Mr. J. F. Allen, [illegible] remained, $13.72.

The Committee will provide goods for the Committee on City Property to the extent of $[illegible] for the benevolent fund of the fire brigade, and $100 for the Kingston General Hospital.

The report was received and adopted.

A HARBOR DIRECTOR.

Ald. McCollum was appointed, on behalf of the city, a Director of the Kingston and Pembroke Railway Company, on motion of Ald. Gaskin.

STREETS' REPORT.

Ald. Robinson submitted the report of the Committee on Streets as follows: In the matter of John Rourk, as regards on January 31st, your Committee recommend, without prejudice, that the Messrs. Rourk be tendered the sum of $60 by the City Treasurer, in full of the claim set forth by them, and in the event of their refusal to accept this sum that the recommendation of report No. 55, in reference thereto, as to the appointment of an arbitrator be carried out; on the petition of P. Clark et al, and T. Duffy, praying that the stones broken by them be taken off their hands by the Council as they are very much in need of some money, your Committee recommend that the Council purchase 100 toise of broken stones, half of the purchase money to be paid on certificate of the City Engineer, approved of by your committee, and the balance when the stones are delivered. As numerous complaints have been made from time to time that the stones spread on the streets of the city are not small enough, your Committee being of opinion that each stone should be of a size small enough to pass through a two inch ring, they recommend that it be an instruction to the City Engineer to see that the stones are broken to a different size, and report these not so broken.—Received and adopted.

FIRE, WATER AND GAS.

Ald. McMahon presented the report of the Committee on Fire, Water & Gas, as follows: They had before them a communication from the Chief of the Fire Department, enclosing the resignation of Stoker J. Clark, from the 16th January, and reporting that he placed Hoseman J. Hall in his place, and recommending him as a good, steady, sober and efficient fireman. Your Committee recommend the appointment of John Hall as stoker from the 16th inst. Your Committee recommend that a sum of $40 be placed to the credit of the Fire Brigade for the benevolent fund, in accordance with the by law.—Received and adopted.

CITY PROPERTY.

Ald. Irving submitted the report of the Committee on City Property as follows: On the communication of Joseph TetRock, in reference to the purchase of lot No. 30, situated in Place d'Armes, your Committee recommend that no action be taken; they recommend that $50 be passed for the repair of furniture in the city buildings.—

A LOAN BY-LAW.

The Council gave three readings to a by-law authorizing the borrowing of a sum of $10,000 to meet the current expenses of the city.

The Council adjourned at 11:30 o'clock.

HOUSE OF COMMONS.

Discussion of Various Returns—Railway Bill and Senate.

(Globe.)

Mr. Blake presented a well signed petition from Toronto against the syndicate terms; and Mr. Patterson (Essex) tabled a petition from the Essex County Council, requesting certain tariff changes.

Mr. McCarthy's Bill to remove doubts as to the line of construction of section 12 of the Northern Railway Act, was read the second time.

Sir Charles Tupper pomised Mr. Blake to lay on the table, on an early day, the correspondence between the Government and the Toronto Board of Trade respecting the rates to be charged on the Canadian Pacific Railway.

A number of motions for returns and and papers was made.

Mr. Orton moved for the appointment of a select committee to investigate the alleged monopoly in coal oil, but what promised to be a long and interesting debate was summarily closed by an announcement from Mr. Mousseau that the Government contemplated introducing this session new regulations respecting coal oil. The motion was withdrawn.

During a brief debate on a motion by Mr. Bechard, for all correspondence concerning the purchase by the Dominion of the North Shore Railway, Mr. Langevin admitted there had been negotiations, but was in doubt as to there being correspondence.

Mr. Dawson moved for the correspondence between the Dominion and Imperial Governments respecting the boundaries of Quebec and Ontario. He favoured strongly the creation of a new Province between Ontario and Manitoba out of the territory of Algoma.

The Minister of Agriculture, in reply to a question put by Mr. Alonzo Wright at his own instance, denied that Canada was to be placed by the Imperial authorities on any other footing than she now occupied respecting the exportation of cattle to that country.

A debate respecting railway monopolies and, charges for passengers and freight sprang up on a motion by Mr. Mills for a series of returns respecting railway travel, hauling passengers, and freight, tolls, etc. The motion was lost on a division, because the Government declined to bring down the whole of the information, and Mr. Mills would not agree to accept a half return.

The House adjourned at 11 o'clock.

In the Senate the debate on the second reading of the Pacific Railway Bill was resumed. Mr. Scott continued his speech, and at six o'clock closed by moving the three months' hoist. On the amendment, after recess, Mr. Cornwall spoke specially in the interests of British Columbia and in support of the contract. Mr. Haythorne spoke at some length against the Bill. Mr. Howlan moved the adjournment of the debate.

Remedy For Hard Times.

Stop spending so much on fine clothes, rich food and style. Buy good, healthy food, cheaper and better clothing, get more real and substantial things of life every way, and especially stop the foolish habit of running after expensive and quack doctors, or using so much of the vile humbug medicine that does you only harm, and makes the proprietors rich, but put your trust in the greatest of all simple, pure remedies, Hop Bitters, that cures always at a trifling cost, and you will see better times and good health. Try it once. Read of it in another column.

A GREAT CHICAGO ENTERPRISE.—The laboratory for the manufacture of Electric Bitters is one of Chicago's greatest enterprises, giving employment to a large number of hands. The extensive sale already attained for this wonderful remedy is astonishing. Wherever once introduced and becomes known, it is almost impossible to supply the demand, because of their true merit—curing where all others fail—and at a reasonable price (fifty cents). Exch.

DYSPEPSIA.—Strengthen your digestion, tone the stomach for utilizing and assimilating every atom of food you take. The body needs it for strength and vigor. Zoëna cleanses the entire system, stimulates the liver, keeps you regular and able to eat ten penny nails. Letters and postal cards come in daily extolling Zoëna from Brazil. Positive proof of health and vigor it gives in a 10 cent sample. Sold by Hooth & Gunn and Henry Wade.

The rumour is revived that the Princess will return to Canada in the spring, the month of May being now named as the probable time. As an indication of her complete recovery from the nervous shock sustained by the runaway accident in Ottawa last winter this news will be warmly welcomed. So will the Princess herself when she comes, for from the Governor General down the people of Canada will testify, Her Royal Highness with open arms, although only in the case of His Excellency himself will such a reception as we have mentioned prove literally true. There has been an abiding regret in the Canadian public mind at the prolonged absence of the royal resident of Canada, particularly as this has been enforced by an accident she sustained at the Canadian capital. At any rate this has been assigned as the reason why Her Royal Highness has remained so long in England, and Canadians are too loyal and gallant to question the correctness of it.

THE IRISH QUESTION.

There is no reason whatever to believe that the remedial measures which the Gladstone Ministry will submit to Parliament will be any the less liberal for the collisions which have lately occurred between the Government and the Land Leaguers. The Ministry may indeed be exceptionally powerful in the matter of the Coercion Bills for the reason that nearly the solid Conservative party is supporting them in the repressive measures now before Parliament. On the other hand the Home Rulers will surely support the new Land Bill, even if it should not go the extreme length of their demands or expectations. The few English Radicals too, who have opposed coercion, may be counted on to vote for the Tenant Emancipation Bill, as the coming measure of redress may be called. The greatest difficulty and danger of all will be to obtain the approval of the House of Lords. The rejection of the Compensation for Disturbance Bill of last session by the Upper House is not a reassuring augury for the fate of the new land act in that chamber. If the Lords are wise they will not repeat the mistake which they then perpetrated but will permit whatever measure passes the House of Commons to become law. It would be a fatal mistake to drive the Irish people to desperation by rejecting it. The declaration has been repeatedly made that the Coercion Bill is merely intended to restore the menaced majesty of law and order in Ireland and thus to pave the way for the realization of the Government intention to deal justly with the Irish peasantry in the matter of the land laws. It is now distinctly understood that repressive laws are to be followed by repressive measures and it will be a matter to be seriously deplored if this expectation should be defeated by the stubborn infatuation of the House of Lords.

AN AWKWARD POSITION.

We would be the very last to subscribe to the pernicious political doctrine that a Government should support its supporters. It was on the very issue that the Sandfield Macdonald administration was defeated in the Ontario Legislature ten years ago, when it was proposed that the distribution of the surplus should be entrusted entirely to the good pleasure and discretion of the Cabinet. Nobly on that occasion was the wholesome principle vindicated that the people's representatives should retain control of the public purse, until the Liberal party came into power on the distinct understanding that every appropriation, whether for railway or any other purpose, should be submitted to House for ratification. The principle has been acted upon since by the Government which has not ceased to enjoy the confidence of the people of Ontario, and which was proven at the last election to be stronger than ever in popular favour. While, however, we heartily approve of this vital principle, which the Liberal Government of Ontario came into existence to uphold, we at the same time cannot but think it an unfortunate circumstance for our local interests that the electors of Kingston evinced their gratitude for the handsome subsidies granted to our local road by sending a member to the Provincial Parliament who would stick at nothing to eject that Government from power. Not that there is the slightest inclination on the part of the Government to punish us for not electing a man to support them, for we are well assured that such a consideration would not have a feather's weight of influence with the Mowat Ministry. There is a possibility, however, that in the eagerness of our Tory representative to make a point against the Government he may do the city and its interests a positive and serious injury. For example in the only oral effort our local member has made this session he laboured to prove that there was no surplus in the hands of the Government, while very shortly afterwards he was called upon to form part of the influential delegation which recently interviewed the Government for further assistance to the Kingston and Pembroke Railway. A more absurd position could scarcely be imagined than that occupied by our exceedingly consistent member on the occasion to which we refer, a suitor for a share of the surplus, which, but a few hours before he had tried to show had no existence as a matter of fact! He was completely stultified, and the members of the Government were keen enough to point out the glaring paradox of which our representative was the impersonation.

COLLAPSE AT BUFFALO.

Roof of the Railway Depot Falls in—Its Results.

Buffalo, N. Y., Feb. 8.—Shortly after 8 o'clock this morning the roof of the Central Railway depot fell in and it is reported that many persons were buried in the ruins. In twenty minutes five or six thousand persons surrounded the big depot and struggled for admission. The whole eastern half of the long arch excepting two short spans next to the new park, had given way under the weight of the melting snow and fallen, burying a passenger train

PARTLY FILLED WITH PASSENGERS

two or more cars who were outside the and cars. A Lake Shore train (No. 4) lay in the depot waiting for the connecting central train, which was late. The number of passengers on board could only be approximated, and no one seemed to be able to talk with any definiteness whether any of them were missing or hurt. The Eastern end appeared to have given way first, as the entire building fell in that direction, the [illegible] followed almost [illegible] time heard the [illegible] crash and the vast building was in ruins. The debris presented to the eye a huge mangled mass of bricks, snow and portions of roofing. Loosening bricks dropped occasionally and great masses of the walls seemed

READY TO TOPPLE AT ANY MOMENT.

At the southern corner two New York Central cars had been crushed to smithereens and lay half buried with bricks. On the next track lay the buried Lake Shore train. It was completely hidden except where a corner of one of the four cars peeped through the over arching wreckage, but strange to say none of the cars were materially damaged. The terrified passengers managed to get through to the end of the train, and so escaped. Within less than an hour after the accident occurred a force of over a hundred men were put to work on the ruins, searching everywhere for the bodies of persons supposed to be under the debris. The first result of the search was of a man which was immediately removed to the waiting room. He lay extended on the floor a sickening sight. His face was of a leaden hue, his hair was matted with blood, both legs were broken the left being completely shivered, his chest was crushed in, the back of his skull fractured, and clots of blood were found in each ear. He was soon after recognized to be Jno. W. Burns, of Buffalo, New York, and had of late been in Erie superintending the construction of the tug "Anne P. Dorr," and was probably about to return. Shortly after eleven o'clock there was a rush of firemen and police in the direction of Byron King's office to herald some new discovery, and a cry arose that another body had been found, and such was indeed the case. Beneath a pile of debris, within eight feet of the Depot Master's office, lay the body of Henry Walters. The man side and across him lay a huge rafter, which, in falling, had evidently pinned him firmly to the earth. The face of the dead man was much disfigured, the nose having been crushed flat with his face. The unfortunate man was private clerk to Superintendent Tillinghast, and was one of the most popular men in the company's employ. At the time the accident occurred he was standing near the switch engine talking to Coroner Scott and Passenger Agent Smith. When the roof began to crumble and fall they all ran toward the Depot Master's office. Mr. Smith barely succeeded in reaching the office when the roof fell in.

A HORRIBLY MANGLED CORPSE

"Bohemian's" Loss.

Boston, Feb. 8.—The steamer "Bohemian," reported to have been wrecked on the Irish coast, was one of the six steamers of the Leyland Line plying between this port and Liverpool. She was built at Belfast in 1870, and combined speed with a large carrying capacity. She had six water-tight compartments, and a cargo of produce embracing corn, hogs, products, cotton, dairy products, apples, leather and meat. A despatch states that only the second mate and twenty seamen are saved. The total loss of life is about 39. The steamer was worth half a million; the cargo $237,000.

Political Difficulties.

Berlin, Feb. 8.—Bennigsen, National Liberal leader in the Prussian Diet, challenged Von Ludwig, member of the Independent party, to a duel, the latter having charged him with a breach of his oath to the house of Hanover. Von Ludwig refused to accept the challenge, but repeated the insults.

Madrid, Feb. 8.—The Spanish Ministry has tendered its resignation in consequence of the King's refusal to assent to a bill for the conversion of the redeemable loans of 1876 and 1880 of £3,400,000.

Boer Treachery.

London, Feb. 7.—An official despatch dated Pretoria, Jan. 10th, says the troops captured a lager on the 6th. The loss of the Boers is heavy, and the British loss is also heavy in consequence of the treachery of the Boers, who, after hoisting a white flag, fired on the British. The Boers are inciting the natives to rise, but without success. A number of loyalists have been forced to join the Boers, and some natives have been murdered.

Insurance Fraud.

Cincinnati, O. Feb. 8.—Charles Lucas, has been arrested for conspiring to defraud an Insurance Company by a $15,000 life policy which Lucas had taken out. Lucas purposely fell into the river having a life saving suit on, and it was given out that he drowned.

Shocking Murder.

London, Feb. 8.—A shocking murder has been committed at Derrylee, near Enniskillen, county Fermanagh, in connection with the land disputes. The murderer is alleged to be the nephew of the victim.

Rowing Regatta.

New York, Feb. 8.—The Dauntless Rowing Club has determined to send an eight oared crew to England to contest for honors at the great Henly Regatta.

Closing Monasteries.

Belgrade, Feb. 8.—The Skuptshina has unanimously passed a resolution in favour of closing the monasteries in Servia.

Hanlan-Laycock.

London, Feb. 8.—Betting for the race next Monday is now 5 to 2 on Hanlan.

Miners' Strike.

London, Feb. 8.—A thousand miners have struck at Ruabon, Wales, for a 25 per cent. advance.

THE BAULT'S EXECUTION.

A Disorderly Scene—No Credit to Canada.

Annapolis, N.S., Feb. 5.—Through the night little knots of persons collected at street corners seeming rather to be expectant witnesses of disorderly intentions to have disorderly intentions themselves. One or two attempts were made on the fence surrounding the jail in which the execution was to take place during the night but the constables easily drove the attackers off. Towards daylight teams of every description began to pour into town and soon after six o'clock the crowd gathered in front of the jail enclosure. Several of the crowd, principally from the country, were inflamed with liquor and it became evident that the threatened destruction of the fence would take place if a determined front was not shown by the constables on duty. With shouts and yells the mob rushed towards the fence. Clergymen, constables and citizens remonstrated, entreated and tried in every way to restore the maddened throng but to no purpose. Huge beams were used as battering rams, and once an opening was made poles and hands were used and the whole front of the high strong fence was in a few minutes tore down. The scene was one of the most disgraceful ever seen. Those who were inciting the mob to violence argued that the people tore down the fences at Digby, in Montreal, and elsewhere when executions were sought to be made private. While this wild disorder was in progress outside Thibault was walking slowly up and down his cell striving to pacify himself for the awful doom awaiting him. Rev. Father Holden urged him to keep his mind on the other world, and to resign himself to meet his heavenly judge. When the jail officials entered and took their last farewell of him he sobbed like a child, but he again steadied his nerves. He spent the night in prayer, only sleeping a few minutes, and he took no breakfast. A few minutes before eight o'clock the Sheriff and his deputy with a constable entered the cells and Thibault's arms were pinioned, the fatal noose placed around his neck, and he walked strongly from the cell. He was led up the steps and stood on the scaffold. The rope was cut with a sharp hatchet, the drop fell and the murderer of Charlotte Hill was avenged. Not the slightest motion of the body was observable. The crowd began to surge, and some one urged them for God's sake to restrain themselves. Sixteen minutes from the fall the body was cut down and taken to St. Croix, Digby county, by the friends of the deceased and buried. The spectators numbered seven or eight hundred, including a dozen women and several children. Thibault made no statement or confession.

CALIFORNIA FLOODS.

Country Overflowed—Suffering of the Population.

San Francisco, Feb. 8.—Despatches from the central and northern part of the state say that rain began last night, but so far it is not heavy. There is no danger of a further overflow on the Sacramento and San Joaquin valleys unless a warm rain falls on the high Sierras, where there is an immense deposit of snow. In Sacramento valley the water is falling. It is thought that the worst is over. Many steamers are plying over the submerged plains taking off people and stock. The latter are congregated on levees, knolls, and in barns, in some instances standing in shallow water. Accounts are coming in from the overflowed sections of people being drowned. The aggregate loss of life will be considerable. There has been no communication with the northern sea coast counties for two weeks.

SPECIAL DESPATCHES.

Condensed into Small Compass.

The stock market was weak and lower this morning.

The Legislature of New Brunswick was opened at 3 o'clock this afternoon.

Chief Joseph, Oka, the Indian leader and a Methodist Minister, died suddenly at his home in Oka.

Yesterday the Toronto University appointments took up most of the afternoon session of the Ontario Legislature.

There is not much doubt that the steamer seen under sail on the 6th inst., by the bark Artic will prove to be the overdue Batavia.

This morning the roof was blown off the residence at Sutton, of Richard Watson Bradford, Secretary of the British Banks of North America. Bradford was instantly killed.

Case Dismissed.

London, Feb. 8.—In the case of the priest and six members of the Kilmallock Land League, charged with intimidating a farmer named Berkerry, the latter is supposed to have fled to America, and failing to appear against the accused the charge was dismissed.

Gold Coast.

London, Feb. 8.—A regiment of troops to be sent from Barbadoes to the Gold Coast, is composed of negroes.

Anti-Syndicate Petition.

The Queen's College Journal contains the following respecting the anti-syndicate college petition:

Two zealous Reformers in the College circulated a petition to Parliament, against the syndicate for building the Canada Pacific Railway, which has been making the Daily News and other papers fearfully excited. The petition was signed by the Grits and went down to Ottawa. Some lynx-eyed reporter got hold of it from the Speaker's table, and having copied it sent the names up to the Daily News, which paper immediately published them with the exception of half a dozen which had doubtless escaped their notice. The next morning the Daily News office was besieged by students who said they did not sign the petition. That paper then published a list of four students whose names were forgeries, and continued in a terribly excited state for a whole week. It afterwards turned out that the petition had been left for signature in the cloak room and some unscrupulous person had tampered with it. Contrary to the general run of women, our lady students show that they think on the political questions of the day and can hold decided opinion. They all signed the petition, and in consequence a deal of chaff has been poked at them by the funny (?) reporters of several papers. A youthful reporter of the Toronto Mail is also excessively witty; but shows his lamentable ignorance of the great educational institutions of the country.
