CITY AND VICINITY.

CROSSING.—The crossing between the city and Cape Vincent is very poor. A few days more and the ice will go.

PROBS.—Winds mostly from the north-east and southeast, fair to cloudy, and mild weather, followed by rain to-night.

RECOUPED.—Major Herbert has been recouped to the extent of $550 for the loss of clothing destroyed by the barrack fire at New Year's.

FARM SOLD.—Mr. Wm. Murray has sold the farm property, 110 acres, of the late Andrew Sleith, of Pittsburg, to Mr. Claxton, of Storrington, for $800.

PHOSPHATE.—Mr. Lomer, of Montreal, is shipping to Chicago over thirty car loads of phosphate, consigned to the North-Western Fertilizer Company. Phosphate is worth from $13 to $12.50 per ton, and would bring more if delivered in the city in a better condition.

POLICE COURT.—William Hinde acknowledged that he had been drunk. He was fined $2. J. O'Neil, for a similar offence, was fined in a similar amount. W. Percy, for disorderly conduct in addition to drunkenness, was fined $2. It was his first offence.

ANNIVERSARY.—The anniversary service of the M. E. Church will be held next Sabbath. Rev. Principal Grant will preach at 10:30 a.m., and Rev. B. Lane, M.A., of Belleville, at 3 p.m., and again at 6:30. Anniversary tea on Monday evening. Tea at 7 p.m. Tickets 25c.

RECEIVED HIS SENTENCE.—Howard was brought before Judge Price this morning. He was implicated in the theft of a saw. No further evidence was produced. Howard was found guilty, but owing to previous good character received a light sentence—thirty days' imprisonment.

STRIKE ON THE EXTENSION.—Yesterday the men employed on the extension of the Kingston and Pembroke Railway struck for higher wages. They demanded $1.25 per day. They have been receiving $1. Col. Flower has settled with the men, allowing them $1.12½ per day from April 1st.

COTTON MILL MEETING.—It was intended to hold a meeting of those interested in the erection of the cotton mill last evening, but an adjournment was necessary, the expert whose presence was desired not having arrived. The meeting will, in all probability, take place on Friday evening.

MILLARD'S MASS.—In St. Mary's Cathedral to-morrow, at High Mass, the choir will render Millard's beautiful Mass. The choristers have been in training for some time for the occasion, and under Mr. DesRochers no doubt a rich musical treat may be anticipated. The service will commence at 10:30 o'clock.

SPECIAL SERVICE.—St. Patrick's Day will be observed by a special service and appropriate sermon in St. Mary's Cathedral. In the evening there will be a concert, the merits of which may be judged by the published programme. The audience will be large, we presume. The gatherings on such occasions formerly have been remarkable for their size and enthusiasm.

A GOOD SERVICE.—The number of petit larcenies committed during the past winter called for extra vigilance on the part of the police force and with good effect. Some of the offenders have been arrested and punished and others have suddenly left the city for the city's benefit. When our police officers are deserving of credit it should not be withheld from them.

EMIGRATING YET.—Yesterday there left for various parts of the western states three families, numbering in all twenty-nine persons. Two families were bound for Minnesota, two for Iowa, and three for Dakota. To-day the second excursion train for Manitoba passed Kingston. There were a number of persons from this district. The tickets were secured at Folger & Hanley's.

POPULAR PEOPLE.—The Kingston, Jamaica, Plain Dealer contains flattering accounts of the performances of E. A. McDowell's Company. Miss Reeves (Mrs. McDowell) has been the favorite, of which fact we have evidence in the reported presentation to her of a gold watch and bouquet with tassels, and a beautifully engraved and inlaid gold locket. Every night the more enthusiastic in the audience tired themselves firing bouquets at her.

A Successful Minister.

Rev. Mr. Turnbull, who has resigned the pastorate of the Presbyterian charge at Melrose and Lonsdale, has been a successful minister on this charge for eighteen years. His leaving has been brought about by the action of several brethren who have not seemingly been benefitted by his ministrations. Mr. Turnbull's health has not been good and he intends to take the recreation which he so much needs. He will spend the summer in his native land. The congregation at Lonsdale have presented him with $50, to pay part of his expenses and a like gift will follow from Melrose. It is hoped that he will return vigorous both in body and mind. The Presbytery regret his resignation.

Municipal Reform.

A meeting of the Executive Committee, appointed at the recent meeting of ratepayers at Cataraqui for a discussion of various municipal reforms, was held in the Windsor Hotel on Saturday last. Mr. J. M. Fair, Reeve of the township of Pittsburg, acted as Chairman. Mr. Calvin was present and expressed his willingness to do what he could to reduce the expenses of municipal government. The Provincial Secretary's report was examined and the cost of selecting the jurors in the various counties contrasted. It was contended that even under the present system a great saving should be effected. The committee came to the unanimous conclusion to ask the Councils of the various townships to call meetings for a public discussion of the questions which they have had under consideration, and to continue an agitation as an outcome of which it is expected that at the next session of the Ontario Legislature desirable legislation will be passed. Mr. Calvin intimated his purpose to attend these meetings and explain his views in regard to assessment and other matters.

A Hard Sight.

Since the arrest of young Shurtliff the police have been hunting up his character and manner of livelihood. Yesterday Detective Macauley visited the home of the lad and was amazed at the destitution there apparent. The family live at the Place d'Armes, in a very commodious house, whose exterior is no indication, however, of its interior. The father of the boy is a worthless person who spends his time in liquor drinking. There is quite a large family of children in nearly a naked condition. A woman was also but scantily provided with clothing. She said she had come up from Lansdowne with Shurtliff, who promised to marry her but had not done so. He has been too much intoxicated to have the nuptials performed. She intends leaving Shurtliff; a rag picker has promised to marry her. She thought the latter could take care of her and of the child she had in her arms. There is hardly any furniture in the house, and how the people have lived is a conundrum. The Magistrate will endeavor to have the boy sent to Penetanguishene, where he will learn a trade. The County Judge has the power to so commit him.

Queen's University.

Principal Grant and the Registrar of the University Council, Mr. A. P. Knight, this morning counted the voting papers sent in for the election of the seven members of the Council who retire annually. The following is the result:

Rev. M. W. McLean, M.A., Belleville.
John A. Mudie, B.A., Kingston.
James McCammon, M.D., Kingston.
Rev. D. Frazer, M.A., Mount Forest.
Thomas R. Dupuis, M.D., Kingston.
D. B. McTavish, M.A., Ottawa.
F. C. Chrysler, B.A., Ottawa.

The following stood next on the list after this elected: Rev. H. Cameron, Rev. W. A. Lang, Rev. G. M. Milligan, W. Henderson, M.D., J. B. Daw, B.A., Geo. R. Webster, B.A., D. M. McIntyre, M.A., and Rev. M. Ferguson, M.A., B.D. Votes were cast for thirty-nine different candidates.

AN OLD TITLE.

Baron and Baroness de Longueuil Recognized by Her Imperial Majesty.

"Her Majesty the Queen held a drawing room at Buckingham Palace yesterday afternoon when the following presentation to the Queen was made: Baroness de Longueuil, by the Countess of Kimberley; also to His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales on behalf of Her Majesty, Baron de Longueuil of Longueuil, Province of Quebec, Canada, (in recognition of the title) by the Secretary of State for the colonies."—London Court Journal, Feb. 26th.

We are exceedingly glad to hear of the above honor being paid to a family so much identified with Kingston in the past and so well connected here now, especially as it is well deserved. Though we are by no means in favour of anything savouring of hereditary nobility, believing as we do that every man ought to stand on his own feet, "the rank being but the guinea stamp, the man's the gowd for all that;" yet we believe, too, in the doctrine of honour to whom honour is due, and that those who have in past done good service to Canada and stood by her, like men, in her hours of peril, ought not to be forgotten by her. The greatnesses of men, too, are due no less to inherent qualities of nature than to the circumstances that call them into play, and qualities are transmissible. We, therefore, quote the American historian, Parkman, in reference to the family of the present Baron de Longueuil:

"No Canadian under the French rule stands in a more conspicuous or more deserved eminence than Pierre Le Moyne d'Iberville. . . . . Iberville was a true son of the soil. He and his brothers, Longueuil, Serigney, Assigny, Maricourt, Sainte Helene, the two Chateauguays, and the two Bienvilles, were, one and all, children worthy of their father, Charles Le Moyne, of Montreal, and favourable types of that Canadian Noblesse to whose adventurous hardihood half the continent bears witness." (Part v., page 338, and so all through his history.)

He omits, however, out of the eleven sons of "this brave Charles Le Moyne," one son, Sauvolles, first Governor of Louisiana, to whom succeeded his more famous brother, de Bienville, the founder of New Orleans, and for forty three years, with some slight intermissions, Governor of Louisiana. Charles Le Moyne and his eleven sons were ennobled in 1648, and the eldest of the sons created, in 1700, Baron de Longueuil by the French King, Louis XIV. He was also made Governor of Montreal. The present Baron, whose title has been lately recognized by the Government of Great Britain, is the sixth of the name.

EXPORT OF BARLEY.

A Trade Which is Gradually Increasing and Gaining in Importance.

In a business point of view it is interesting to contemplate the rapidly increasing growth of the grain trade, in so far at least as the export of Canadian barley is concerned. In ten years the total shipments were 59,829,322 bushels, valued at $48,415,555. The receipts at all American ports, principally at Oswego during 1880 were 7,459,660, the greatest quantity that crossed the water since 1870, excepting in 1875-76, when the exported article is said to have reached 10,262,541 bushels. The only ports in the Oswego Customs District that import barley are Oswego and Fair Haven. The imports at Oswego of new crop Canada barley since July 1st to and including Dec. 31st, 1880, were 4,227,784 bushels, and at Fair Haven during the same period 189,313 bushels; crop year 1879-80, Oswego 3,972,389 bushels, Fair Haven 246,082 bushels; crop year 1878-79, Oswego 2,961,874 bushels, Fair Haven 149,997 bushels; crop year 1877-78, Oswego 3,972,786 bushels, Fair Haven 126,736 bushels. Previous to 1877 there were no imports of barley at Fair Haven; the figures antecedent to this date in the above, therefore, represent the imports at Oswego. Of the total imports of Canada barley into the United States of the new crop of 1880 to and including Dec. 31st, the port of Oswego received 56.67 per cent.; during the crop year of 1879-80, 55.79 per cent.; 1877-78, 58.01 per cent.; 1876-77, 42.32 per cent.; 1875-76, 36.31 per cent.; 1874-75, 49.53 per cent.; 1873-74, 57.21 per cent.; 1872-73, 67.02 per cent; 1871-72, 58.62 per cent.; 1870-71, 66.12 per cent.

The exports of barley malt from Canada during the past nine years aggregated 3,510,761, with a value of $3,006,472. Of the amount stated Oswego received 65,399 bushels and Cape Vincent 25,471.

An Innocent Abroad.

Jno. Smith, hailing from Gananoque, had occasion to visit Kingston on business. In order to raise necessary funds he called on a man in the village who owed him some money. Mr. —— was not in funds at the time, but proved himself equal to the occasion. He furnished Mr. Smith with a ticket from Cornwall to Kingston (the amount of which, $1.50, was to be applied in reduction of his debt), along with a certificate—stranger's certificate we presume—entitling him to travel between Gananoque and Montreal at any time for $1.55. On arrival at Kingston Mills Mr. Smith's ticket was found to bear date "8th Aug., 1875, available for day of issue only." Mr. Smith was at once summarily ejected and proceeded on foot to the limestone city. Finding himself boxed in the first instance he grew suspicious of his certificate and consulted a legal firm in town. He found it valueless, and departed a sadder if not a wiser man.

New Songs.

Mr. Carey, music dealer, of Brock street, has left us another copy, of Mr. R. S. Ambrose's songs, of which we spoke yesterday. It is "The Contrite Heart," a sacred solo—

"The lofty one, before whose throne
The shining hosts of heaven bow down
In tender love, will not disown
A contrite heart:

"The pitying God will not despise
But will behold with loving eyes
And welcome as a sacrifice
A contrite heart."

The music is as pretty as the words, indeed Mr. Ambrose always writes melody. "The Doctor's Galop," by the Princess Louise, is not so meritorious a piece; but the curious may procure it at Carey's.

KINGSTON PRESBYTERY.

The Clergy and Elders in Session—Discussing Church Questions.

The Kingston Presbytery met in St. Andrew's Hall yesterday afternoon at 3 o'clock. Nearly all the members were present.

The Moderator, Rev. R. J. Craig, of Mill Point, occupied the chair. After devotional services the business of the Presbytery was proceeded with.

LATE REV. H. GORDON.

The following minute was passed by the Presbytery on the death of Rev. H. Gordon, of Gananoque:

"Whereas it pleased Almighty God on the 13th December last to remove from earth to that rest which remains to His people His much esteemed and honored servant the late Rev. Henry Gordon, at so ripe an old age as that to which few are spared, this Presbytery, of which he was so long a distinguished member, would place on record their high estimate of his humble and sincere piety, his untiring zeal and abundant labors as a minister of the glorious gospel of the Lord Jesus Christ, and of his ever gentlemanly and brotherly deportment as a member of Presbytery. During thirty-two years, from 1837 to 1869, he was a devoted pastor of the same congregation at Gananoque. When released from the charge, by reason of the infirmities of age, he continued there to reside, and to manifest the deepest interest in the welfare of the congregation of which he had been so long the respected pastor; and now, that he has 'come to his grave in full years like a shock of corn in his season,' here and throughout the western portion of the church he will long be remembered as a zealous laborer and faithful minister of Jesus Christ, and an humble, sincere and heavenly-minded Christian. We would also respectfully tender his surviving widow sincere sympathy in her bereavement, and commend her by earnest prayer to the care of the God of all grace and comfort, who has promised to be a husband to the widow."

STATE OF RELIGION.

Rev. H. Gracey introduced a report upon the state of religion in the Presbytery. It was received, and an hour was appointed for a discussion of the subject of which it treated.

SUSTENTATION FUND.

The Committee having the Sustentation scheme under consideration reported. It recommended that the new scheme be not adopted, but that the scheme now in vogue be continued. There is in Scotland, England and Australia a fund from which each minister, whether rich or poor, draws a certain amount, and to which the ministers and congregations liberally respond. A similar scheme was advocated for Canada. The present system is that of the Home Mission Fund, one part of which is used to support missionaries and another to assist poor congregations. While the ministers are all in sympathy with the former scheme, yet intellectually they could not support it, knowing it to be impracticable in Canada.

Rev. D. Mitchell, of Belleville, moved the adoption of the report.

A discussion ensued in which Rev. Principal Grant, Rev. Messrs. Young, Wishart, Mitchell, Coulthard and others joined. The report was received.

Rev. Mr. Campbell, of Montreal, was invited to join in the deliberations of the session.

SABBATH SCHOOL RETURNS.

A committee of the ministers and elders of the Belleville congregations was appointed to report on the Sabbath School returns.

The Presbytery adjourned until 7 o'clock.

EVENING SESSION.

The Presbytery resumed at 7:30 o'clock. The Moderator in the chair. The first business was that in reference to the election of Commissioners to the General Assembly. The four elected, according to rotation were: Rev. Messrs. R. J. Craig, M.A., Mill Point; James Cormack, B.A., Newburg; T. Kelso, B.A., Roslin; and James Cumberland, B.A., Amherst Island.

Messrs. Gray and Kelso were appointed scrutineers.

The following were elected by ballot: Rev. Dr. Grant, Kingston; Rev. D. Mitchell, Belleville; Rev. F. McCuaig, Kingston.

The following elders were nominated and elected: Wm. Coverdale, Kingston; Geo. Davidson, Kingston; Geo. Gillies, Gananoque; Walter Guthrie, Storrington; Walter Mackenzie, Picton; G. S. Hobart, Kingston; Wm. Beatty, Lansdowne.

The election occupied nearly one hour.

ADDITIONAL REPORTS.

The state of religion was next discussed, several ministers on behalf of their sessions reporting. Short addresses were made by Principal Grant, Dr. Smith and Rev. M. W. Maclean.

The Committee on the subject were instructed to incorporate in one report the substance of all the reports, and to forward the same to the Synod Committee.

Rev. Robt. Campbell, of Montreal, made a short address upon the Sustentation Fund scheme.

The Presbytery adjourned until 10 o'clock.

WEDNESDAY'S SEDERUNT.

The Presbytery resumed at 10 o'clock. After prayer a petition from the congregation of Trenton was read, asking for permission to mortgage their church property for $3,000, to be expended on the new church in process of erection. The petition was granted.

CHARGE RESIGNED.

Rev. Mr. Turnbull, of Melrose and Lonsdale, resigned his charge at the last session. It was taken up and discussed. The Clerk gave a digest of what had been done in the case. Messrs. Thomas McCullough and Chas. Anderson appeared before the Presbytery and what they had to say on the subject was heard. The congregation offered no objection to the resignation.

Mr. Turnbull still adhered to his resignation. A discussion ensued in which many ministers engaged.

A motion was made that the resignation be accepted. An amendment was offered that the resignation be not now accepted, but that a pastoral visitation be made in regard thereto. The motion was adopted. The resignation will take place after the last Sabbath in May. Rev. Mr. Mitchell was appointed to declare the charge vacant.

MINISTER'S INTRODUCTION.

Rev. Dr. Jackson, of the Congregational Church, was introduced to the Presbytery and asked to deliberate in the business of the session.

A Committee was appointed to pass a suitable minute on Mr. Turnbull's resignation, expressing the feelings of the Presbytery at his removal.

EXAMINATION COMMITTEES' REPORT.

The report of the Examination Committee was read. The Synod asked to license the following students at Queen's College: David McCanell, D. Kellock, John Chisholm, J. W. Mason, M. S. Oxley, and James Ross. Their examinations was pronounced satisfactory.

FRAZER CASE AGAIN.

The celebrated case of Joshua Frazer was up for a reconsideration. The reverend gentleman presented testimonials from a number of Montreal gentlemen. The case was discussed until the adjournment, which occurred at one o'clock.

Gas Poisoning.

Last night a young man named T. Holiper, stopping at the Campbell House, Napanee, retired to bed about 10 o'clock. About 7 o'clock this morning the chambermaid rapped at his door and getting no response and smelling escaping gas had the door broken in when the young man was found insensible. Dr. Leonard succeeded in reviving him. A few minutes more and death must have ensued. He was already frothing at the mouth. This is the second case of gas poisoning resulting from sheer stupidity.

The Magazines.

"Mary, Queen of Scots," is the subject of the second of Mrs. Oliphant's stories of the English queens in St. Nicholas. It will be begun in April.

A paper on Father Hyacinthe, by the Rt. Rev. Wm. Croswell Doane, Protestant Episcopal Bishop of Albany, illustrated with a fine photograph, is announced for the April Scribner. This will be the third paper on Evangelical movements in Europe.

The increasing popularity of the cooperative stores in England has furnished the text to Chas. Barnard for a brief article in Scribner entitled "The Shoppers' Rebellion." He points out the effect which this successful English movement has already had on the side of the water, and predicts a more thorough revolution in the present relations of shopper and shopkeeper. The same number will have an account of the new co-operative apartment-house system, meeting with much favor in New York.
