"POUND OF FLESH."

Evictions in Montreal Turned into the Streets—A Widow and Her Sick.

Several cases of very heartless eviction by landlords in Montreal have been mentioned in the press. A whole family of seven children was lately turned into the street with the thermometer at 15 degrees below zero. Some months since an Englishman with a wife and family of seven children came from home, and rented a house on St. Urban street. Before leaving the Old Country the gentleman had sold out some property he possessed there, receiving part cash, the balance to be paid by instalments. At first the payments came regularly, but all at once ceased, and the news came that the party had failed and was only able to offer one shilling on the pound to his creditors. This was a heavy blow to the gentleman and his family, who were solely depending upon the instalments for a living as from the time of his arrival here the father, who was a clerk or book-keeper, was unable to get a situation. Of course the rent got into arrears, and the landlord came down with a seizure on the furniture and an ejectment, turning the family of small children into the streets on one of the coldest days of the season, and locking up the house. The unfortunate people, who are highly respectable and who had never been in such a lamentable state before, felt their wretched condition very severely. But for the kindness of neighbors and friends who supplied them with temporary shelter and food, they might have perished for all the heartless owner of the house cared. Under any circumstances the landlord would not have suffered any further loss by allowing the family to remain until the first of May, as he had full security for the rent in the furniture, and at any rate could not find a new tenant until that time for the dwelling. All the appeals of the distressed family for delay, however, were in vain, and the "pound of flesh" was insisted on. Another very cruel case was the turning out of a widow, with one of her children danger, only ill, the doctor being in attendance. In both of these cases the parties were most respectable people.

MR. PARNELL'S MOTHER.

Her Address at the Organization of an American Ladies' Land League.

Mrs. Delia Steward Parnell, the mother of the Irish Home Ruler, made an address on the Irish question last evening at No. 395 Fulton street, Brooklyn. Many women were present. Mrs. Parnell said: "I have been entirely absorbed by one business lately, and that was so immense that it has taken all of my time, all of my thought, and all of my words, and that is the Irish question. (Applause.) And I can only speak of the land question in this country in connection with the land question in Ireland. We have one great thing to settle first, and that once settled it will affect the whole world, and will plead for you and your right better than all the tongues in the universe could. I am glad to say that in financial circles in this country the American sentiment is wheeling around into the right line, and that is taking place which England has sought to avoid, the expression of American sympathy for Ireland, and this is destined to take place more and more every day until you will have the whole of this mighty nation to take your part in your warfare with Great Britain. The Irish women set an example to the women of this country by their labour; they understand the land question and need no one to preach to them. England understands it too, but she has set up an idol in the landlord and must need bow down and worship it. But we came here to do business rather that to talk. We want if possible to form a ladies' branch of the Land League. I trust the ladies present will all come forward and enroll themselves, and so encourage their fathers, their brothers, their husbands, and their beaus; and I trust that they have not only got a good many strings to their beaus, but a good many beaus on a string. (Laughter.) I know that is an American habit; it used to be my habit once, and it was a very agreeable habit."

After an address by Miss Ford the roll was opened upon the Secretary's table, and nearly every woman present signed it.—N.Y. World.

Holloway's Ointment and Pills.

The extraordinary range of temperature prevailing in our climate is extremely trying to the delicate chested, the weak, and nervous. All troubled by these afflictions should resolve to resort to this strengthening and regulating medicine immediately they perceive in themselves discomfort or that feeling of restlessness which betokens disordered digestion and defective secretion of bile. One of Holloway's Pills, taken about noon and followed at bed-time by a dose sufficiently large to act aperiently will speedily recruit the faulty functions, and restore order throughout the whole system. A treatment so safe in operation and so successful in result should be known and practised when, from cold and sundry other causes, disease is attempting to gain a vexatious footing.

Lions About.

It is a dangerous thing to trifle with a cold. A darkey preacher once told his hearers that he thanked God, "that the devil went about as a roaring lion, seeking whom he might devour. He might catch a poor fellow who didn't know that he was near him; but when he heard the roar he could get out of the way; if he didn't, he deserved to die." So when one hears the wheeze or the cough which tells of the old lion of Consumption lurking around, he should fly to Dr. WISTAR'S BALSAM OF WILD CHERRY, and get out of the way of danger. This preparation is well known, has been tried nearly fifty years, and is acknowledged by all who use it to be unsurpassed in its soothing and healing properties.

RICH LITERARY PRIZE.

Give $10,000 to be Divided Between the Competing Parties.

It would appear that the House of Lords has profited neither by the experience of the recess nor the prudent counsels of Lord Beaconsfield, and that the majority of the peers are as imprudent this session as the last. The opposition of the Duke of Richmond and the imposing phalanx of peers who obey his behests has sufficed to induce the Upper House to throw out the provisional order for the utilization of the Burnett literary fund. In 1873 John Burnett, an Aberdeen merchant, left the third part of the rent on some land in Kinattie to provide every forty years, for prizes, to be awarded by public competition to the authors of treatises proving the wisdom and goodness of the Deity. The sum thus accumulated amounted in 1854 to £2,440, when it was declared with truth to be the richest literary prize in Europe. At present the clear annual revenue of the fund amounts to £200. As £6,500 will be available for distribution in 1894, and as it is manifestly absurd to pay £3,250 each for a couple of prize essays, the Endowed School Commissioners of Scotland reported in favor of the suggestion for the trustees of transforming the trust so as to make it available for founding a lectureship at Aberdeen University on "the history of religious thought, with special reference to theism and the sanctions of morality." Orthodoxy took alarm. "Ten out of the twenty-one professors of the university petitioned against the provisional order embodying the scheme of the trustees. Only seven could be found to petition in its favour. The Duke of Richmond whipped up the Conservative peers in support of "the pious founder," and thus it came to pass that a scheme for utilizing a wasted educational endowment was thrown out with contumely. Lord Granville not even venturing to take a division on the subject. In 1894, therefore, £6,000 will have to be given away to the successful authors of a couple of prize essays, which no one save the unfortunate adjudicators can be expected to read. The rejection of the provisional order is only a trifle, but a straw shows how the wind blows.

THE ATTENTION of owners of Farm Property and Residences is invited to the above Pyramid, showing the uniform and sure growth, during the last seventeen of the 21 years of existence, of a fire insurance company whose charter limits its business to their class of property—the Agricultural Insurance Company, of Watertown, N. Y. The figures represent the amount set apart at the dates given, for the PROTECTION OF POLICY HOLDERS.

Twenty-seven years of patient toil has made this the strongest and largest Company doing an exclusive Dwelling Business in the United States, if not in the world. "If how insure" is the policies a year. No other like Company can show such growth and increase.

The history of this Company proves that a LARGE business, well scattered, managed with prudence, can be done with a very small profit from each risk, and afford perfect security, which will grow stronger every year.

While nine tenths of the "Mutual" fire insurance companies, and many of the Stock companies, have failed on account of reckless or extravagant management or doing too small a business, the OLD AGRICULTURAL, by economy, energy and prudence, has every year added a substantial amount to its Assets, for the indemnity of its patrons, and now occupies a position in the confidence of the public second to no other Company.

From year to year it spreads the base of its Pyramid and gains strength.

EXTRACT FROM CHARTER.—Article 5. This Company is formed for the purpose of insuring Farmers' Dwellings, Private Residences, Barns and Outbuildings, with their contents, and other property not more hazardous, and is strictly confined to this class of property.

MESSRS. WEBER & CO. in announcing their success at the World's Fair, would call the attention of the Canadian public to the fact that after the most searching examination by gentlemen eminent for their Musical talent their Pianos have been awarded the above prizes. These Instruments were not made for the Exhibition, but taken from stock, being a fair representation of their Pianos. This should be a proof to Canadians that Canada can produce as good Pianos as the best imported Instruments. ☞ PRICE LIST on application.

Dr. J. Collin Browne's Chlorodyne.
THE ORIGINAL AND ONLY GENUINE.

CHLORODYNE is admitted by the Profession to be the most wonderful and valuable remedy ever discovered.

CHLORODYNE is the best known remedy for Coughs, Consumption, Bronchitis and Asthma.

CHLORODYNE effectually checks and arrests those too often fatal diseases, Diphtheria, Fever and Croup, Ague.

CHLORODYNE acts like a charm on Diarrhœa and is the only specific in Cholera and Dysentery.

CHLORODYNE effectually cuts short all attacks of Epilepsy, Hysteria, Palpitation, and Spasms.

CHLORODYNE is the only palliative in Neuralgia, Rheumatism, Gout, Cancer, Toothache, Meningitis, &c.

From W. Tennins Pettigrew, M.D., formerly Lecturer at St. George's Hospital, London: I have no hesitation in stating that I have never met with such a medicine so efficacious as an Antispasmodic and Sedative. I have used it in Consumption, Asthma, Diarrhœa and other diseases, and I am perfectly satisfied with the results.

Earl Russell communicated to the College of Physicians that he received a despatch from Her Majesty's Consul at Manilla to the effect that cholera has been raging fearfully, and that the only remedy of any service was Chlorodyne. See Lancet, 1st December, 1858.
