CITY AND VICINITY.

PROBS.—Northwesterly to southwesterly winds, fair weather, stationary or lower temperature.

CITY COUNCIL.—The regular meeting is called for this evening. Several important Committee reports may be expected.

AT KING'S drug store, market square, mustard leaves, absorbent cotton, oil silk, oiled muslin, gutta percha tissue, Pratt's court plaster, gold beater skin.

THEATRICAL.—The Kingston Dramatic Club, remember, perform this evening in the Opera House. Let the support be good.

OFF THE TRACK.—A car on the K. & P. RR. outbound train, ran off the track at Sydenham road crossing. The incoming morning train was delayed in consequence.

QUEEN ST. CHURCH.—The proposed extention of the Queen street Church has not been abandoned. New plans are being prepared and a quiet preparation made for energetic work.

ST. PAUL'S TEA AND CONCERT.—We again remind our readers of this annual affair which comes of to-morrow (Tuesday) evening in the Victoria Hall. An excellent tea and first-class programme.

POLICE COURT.—Three inebriates reported at the police court this morning—J. Hugliston, J. McCuaig and J. Gorman. Each was fined $1 and costs. Marshall Norris pleaded guilty to a charge of blaspheming on the public streets. He promised to reform and was discharged.

INTRODUCED THE MACHINE.—Mr. I. H. Radford claims that he introduced the hay presser into this part of Canada. He has now twelve machines in operation in connection with the biggest hay contract in Canada. He is prepared to contract with farmers for this year's hay crop.

CANADIAN CRESS ASSOCIATION.—The annual meeting of this association will be held at Ottawa to-morrow. The tournament is open to all residents of the Dominion. Entries have been made by members of the Montreal, Quebec, Toronto, Kingston and Hamilton clubs, and a close contest is looked for.

SALE OF REAL ESTATE.—The sale of valuable city property on Ontario street, now occupied by Fenwick, Hendry & Co. as a wholesale grocery store, and by Captain Lewis, besides a valuable wharf and storehouse, takes place at Hutcheson's auction rooms on Wednesday at 2 p.m. It is very rarely thet so eligible a piece of city property is placed on the market.

"THE CONTRACT SWALLOWED."—Such is the title of the full page cartoon in the last edition of Grip. Having seated the document with "official influence grease" a caged serpent, representing the parliamentary majority, has swallowed it, and has a swelled and peculiarly distressed appearance. Near by Sir John muses, "Yes, it's down sure enough, but I'm afraid it won't digest."

"B" BATTERY.—The Militia Department has increased the number of short course non-commissioned officers and men attached to "B" Battery by 20 during this winter, a corresponding number to be reduced from the strength during summer. The number of horses has been increased by sixteen, so that now a full battery of four guns with four horses each can be turned out for parade.

IRREGULARITY OF THE MAILS.—A subscriber writes from Yarker Post Office of the non-arrival, on Thursdays lately, of the WHIG and Globe parcels, while certain Conservative papers, posted about the same time, arrive promptly. We do not know where the fault lies. The WHIG bundle for the Newburg route, including Yarker, is usually posted several hours before the mail is closed.

ICE ACCIDENT.—Several attempts have been made to take out the horses which were drowned on Saturday morning. Mr. Jas. Welsh, who was much exhausted when he arrived at Mr. Calvin's residence, desires to return to both Mr. and Mrs. Calvin his thanks for the kindness received from them on that occasion. And they deserve thanks as Mr. Calvin has performed a generous act in presenting Mr. Welsh with another excellent team of horses.

THE CARMEN'S CASES.—The court was crowded this morning with those desirous of hearing the evidence in the carmen's cases. Two pleaded guilty. The remainder Mr. T. H. McGuire defended. The testimony of Detective Flynn, P. C. Campbell and others was taken. Judgment was deferred until to-morrow, chiefly in consequence of an objection made that the by-law under which the prosecutor was proceeding was an old one of the town of Kingston, and did not apply to the limits of the present city. The charge was that of leaving cabs unattended at the G. T. R. Station.

Mrs. Scott Siddons was at the Globe Theatre, Boston, last week. Her engagement began with "Rosalind." The house was densely crowded, and the actress was called out after each act.

Rev. J. Davie, of Pittsburg, delivered the missionary sermons at the Depot Church yesterday. The anniversary meeting will be held on Thursday evening. Rev. Dr. Elliott and Rev. G. M. Hagar will deliver addresses.

The Mail, the other day, seemed to be doubtful as to the meaning of our expression, "had poor experience." Mr. Fahey will be able to describe it if he becomes a candidate for the representation of Prescott in the Legislature.

The Globe Ottawa correspondent telegraphed last night: "I have it on the most reliable authority that Sir Charles Tupper is considerably worse even than he was this morning, and that he takes a very despondent view of his own case and is alarmed."

Mr. Samuel Brown, for some time a clerk in J. S. Henderson & Co.'s grocery, left to-day for Cohoes, N.Y. Mr. Brown was an energetic member of the M. E. Church and his departure is regretted. He was the recipient of several presents from his associates.

A friend, just returned from the Capital, informs us that Sir John has been very low. We regret it. Politically we may be ranked among the Premier's unflinching opponents, but politics must be forgotten when a man's health and even life are a matter for serious consideration.

Curling Match.

The match on Saturday afternoon, between the two rinks that played lately at Belleville and the two home rinks, resulted in a victory for the latter by four shots. The match was very closely contested, as the result shows. The two home rinks will now play for the medal.

IN THE TOILS AGAIN.—Possibly no young man in this city has developed a more unenviable character in a given time than Orab Marshall. He was before the Court this morning charged with drunkenness and assault. On Saturday evening he made a dash at a man named Staley with a knife, laying open the back of his coat. At the Court Marshall's mother interceded for him, but the pleading was of no avail. Marshall was committed to gaol for four months.

FUNERAL YESTERDAY.—The remains of the late W. J. Rogers were conveyed to Cataraqui Cemetery yesterday. The funeral was under the direction of the Prentice Boys, of whose lodge deceased was a member. They headed the cortege, two and two, having a badge of crape tied with purple ribbon on the right arm. At St. James' Church a halt was made while Rev. Mr. Kirkpatrick read the impressive burial service.

NEW PASSENGER LINE.—"Peerless" and "Empire City" are the names of the boats purchased to run on Alexandria Bay in opposition to the Richelieu and Ontario Navigation Co., and the projectors are in treaty for a third vessel. So says the Witness.

SUNDAY SERVICES.

Special Subjects Discussed. The Changes Among a Fraternal Ministry.

Rev. Dr. Jackson and Rev. T. Hall, Congregational ministers, exchanged pulpits yesterday evening.

Rev. Principal Grant occupied the pulpit of the M. E. Church last evening, preaching with his usual earnestness and effect.

Rev. J. M. Hagar yesterday morning discussed fasting and prayer as two important methods of exhibiting religion and advancing Christianity.

The university preachers for the next three Sundays will be Rev. M. W. Maclean, of Belleville; Rev. D. Ross, of La Chine; and Rev. J. Awde, of Montreal.

Rev. E. B. McLaren, of Brampton, delivered the sermon in Convocation Hall, yesterday afternoon from Philippeads iii-18. He referred to the zeal display-ed by Paul in seeking the higher attainments of Christian perfection, and said that his course was open to all Christians. He discussed the subject under the following heads: (1) the end in view, (2) the anxiety to reach the end; (3) forgetfulness of all past struggles. The attendance at the college was not as large as usual, but the service was none the less interesting. In the evening Rev. Mr. McLaren preached in Chalmers Church.

In St. Mary's Cathedral yesterday morning High Mass was celebrated by the Rev. Father Twohey. The sermon was preached by the Rev. Father O'Brien, of Kemptville, who took for his text St. Matthew, xvi. 22. It was the first occasion on which we had the pleasure of hearing the reverend speaker, and he won golden opinions for the eloquent and practical manner in which he treated his subject. The singing by the choir was really fine, and shows the careful training of the director, Prof. Desrochers. The collection in aid of the funds of St. Vincent de Paul Society amounted to $150, which no doubt will greatly aid in ameliorating the condition of the suffering poor of the city.

Fox Hunt on the Ice.

The Knights of the Cleaver, to relieve the monotony of a dull afternoon, agreed to have a good fox hunt on the ice at 2 o'clock. Promptly at that hour Mr. W. McCammon left the shambles carrying a bag, containing a lively animal. A large crowd and many sleighs proceeded to the ice. Dogs for the chase had been entered by the following: J. McCaul, "Jip;" A. McGuire, "Smuggler," "Go Fast" and "Jack;" J. H. Metcalfe, "Lil ie Billy;" P. Clark, "Driver;" W. McCammon, "Rover;" G. Watson, "Sleepy;" M. Conroy, "Cedar;" T. Hanlan, "Prince;" O. Kennedy, "Bulk;" F. Folger, "Carlow;" W. Reid, "Unknown;" W. G. Elliott, "Sharp;" M. Walsh, "Coney;" J. Haffner, "Buff;" W. Harkness, "Shoo Fly;" W. Waddington, "Juno;" T. McConville, "Rover;" J. Green, "Rattler;" W. Jones, "Swiper;" R. Amey, "Ranger;" J. McGuire, "Angus." There was such a crowd around the sleigh in which the knights were seated that the fox could not be released. A clearance was made and Reynard was started out of the bag. Away he flew, taking an easterly direction. He had quite a start before the dogs were let go, but the latter soon overtook the fox. It was caught by J. McCaul's "Jip" and killed by McGuire's bull dog. It was decided to have more sport of this description, and hence it was given out that foxes would be purchased from any having them for sale.

The Reception Meeting.

There was a large attendance of young men at St. Patrick's Hall yesterday afternoon, the object of the meeting being to devise some action in regard to the reception of the Right Rev. Dr. Cleary. Mr. John Behan was called to the chair, and Mr. John McNeil was appointed Secretary. The chairman stated the object of the meeting and asked for suggestions. After a good deal of conversation it was resolved to appoint a committee to consult the Rev. Chancellor of the Diocese and report at an adjourned meeting next Sunday afternoon. The gentlemen present desired to tender the new Bishop a hearty reception.

On Tuesday, Jan. 20, the Most Rev. Dr. Cleary, Bishop of Kingston, consecrated the beautiful marble altar at the Augustinian Church, Dungarvan, after which His Lordship imparted the Pope's benediction to the congregation. The church was crowded almost to suffocation. An admirable sermon was delivered by the Rev. Father Sheehan, of Waterford, on the evening of the same day.

Land League.

There was a good attendance at the usual meeting of the Land League last night. Ald. McGuire presided, and made a lengthy speech, touching upon some of the principal events of the week, especially upon the effect of Mr. Parnell's visit to Paris and the interest which he awoke among eminent French men for the cause of Ireland. The Secretary being absent, his duty was performed by Mr. John Behan. The steps which have been taken to extend the influence and operations of the Land League were considered very satisfactory. A speech was made by Mr. John Clancy, who spoke largely of his own experiences in the old land. Several new members were admitted. The matter of establishing a library and reading room by the Catholic young men of the city, in the rooms over St. Patrick Hall, was mentioned. The suggestion was endorsed, and an effort will be made to carry it into effect.

Notice to Mariners.

Notice is given that the fixed white light, at Charlotte, N.Y., on the west bank of the Genesee River, will not be relighted on the opening of navigation in the spring of 1881. Near the beacon, on the pier at the mouth of the river, there will be sounded, during thick and foggy weather, a bell struck by machinery, at intervals of 30 seconds.

Interim Sessions.

The case of Beaupre, for the larceny of lumber from John Hitchcock, of Palmerston, was tried before Judge Price this morning. The evidence was not sufficient to convict. Beaupre having intended to return the lumber and having no desire to conceal it.

GOING FROM HOME.

Temptations Which Beset the Young Men Fortify Against Them.

There was a large congregation last evening in the Primitive Methodist Church when Rev. Mr. Jolliffe delivered the first of a series of four special sermons in the interest of the young men. Upon the story of the prodigal son the reverend gentleman founded his sermon. He had preached similar before, and his only apology for returning to the subject was just this. He had been importuned for months to repeat the series, which had been pretty fully reported in the columns of the Barrie Wing. He had hesitated for a time, because the preparation of them would be as troublesome as the preparation of others, and he was not sure of the opinions expressed in regard to them; some, probably, might be of the belief that he was running out of sermon material. The latter was certainly not his reason, inasmuch as he had sermons ready for months to come if he did not write another. He had consented to a repetition of the sermons because he had received proofs of the spiritual advantage of their delivery, and because the requests made to him to that end, by letter and otherwise, were undoubtedly genuine. This sermon had a bearing upon the young man's leaving home.

THE PARABLE OF THE PRODIGAL SON,

he remarked, is one of the most beautiful in the New Testament. It finds its way to the heart of all human kind. It pleases in childhood and many a father and mother have read it until their eyes have become dimmed with tears as they thought of some absent boy whose life and history were identical with that of the prodigal son. The subject has given rise to thousands of sermons, so that it is a difficult matter to say anything strictly original. Passing on he criticised the conduct of the young man in demanding from his father a portion of his goods, believing, no doubt, that he had a legal basis for his claim, and ignorant of the fact that in Deuteronomy it is declared that no young man should expect a division of property during his father's lifetime. No mention being made of the prodigal's mother it is probable that she died when he was young. But death did not justify his indulgence in sin. Had she lived he might have been different. God help the boy who has lost his mother! No one else can supply her love, unfathomable as it is, and stronger and purer and more lasting than anything else. Reference was made to the prodigal's anxiety to get away from home, to his desire to become somebody, to shine as a millionaire perhaps, his first feeling being such that he would have been mortally offended had it been insinuated that he would be found in poverty and

LIVING AMONG THE PIGS.

Having rebelled against the restraints of home he desired to get away as far as possible from home influences. There is sometime of the same kind of rebellion of the human heart against God at all times. When man becomes estranged from God he desires to get as far away from Him as possible. An elderly divine has said: "When a man is born into the world it is always with his back towards God; as he starts out in the journey of life he places a greater distance between himself and his Maker every hour that he lives." The speaker said many men again and again fret at the restraint laid upon them; they are actuated always by a consuming avarice for present enjoyment. In a spirit of selfishness they hold out their hands for the bounty of the Lord while in their hearts they intend to rebel against Him. Alluding to the temptations which beset the prodigal the preacher observed: "It is the duty of the majority of young men to-day to leave home. There is a necessity for them to do this in order to learn some business. In leaving home they take an important step in life, and the experience of the first few weeks abroad often determines the after life. Between the ages of 12 and 20 years

CHARACTER IS GENERALLY FORMED.

"As youth is such will be the man. He would never forget the time when he left home, when his father remarked, "My son, be sure and take your bible." The memory of the last evening spent at home and the recollections of parental counsel would never fade from his mind; and his old bible had gone with him in all his journeyings, and could not be bought for one hundred times its worth. Rev. Mr. Jolliffe dwelt at some length in his description of the want, degradation, and moral wreck and ruin which the prodigal underwent, the dazzling prospective giving place to a disastrous reality. There was a warning here to those who turned from God. The young man sought happiness and found misery; his unholy ambition for liberty brought great tribulation. He was homeless. There was a spiritual lesson here. Many of his hearers probably knew what it was to be spiritually homeless and hungry, and thirsty and naked, and they knew the remedy. If they turned from God now, in the resurrection morning they would be found from God, homeless and deserted.

A Notable Point.

As a canvass is at present going on for the House of Industry, it would be well for our citizens to recollect that we have at present no taxation for the poor, but that if such charitable institutions cannot be supported by voluntary subscription taxation will have to be resorted to, sooner or later. This might prove the beginning of a poor law; a thing which it is very desirable to avoid.

REMINISCENCE.—The anecdote of the inquisitive man, who asked another how he lost his leg, and, after having promised to ask no further questions, was told that it was "bit off," has been variously told, and often wrongly attributed. The incident is properly told in Scribner's Monthly for March, in a paper on Copley, the American artist of the last century. The incident occurred between Brook Watson, afterward Lord Mayor of London, and his servant, who, in pulling off his boot, was warned in vain that if he was not careful he would bring the leg off too, which, much to his astonishment, he did. As a matter of fact Watson's leg had been bitten off by a shark in the harbor of Havana, an event commemorated in a famous picture by Copley.

HOME RULERS' RETREAT.

Scene in the Imperial House of Commons, Wednesday, February 2nd.

The vote had just been taken on the motion for leave to introduce to the House Mr. Forster's Coercion Bill, when Mr. Justin McCarthy rose, amid angry and loud cries of "Order, order," but failed to attract the attention of the Speaker. The other members of the Home Rule party were shouting vociferously, "Privilege, privilege," to the counter cries of "Question, question." The uproar at the moment was extreme. Upon the Government side of the House hon. members were shouting and cheering to their utmost, apparently with the intention of preventing the Home Rulers being heard. The Home Rulers on their part replied with shouts of "Privilege, privilege," but their voices could scarcely be distinguished amid the din and uproar prevailing, and to which they were largely contributing. The Speaker was proceeding to put the motion a second time, according to the usual practice of the House, when Mr. Justin McCarthy stepped from the place where he had been standing and proceeded to the floor of the House. Having bowed to the Speaker, he walked towards the door of the House. His example was followed by the whole of the other Home Rulers present, with the exception of Mr. Callan. They left the House in "Indian file," each member as he stepped on to the floor of the House bowing to the Speaker. Mr. Biggar was the last one to leave his place, and before doing so he essayed to speak, but his voice was drowned amidst the ironical cheering which met the Home Rulers as they were making their exit. As the folding doors closed behind the Home Rule members, the Ministerial and Opposition members remaining gave vent to their feelings in one triumphant cheer. Quietude having been restored, the Speaker again put the motion, declaring that the "Ayes" had it. The cheering was renewed as Mr. Forster walked up the floor of the House and handed the bill to the Clerk at the table. The bill was then read a first time.

Holloway's Ointment and Pills.

In sickness it was a momentous matter to find an easy, ready, and reliable remedy for outward disfigurations and inward disorders before the inestimable discovery of these preparations. No invalid need now betat a loss for successfully managing ulcers, sores, tumors, boils, bruises, sprains, &c. Developing Holloway's medicine are very intelligible printed directions for using them which should be attentively studied and immediately followed by the application of his treatment. Sooner or latter the sufferer will assuredly triumph over the worst diseases. This searching Ointment disperses all those malignant humors which aggravate many diseases of the skin, often prevent the cicatrization of ulcers, and even kindle inflammatory tendencies in the system.

The Secret of Happiness.

How often have we longed for perfect enjoyment and how seldom found it. Misfortune has come, or ill health overtakes us. Perhaps a cough has come upon us which threatens that dreaded of all diseases, consumption, and we feel that death is near. With what joy should we be filled then, when such a remedy as Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption is placed within our reach. It has cured thousands who were near to the grave than ourselves and made their lives peaceful and happy. Asthma, bronchitis, hoarseness, loss of voice, difficulty of breathing, or any affection of the throat and lungs are positively cured by this wonderful discovery. Now to give you satisfactory proof that Dr. King's New Discovery will cure if you call at your Drug Store you can get a trial bottle for ten cents, or a regular size for $1.00. Sold by all druggists.

A GREAT CHICAGO ENTERPRISE.—The laboratory for the manufacture of Electric Bitters is one of Chicago's greatest enterprises, giving employment to a large number of hands. The extensive sale already attained for this wonderful remedy is astonishing. Wherever once introduced and becomes known, it is almost impossible to supply the demand, because of their true merit—curing where all others fail—and at a reasonable price (fifty cents). —Epoch.
