PROBS.—Strong easterly to southerly winds, fair to cloudy, considerable milder weather to-night followed by snow or rain.

"BLACK EYED SUSAN."—Matinee on Tuesday 1st March. Doors open at 2 p.m. Admission 25c. to all parts of the house, children 15c.

ASSEMBLY.—The I.C.B.U., Branch No. 9, will hold their last assembly of the season, in the St. Patrick's Hall, on the evening of Monday, the 28th inst.

TIMBER TRADE.—The amount of timber now coming into the city is very large. Considerable quantities of it are required by those who have extensive vessel improvements and repairs to make.

CAPE VINCENT LONG AGO.—Sixty years ago there was one school house, two hotels and one physician's residence in Cape Vincent. The doctor was the father of Gen. D. B. Sacket. The place has not much improved since then.

POLICE COURT.—Cornelius McMahon deposited $1 for drunkenness. Seven boys, hailing from Division street, were charged with blasphemy and loitering upon the public streets. Mr. T. H. McGuire defended them and succeeded in getting the case dismissed.

UNION OF EFFORT.—Several of the ministers of the city have agreed to pray for the success of the work of God in each other's churches. A prayer meeting will be held at 10 o'clock on Monday morning for this purpose in the vestry of St. Andrew's Church.

DIOCESAN MISSIONS.—Missionary sermons will be preached and missionary collections taken up to-morrow in St. George's Cathedral and in St. John's Portsmouth. The collection in St. George's, at morning and at evening service, will be set apart for this object.

HOSPITAL NOTES.—A patient, who suffered terribly from heart disease, died at the hospital on Thursday night. A post mortem examination was made yesterday.—A cancer was cut from the lip of a laborer yesterday. He underwent the operation without taking chloroform.

MARKET PRICES.—There was a fair attendance at the market this morning. Fresh butter, of good quality, commanded 25c. per lb.; packed, 21c. per lb.; eggs, 24c., with downward tendency; apples, $2.50 per bbl.; pork, advanced, $9 per cwt. Farmers cannot grumble at these prices.

ORGANIZING A STOCK YARD.—The butchers of this city are seriously considering the advisability of founding a stock yard. A meeting will be held next week to consider the matter. The yard will probably be located along the branch line of the Grand Trunk running into the city.

GOOD MEAT.—Mr. Reuben Spooner, of the Township of Kingston, sold on the market this morning a hind quarter of beef weighing 560 lbs. A few days ago he was offered $8 per cwt. for the meat (live weight) but he has realized a higher figure according to the proceeds of to-day's marketing.

ASSEMBLY.—The Cabmen's Assembly took place in St. Patrick's Hall last evening. It is pronounced a complete success. The attendance was certainly very good and the programme of the evening of a very appreciative character. The music was supplied by "B" Battery orchestra.

SUNDAY SCHOOL FESTIVAL.—A free tea was given last night to the Sunday school children and their parents in the basement of the P. M. Church. It was largely attended. Short addresses were given by Messrs. W. S. Gordon, G. W. Andrews and the pastor, after which a collection was taken up to supplement the library.

THE RECEPTION.—It is expected that there will be a very large attendance at the adjourned mass meeting to be held in St. Patrick's Hall to-morrow afternoon at two o'clock. The committee appointed on Sunday last to wait upon the Vicar-General have done so and will report at this meeting. Other matters will probably be discussed.

ORANGE RESOLUTIONS.—The Grand Lodge of Eastern Ontario, before closing, passed several important resolutions, amongst which was one of sympathy with their brethern in Ireland who are being subjected to persecution at the hands of the Land League, and expressing their admiration of the Ulster men who went to Loughmask to assist Captain Boycott in gathering in his crops.

FORTUNES AWAITING CLAIMANTS.—The Toronto Mail clipped from the WHIG the following: "The heirs of James Wilkie, formerly Ordnance Store keeper, Kingston, and Isabella Deacon, wife of Thos. Deacon, of Kingston, are wanted, a fortune having been left them." Numerous letters have been received by the Mail, asking for its source of information. Our statement was copied from "Gun's Index."

WIND WAIFS.

From Various Sources and on Various Themes.

—The P. M. church tea-meeting will net over $40.

—The Prince Edward RR. netted a profit of $2,500 during its first year's operations.

—Mr. H. W. Perry, Ernesttown, has sold his farm to Mr. Jacob Hawley for $0,000.

—The schr. "Jessie H. Breck" is receiving extensive repairs which will cost probably $1,500.

—Mr. D. W. Ball, of Bath, who lost heavily by fire, is building a new saw and grist mill.

—Yesterday the police took from a tramp an axe and whip, there being a suspicion that they were stolen.

—The residents of Bath have just awoke to the fact that the ice is in a good condition to harvest. Too bad!

—Mr. Roberts, of the Mississippi Iron Company, was in the Buffalo railway station a few moments before the roof fell in.

—The Watertown Times expresses regret that Rev. Mr. Dayan is no longer Secretary of the Thousand Island Park Association.

—Mr. Kidd has so distributed the scholars attending the public schools that the teachers have now about an equal share of labour.

—At the nomination on the 21st inst., Mr. Allen Lewis was elected by acclamation councillor for the village of Bath, in lieu of D. W. Ball, resigned.

—Gananoque will give Messrs. Skinner & Co., recently burned out, exemption of taxes for the next ten years if they will rebuild and resume operations.

—Lent cometh on space, in which no young woman of position, no matter what her faith may be, can dance, that is in a large company. March 2nd is Ash Wednesday.

—All the week days of Lent, from Ash Wednesday till Easter Sunday, are for Catholics fast days of precept on one meal, with the allowance of a moderate collation in the evening.

—The Napanee Beaver publishes a list of nineteen heads of families who intend to remove to Dakota and Minnesota in the spring. This represents an exodus of about sixty persons.

—The Intelligencer says the Grit press generally is opposed to the Murray Canal. Not exactly that, friend; but opposed to the Government's election jobbery in connection with it.

—A review of the trade and finances of Toronto, for 1880, prepared by Mr. T. Galbraith, jr., commercial editor of the Globe, has been issued in pamphlet form. It is creditable to compiler and printer.

—The Scottish American contains a story, "Nearly starved in the midst of abundance," descriptive of an incident which is said to have occurred on the steamer "Jefferson," which plied on the Bay of Quinte and River St. Lawrence many years ago.

PERSONAL MENTION.

Major Hebert, C. A., is in Ottawa.

Sir Charles Tupper had a slight relapse last night.

Dr. Elliott has gone to Montreal where he preaches missionary sermons to-morrow.

Mr. J. H. Metcalfe, M.P.P., who came from Toronto to attend Mr. Horsey's conversazione, remains in the city until Monday.

Bishop Lewis has so far recovered from his recent illness as to be out of bed for a short period. So says a telegram received from Ottawa to-day.

Rev. Principal Grant will preach in St. Andrew's Church to-morrow morning. Rev. M. W. McLean, of Belleville, will occupy the pulpit in the evening.

M. J. T. Hawke, the Ottawa correspondent of the Globe, leaves for England at the close of the session. His place will be taken by Mr. McCready, of the St. John Telegraph.

The Company of which Mr. Stockwood and Rev. A. C. Bray are directors, and Mr. Miles, Secretary, will launch their scheme for colonizing Lake Megantic district next week.

We were in error in stating the length of Rev. Mr. Jolliffe's stay in this city. He is now closing his fifth year, and the congregation intend to petition conference to let him remain a sixth year.

Mr. Edwin Farrar, late editor-in-chief of the Mail, has gone to the New York World. His separation from the Toronto organ has not, it is said, been attended with the pleasantest of circumstances.

Church Events.

Rev. H. F. Griffin, agent of the Grand Ligue (French Canadian) mission, will preach in the Baptist Church to-morrow morning and evening.

Rev. Mr. Jolliffe will deliver the second sermon on the Prodigal Son tomorrow evening at 6:30 o'clock. Subject—"The young man away from home."

The annual entertainment in connection with St. Paul's missionary school takes place on Monday evening. Busses will leave the city for the depot at 7 p.m.

St. Paul's missionary meeting will be held on the evening of Sunday, the 6th. To-morrow evening Rev. Mr. Carey will give a sketch of his recent missionary visit to the eastern part of the Diocese.

In Inspector Street Church, Montreal, on Thursday night, Rev. R. Mackay gave a powerful address from the question, "What think ye of Christ?" Some were visibly affected, even to tears, and a large number remained to the enquiry meeting. Several young men and young women were under deep conviction, and several of these professedly led to trust in Christ. A young married woman was converted under Mr. Mackay's sermon last Sunday evening, and acknowledged it on Thursday night.

LIGHT HOUSE REPAIRS.—The Gananoque Reporter informs us that contracts have been given for the repairs of the light houses opposite that village. The Jack Straw pier is to be rebuilt from the water up to a height of four feet, and the baskets replaced. The light house pier is to be rebuilt from a depth of four feet under water, and the light house raised and levelled in a secure position.

MARKET FEES.

The New Government Bill Still Very Objectionable to the City.

A copy of this bill has now been published and a consideration of it has not modified the views we have already expressed on the matter. The road tolls are only to be abolished when the roads are owned by a county or township. No attempt is made to compensate or give any equivalent to cities and towns in those cases where the roads belong to joint stock companies or private persons. The toll roads leading into this city are, with one exception, the property of companies or individuals who have purchased them. Even in the case of the exception, the Kingston and Napanee road, as nothing has been paid for it by the county whether it is truly a county road. If a sale to the county has been perfected so as to vest the road in the county, yet if the purchase money has not been paid the Dominion Government (which controls the matter it seems) could resume possession of the road and continue to collect toll unaffected by the bill, and if it did this, city would be without any equivalent for the loss of its market fees. It may be said that it is unlikely the Dominion Government would do so. Perhaps! But even so what does the county of Frontenac in that case contribute? indeed what does it contribute in any case—it has not paid for the Kingston and Napanee roads—to the city for the sacrifices, the bill imposes on the latter? Again no provision is made to continue the to sales off the established market so as to protect the citizens from being imposed upon by unsound articles of food, and short weight and measure, and mode of selling by weight or measure. This we look upon as a grave defect, as undoubtedly some protection is needed in these respects. Other points might be noted, as for example huckstering in all its branches, will be much stimulated, and household provisions made dearer, and the only ground for consolation is that the sensible part of the farming community, having good sound articles for sale, will probably, notwithstanding the bill, resort voluntarily to the established market as the place where the readiest sale and best prices can be obtained, and pay the fees like honest men.

IT MAY BE A QUESTION

TORONTO'S MEETING.

The Mail says: Delegates in the towns interested in the abolition of the market fees met yesterday morning in the Executive chamber, City Hall, to discuss the bill of the Hon. Mr. Hardy at present before the Legislature. The chair was taken by Mayor McMurrich, of Toronto, and amongst those present were Mayor Pense, of Kingston; Councillor Whitney, Prescott; Mayor Carlyle, St. Catharines; Mayor Henry, Napanee; Mayor Randall, Port Hope; Ald. Hallam, Toronto; Mayor Smith and C. D. Macdonall, Sec.-Treas., [illegible]; Ald. Dawson, St. Catharines; Mayor Spiers, Galt; Mayor Van Buskirk and C. O. Ermatinger, St. Thomas. These gentlemen waited upon the Government, and were introduced by Mayor McMurrich, who on their behalf explained that the various towns and cities having gone to considerable expense in erecting proper market buildings, did not wish to be deprived of the incomes derived from them. Several others expressed similar views, and after having been promised that the matter would receive due consideration at the hands of the Government, the deputation withdrew.

PITTSBURG ITEMS.

Road Accidents—Profitable Suits—Municipal Legislation—Etc.

Captain Radford's bay presses are busy at work near Ballantyne's.

Although the winter has been unprecedented for length and severity cattle and farm stock are looking thrifty and promising.

Robins have made their appearance, but the snow birds still have a local habitation and are very white, indicating more snow.

A petition is circulating for the purpose of securing a post office to be called "the Ridge," to be conducted by Miss Young, on the middle road, 8 miles from Kingston.

There will be a meeting of the patrons of the Walnut Hill creamery and cheese factory on Wednesday evening, 2nd of March, at the factory, for the purpose of determining arrangements for the coming dairying season.

Notwithstanding the costs of the law suits instituted against this municipality, arising out of accidents on the road, amounting to $1,400, last year, there is a balance of available assets, clear of liabilities, of $1,153 according to the audited accounts.

At the last meeting of the Pittsburg Council a unanimously signed petition was read, requesting the Council of this municipality to pass a by-law with the object of encouraging persons whose lands adjoin the public highways, to erect wire fences in such places as are known to be blockaded by drifts of snow, the encouragement to be a slight compensation in the commutation of statute labor. Something of this kind is much needed, as the roads after snow storms are completely blockaded by reason of existing rail and board fences causing drifts. It is to be hoped Pittsburg will inaugurate a system to overcome this difficulty that will be followed by other municipalities.

A Personal Response.

Mr. G. Durnford has sent to the Committee of citizens, who recently gave him a valuable present, the following letter:

Gentlemen,—I was very much gratified at receiving this morning your kind address, which I accept with very great pleasure and thoroughly appreciate. I regret that circumstances beyond my control compelled my leaving Kingston and parting with many kind friends, with whom for years past I have been associated, and it gives me great pleasure to know and feel that while performing duty I have been able to retain so much good feeling toward myself. I thank you for your kind wishes for the welfare of Mrs. Durnford and myself and family, and with very great esteem.

COLLEGE CONCERT.

The Glee Club Score a Success Which Their Efforts Richly Merit.

Convocation Hall was crowded to the doors last evening by a select audience assembled to enjoy the musical entertainment furnished by the Glee Club of Queen's University. There was an unusual demand for reserved seats. The ushers were attentive and succeeded in getting all placed without confusion. The gallery was occupied by the students, who before the entertainment commenced regaled the audience with the rendition of a number of college glees. Shortly after 8 o'clock the programme proper was begun with a piano solo played by Mr. O. Telgmann. He was loudly applauded. The selections from the "Pirates of Penzance" were, of course, the attraction of the evening, and when the members of the Glee Club, to the number of twenty, ascended the platform in the garb of pirates they were received with cheers. Mrs. Rockwell assumed the role of "Ruth" and Mr. Snook that of "Samuel." Each acted and sang very effectively. The pirates' chorus, with Mr. Cumberland as "King," was excellently done. The voices blended harmoniously. Mr. T. Elliott, B.A., of Brockville, an old time favorite in Kingston, was heartily received by the audience. His first choice was "Love in a Balloon." Subsequently he gave the "Spanish Beauty." His elocution was good. He was encored and responded by giving the concluding verses of a poem. Miss Bates first sang the "Nightingale's Trill," and so well that she was recalled. The instrumental duet, "Caliph de Bagdad," by Mrs. Skinner and Miss Shaw, and a piano solo, "Concert Polka," by Miss Snook, reflected much credit upon the performers. Then came another selection from the "Pirates." The introductory song was that of "Major General Stanley," who was ably impersonated by Mr. Rathbun. The Glee Club gave efficient choral assistance. In the absence of Mrs. McGillivray, in consequence of illness, her place was taken by Mr. J. V. Anglin, who is one of our most successful public readers. Mr. W. Tandy sang "The Raft" very artistically. The "Anvil" chorus, from "Il Trovatore," by the Glee Club, Mr. F. Heath taking the solo, was the event of the evening so far as the Glee Club was concerned. The songs of Mr. Walkem, Miss Bamford, and Mrs. Rockwell were worthy of the favor with which they were received. Mr. Telgmann's violin solo, with piano accompaniment by Mr. F. Heath, captivated everybody. It was very cleverly given. The last piece from the "Pirates," representing the scene between "Mabel" and "Frederick," (Miss Bamford and Mr. F. Heath), was a fitting climax to the whole. The policeman's song by the "Sergeant of Police," (Mr. Hutcheson) and the chorus by his force, in regimentals, was really good and caused hearty laughter. The men had been well drilled and performed their movements with a military air. The concert closed with "God Save the Queen," Miss Bates taking the solo. The success of the Club's concert is a matter for congratulation. The receipts must have been considerable.

Tableau Vivants.

The closing entertainment of St. George's Literary Association was held in St. George's Hall last evening. The building was crowded. The programme, as already announced, was as follows:

Piano Solo		Miss Mingaye
Dialogue	The Country Aunt's Visit
Duet		Mrs. Galloway and Mr. Chanley
Tableau	Pocahontas saving the life of Capt. Smith
Reading		Col. Strange
Tableau	Save me, Hubert	King John
Song		Mrs. Rudston
Reading		Mr. Griffin
Tableaux (3 scenes)		Blue Beard
Dialogue	Lord Dundreary
Tableau	A Bridal Scene
Piano Solo		Miss Mingaye
Song		Miss Davy
Tableau	The Fatal Shot (2 scenes)
Reading		Mr. R. W. Shannon
Tableau	The Vestal Virgins (2 scenes)
Song		Mr Walkem
Dialogue	Mrs Von Lushington in search of a Coachman.
Song		Mr. Keeley
Tableau	The Babes in the Woods, (2 scenes)
	God Save the Queen.

The readings, dialogues and songs were all well received. The most interesting feature was the presentation of the tableaux. Those which pleased the most were the representation of the "Vestal Virgins" and "Pocahontas saving the life of Capt. Smith." The effects were very fine. Mr. Keeley took part in several pieces, and by his comicalities created much amusement. The Association has always held successful entertainments, but the one last evening fairly eclipsed all previous events of a similar kind.

Threatening Courtney.

Courtney's true character as a "gentleman and an oarsman" promises, if reports are true, to be fully ventilated, and in a manner to prove him a greater adept with the saw than the oar. "Frenchy" Johnson, the coloured oarsman, who gained the name of "Courtney's faithful dog" through his unwavering loyalty and devotion to the Union Springs athlete's interest, is dying of consumption at Boston, and is alleged to have made a clean breast of what he knows in regard to the notorious boat sawing incident at Chautauqua lake. He had charge of Courtney's boat house at the time, and it is positive that no one but the owner of the property and his kinsman, one Larmon, had access to the premises the night that Courtney's shell was ruined. The faithful dog's attachment for his old friend has hitherto kept him silent, but unlike the common cur he cannot let the secret die with him. Johnson's story may lack the essential elements of truth, but Courtney's actions may have failed to impress the public as sincere, and it is possible that the section which gave birth to the Cardiff giant may have to father another if not bigger fraud.—Springfield Republican.

Canada's High Commissioner.

It is stated in circles likely to be well informed that Sir Alexander Galt has written to Canada complaining that he cannot maintain his position as High Commissioner on the salary allowed him, and will therefore be compelled to resign. Should Sir Alexander Galt return to Canada it is believed he will be called into the Cabinet either as Finance Minister or Premier. The latter is not an altogether improbable contingency in view of the fact that Sir John Macdonald's health has completely broken down, and his physicians urge retirement from public life.—Globe.

BUDGET DEBATE.

Mr. Gunn M.P. Speaks in the House on the Sugar Question.

Mr. Gunn said that during the debate on the tariff in 1879 he pointed out to the Finance Minister that the proposed tariff duty on sugar must result in a serious loss to the revenue on that item, and a larger loss to consumers, as they would have to pay more for their sugar to the refiners than they would to importers under the tariff that had been for about eleven years in force from 1868. The losses he then estimated has been verified by the actual working of the new tariff. At that time he estimated that the quantity imported for the year ending 30th June, 1880, was 117,000,000 lbs. in round numbers. On this there was paid a duty of $2,026,632. Of these 117,000,000 lbs. imported, 19,000,000 paid a duty of $2.53, and 10,000,000, ranging from nine to fourteen, paid a duty of $1.73, or a revenue from those 29,000,000 lbs. of $650,000 paid by the importers. The remaining $88,000,000 of the year's business passed through the hands of refiners at a duty of $1.50 per 100 lbs., yielding a revenue of $1,360. By this the hon. gentleman would see that three fourths of the

at the low rate of $1.55 per 100 lbs., and the other moiety, or one fourth, left, and the average duty of 2¼, a difference of 70 cents per 100 lbs.; which, on the $88,000,000 would amount to $616,000. Comparing the prices paid to refiners under the present system with that paid under the revenue tariff, it was found that the refiners paid for granulated sugar an average price of 9½c., which, on 77,000,000 pounds, the equivalent of 88,000,000 pounds of raw sugar, would bring a revenue of $7,507,500. This sugar in New York, at an average of 9 3-15c. per pound, would cost $7,045,000, or $462,000 less, which, with $616,000 of the saving on duty on raw sugar, would leave a margin of $978,000 in favor of the refiners on the $98,000,000 handled by them.

THERE WAS NO REASON WHY,

under this tariff, the refiners should not control the entire trade. The importer was met at the Customs by a barrier, of 70 cents per 100 lbs., or, in other words, the trade had to pay $14 per ton more than the refiners. Through this system of mismanagement the hon. gentleman came down with a budget, showing only a revenue of $2,000,000 from the sugar duties, instead of $2,750,000. For the last year ending June 30th before the hon. gentleman came in power, the 709,000,000 pounds of sugar imported yielded a revenue of $2,550,000. In that year granulated sugar sold at 9c per lb., equal to three-quarters of a million less than was paid now in the year's business. With the new refineries now projected there was every prospect in the coming year that the entire trade would be taken out of the hands of the importers.

ON A PROSPECTIVE BUSINESS of $110,000,000 for the coming year refiners would secure a margin to themselves of $770,000, and if they could keep prices the same as last year they would secure an additional $600,000, or in all $1,370,000 amongst four refineries. When the tariff was introduced nearly two years ago the sugar dealers of Nova Scotia and Quebec gave a silent consent to the duties. They expected an increase of the tariff, but he told them at that time that they would be disappointed. The only result of the tariff was to damage and interfere with the trade. He would be glad to have this subject considered by a special committee, and if his hon. friend from Cardwell (Mr. White) were a member of that Committee he felt confident the figures which he would lay before them would convince him (Mr. White) that the

was a mistaken policy, at least so far as sugar was concerned. They might also get the opinions of American, English or French refiners, who, having no interest in our trade, could give impartial testimony. The Finance Minister had made a statement of the number of men employed in this industry, but then they must remember what it cost the country to keep these men employed. A statement was also made of the value of the buildings occupied and machinery used, but all these were included in the price of American sugar. They did not manufacture sugar for nothing. The merchants of Toronto, Hamilton, Quebec and other places were complaining loudly of this sugar tariff, and, he believed, with justice. Whereas Ontario in 1878 had 55 per cent. of the trade, her trade fell off in one year to 46 per cent., and in 1880, after the effect of the tariff had full time to show itself, she had only 15 per cent. This could not be very satisfactory to the people of that Province, in view of the fact that the trade was being artificially centred in a few hands. (Loud cheers.)
