a cough has come upon us which threatens that dreaded of all diseases, consumption, and we feel that death is near. With what joy should we be filled then, when such a remedy as DR. KING'S NEW DISCOVERY for Consumption is placed within our reach. It has cured thousands who were nearer the grave than ourselves and made their lives peaceful and happy. Asthma, bronchitis, hoarseness, loss of voice, difficulty of breathing, or any affection of the throat and lungs are positively cured by this wonderful discovery. Now to give you satisfactory proof that DR. KING'S NEW DISCOVERY will cure if you call at your Drug Store you can get a trial bottle for ten cents, or a regular size for $1.00. Sold by all druggists.

Catarrh.

From C. W. Thomas of Brattleboro', Vt. "For ten or twelve years past I have been troubled much of the time with Catarrh, which has kept up a continual irritation of throat and lungs, attended with severe cough. During this time I have tried many of the popular remedies of the day without the least benefit. The past winter I commenced the use of DR. WISTAR'S BALSAM OF WILD CHERRY the beneficial effects of which have been very great as after having used three bottles I find myself entirely cured of my disease. The BALSAM has also been used in a severe case of Asthma and Cough which came within my observation, which yielded at once to the remedy. I recommended its use to the afflicted generally."

50 cents and $1 a bottle. Sold by all druggists.

The American People.

No people in the world suffer as much with dyspepsia as American, and although years of experience in medicines have failed to accomplish a certain and sure remedy until GREEN'S AUGUST FLOWER was introduced and its effects, yet so well has this remedy succeeded in every case to effect a cure, that there is not a druggist in the United States but recommends the August Flower in all cases of dyspepsia and liver complaint, costiveness, sour stomach, sick headache, and all derangements of the stomach and liver. Go to your druggists and get a sample bottle for 10 cents and try it. Two doses will relieve any case. Regular size 75 cents. For sale by J. G. King and all first class druggists.

HINTS TO FARMERS.—Don't let your horses be seen standing much at the tavern door; it don't look right. Don't be without HENRY & JOHNSON'S ARNICA AND OIL LINIMENT near at hand to apply in case of accident. Keep good fences, especially line fences; it promotes good feelings among neighbors. Keep Downs' Elixir always in the house and use in cases of sudden coughs, &c., as a safeguard against consumption and other dangerous diseases. BAXTER'S MANDRAKE BITTERS, taken according to directions, saves large expense in doctor's bills.

BUCKLEN'S ARNICA SALVE.—The best salve in the world for cuts, bruises, sores, ulcers, salt rheum, fever sores, tetter, chapped hands, chilblains, corns, and all kinds of skin eruptions. This salve is guaranteed to give perfect satisfaction in every case or money refunded. Price 25 cents per box. For sale by all druggists.

BIDDULPH PRISONERS.

Purtell Despondent on Account of the Death of His Witnesses.

The position of the Biddulph prisoner Purtell is one of peculiar interest just now. Dr. McGrath, who made an alibi sworn statement that he slept in the same house on the night of the murder, and that he (Purtell) did not leave that night, has died, but his evidence is not admissible, though it would have been admissible if made after the 7th of May last, an Act having been assented to on that day which made such statements admissible. Then the other witnesses in his behalf, except Matthew McGrath, were killed in the railway accident at Clandeboye. Purtell is reported to be in great trouble over these matters, as now there is less chance of shaking the testimony of young Connor that he saw him at Donnelly's house in company with James Carroll on the night of the tragedy. A writer who is, apparently, in the confidence of the prisoners, writes a letter to the Evening Free Press, one part of which says: Ever since Purtell's arrest he has been approached from time to time by parties asking him to give evidence against his fellow-prisoners, but his invariable answer to these requests was that he knew nothing and would invent nothing. Threats have been made that his life would be the penalty, and have met with the same response; while the seductive influence of the four thousand dollars, when dangled before him by an official a short time ago, was repulsed with the remark, "I wish to God some one who knew about the murder would take it and we would be released." Within the last few days strong influences have been brought to bear upon him to induce him to give evidence for the Crown. On the evening when the account of an alleged quarrel between him and Carroll appeared, Purtell was separated from his fellow-prisoners and excluded from all communication with them, and on the following day a leading Crown official in this county had an interview with him, informing him that the Government had given instructions to release him if he told all he knew about the murders; when he replied that he knew nothing and could tell nothing. The official then said, "I know you don't, but give me a statement of anything you have heard the other prisoners say while you were confined with them which would go to show their guilt, and you will be discharged." His reply was again that he had heard nothing, and would give no information.

Sir Astley Cooper's

VITAL RESTORATIVE,

FOR

Strengthening the Nerves and Purifying the Blood.

TRADE MARK: "Elixir Vitæ."

This Preparation is Pronounced by the Most Eminent Members of the Medical Profession to be Unequalled for its Power in Replenishing the Vitality of the Body.

By its supplying all the essential constituents of the blood and nerve substance and for developing all the powers and functions of the system to the highest degree.

IT IS AGREEABLE TO THE PALATE, AND INNOCENT in its action, while retaining all its extraordinary properties; and, as a specific, surpassing all the known therapeutic agents of the day for the speedy and

Permanent Cure of

Nervous prostration, Liver Complaints, Palpitation of the Heart, Dizziness, Noises in the Head and Ears, Loss of Energy and Appetite, Hypochondria, General Debility, Indigestion, Incapacity for Study or Business, Lassitude, Trembling of the hands and Limbs, Impaired Digestion, Mental and Physical Depression, Consumption in its first stages, Impaired Sight and Memory, Nervous Fancies, Impoverished Blood, Nervous Debility in all its stages, Premature Decline, Shortness of Breath, and all morbid conditions of the system arising from whatever cause.

THE ACTION OF THE VITAL RESTORATIVE IS TWO FOLD, on the one hand increasing the principle which constitutes nervous energy, and on the other the most powerful blood and flesh generating agent known; therefore, a marvellous medicine for renovating impaired and broken down constitutions. It quickly improves the function of assimilation to such a degree that, where for years an emaciated, anxious, cadaverous and semi vital condition has existed, the flesh will rapidly increase in quantity and firmness, and the whole system return to a robust state of health.

The Vital Restorative

acts electrically upon the organization; for instance, it assists nature to generate that human electricity which renews and rebuilds the osseous, muscular, nervous, membranous and organic systems. It operates on the system without exciting care or thought upon the individual as to the process. It moves the lungs, liver, heart, kidneys, stomach and intestines with a harmony, vigour yet mildness, unparalleled in medicine.

The Vital Restorative

gives back to the human structure, in a suitable form, the phosphoric or animating element of life which has been wasted; and exerts an important influence directly on the spinal marrow and nervous system, of a nutritive tonic and invigorating character, maintaining that buoyant energy of the brain and muscular system which renders the mind cheerful, brilliant, and energetic, entirely overcoming that dull, sluggish disposition which many persons experience in all their actions.

Finally, the Vital Restorative maintains a certain degree of activity in the previously debilitated nervous system; its use enables all debilitated organs to return to their sound state and perform their natural functions. Persons suffering from Nervous Debility, or any of the hundred symptoms which this distressing disease assumes, may rest assured of an effectual and even speedy cure by the judicious use of this most invaluable remedy.

THIS MEDICINE IS EXTENSIVELY USED IN THE ARMY and is also in very general use in Hospitals and Public Sanitary Institutions throughout the land, as well as in private practice, and is considered as an invaluable remedy.

Beware of Spurious Imitations.

Ask for "Sir Astley Cooper's VITAL RESTORATIVE." Do not let the Chemist persuade you to take any other. The argument of larger bottles and less price is put forward.

It is QUALITY the afflicted require, not quantity. Sold by all Chemists, at 2s 9d., 4s. 6d., 11s. and 22s. per bottle.

PROPRIETORS—HILTON & HARGRAVE, 9 Northumberland Street, Strand, London, England.

CAUTION.—See that the words "SIR A. COOPER'S VITAL RESTORATIVE" are blown on each bottle, and that our Trade Mark "Elixir Vitæ" is on the label, without which it cannot be genuine.

Notice.—Sir A. Cooper's Vital Restorative may be had in the form of Pills at 75c, $1.25, $3, $6 and $8 per box, sent by postage, registration free, on receipt of price by the proprietors.

THE ORIGINAL AND ONLY GENUINE.

CHLORODYNE is admitted by the Profession to be the most wonderful and valuable remedy ever discovered.

CHLORODYNE is the best known remedy for Coughs, Consumption, Bronchitis and Asthma.

CHLORODYNE effectually checks and arrests those too often fatal diseases, Diphtheria, Fever and Croup, Ague.

CHLORODYNE acts like a charm in Diarrhœa, and is the only specific in Cholera and Dysentery.

CHLORODYNE effectually cuts short all attacks of Epilepsy, Hysteria, Palpitation, and Spasms.

CHLORODYNE is the only palliative in Neuralgia, Rheumatism, Gout, Cancer, Toothache, Meningitis, &c.

From W. Vesalius Pettigrew, M.D., formerly Lecturer at St. George's Hospital, London: "I have no hesitation in stating that I have never met with any medicine so efficacious as an Antispasmodic and Sedative. I have used it in Consumption, Asthma, Diarrhœa and other diseases, and am perfectly satisfied with the results."

"Earl Russell communicated to the College of Physicians that he received a despatch from Her Majesty's Consul at Manilla to the effect that cholera has been raging fearfully, and that the only remedy of any service was CHLORODYNE."—See Lancet, 1st December 1864.

CAUTION.—Beware of Piracy and Imitations. The public are further cautioned against a forgery of government stamp having come to the knowledge of the Board of Inland Revenue.

CAUTION.—Vice Chancellor Sir Page Wood stated that Dr. J. COLLIS BROWNE was undoubtedly the inventor of CHLORODYNE; that the story of the defendant, Freeman, was deliberately untrue, which, he regretted to say, had been sworn to.—See Times, July 13, 1864.

Sold in bottles at 1s. 1½d., 2s. 9d., 4s. 6d., and 11s. each. None is genuine without the words "Dr. J. Collis Browne's Chlorodyne" on the Government Stamp. Overwhelming medical testimony accompanies each bottle.
