"Opifer per Orbem Dicor."

In addition to the $14,000 per annum which is, as we think, extravagantly spent in salary, etc., upon Sir A. T. Galt, a pretty heavy bill has just been footed for the transfer of his family and effects from Canada to London. The very respectable sum of $3,000 was set apart for this purpose, but this proved to be insufficient, and our High Commissioner's memoranda for $1,584 had to be honored. Verily our London Commissioner is 'high' in the financial sense of the term, for he is proving to be a very expensive luxury.

Mr. A. M. Sullivan, Home Ruler and Land Leaguer, is out with a vigorous protest against the Lenten pastoral of Archbishop McCabe. There is no occasion for a republication of Mr. Sullivan's protest in our columns inasmuch as it has been forestalled by one of our own local correspondents. There is evidently room upon this question for honest differences of opinion, for Mr. Sullivan is able to quote against the precautionary injunctions of Archbishop McCabe the counter and pro-Land League opinions of Archbishop Croke, who is regarded as an equally influential authority.

It will pay Michael Davitt very well to go to gaol, for already the sympathizers with the cause of which he is a martyr are astir with a scheme to raise a fund with which to endow him after his enlargement from the British Bastile. Ten thousand pounds sterling is the figure at which the testimonial has been fixed and the movement is quite likely too succeed. A meeting in favor of the project has been held in Montreal and a branch subscription started there. We doubt not the Canadian contribution to this object will be quite a respectable one. Many would, we fancy, be found quite willing to undergo the mild incarceration due to a political offender with the prospect of receiving a reward of $50,000 upon exit from prison.

The practice of reviving and recognizing old claims upon the Government, and paying them in full, is one of the worst habits of the men now in power. Instead of following the wholesome British precedent of refusing to re-open matters that were thoroughly investigated and dismissed by their predecessors Ministers are giving every possible encouragement to their supporters to trump up all sorts of claims so as to afford an opportunity to rifle the public coffers. This practice is quite in keeping with the Tory maxim, that it is the first duty of a Government to support its supporters, but it is a vile shame that the people's money should be wasted and a representative Government prostituted by unblushing indulgence in such favoritism and corruption.

The ferocious sentiments of Schwab, the New York Socialist, applauding the Russian Czar's murder, have been promptly repudiated by the heads of the Socialist Labour Party in Detroit, which is the centre of the operations of the Society. Not only did the New York demagogue approve of the assassination of the Emperor, but publicly advised that a like fate be administered to all and sundry kings and capitalists suspected of opposing the Socialist demands. The official leaders of the labour movement were, of course, quick enough to see that such bloodthirsty counsels would do their cause an infinite amount of damage, and so they have sat upon the demonstrative Schwab. The popular cause will not be promoted by the means resorted to by the Nihilists of Russia and the social extremists of America.

The police authorities of Hamilton did the public a genuine service by making a raid upon a cock pit in the vicinity of that city, seizing the birds to the number of about thirty and arresting as many as they could catch of the participants in the "main." If there is one species of cruelty more cowardly and unmanly than another in the region of illicit sport it is the brutal pastime of cock fighting. The law very properly forbids it and prescribes a penalty for indulgence in it. In spite of this fact public sentiment and the law are alike set at defiance by those who are incurably addicted to this pernicious, cruel and degrading habit. The example set by the Hamilton police should be emulated by the authorities all over the country until it becomes a well understood fact that this violation of the law cannot be perpetrated with any chance whatever of immunity from punishment.

It is curious to note how much misapprehension prevails in regard to the senior classes in our public schools. To listen to the statements and arguments of the patrons and champions of the Collegiate Institute it may be supposed that the senior classes aforesaid are a recent creation by means of which the public schools are "overlapping" the legitimate work of the Institute. Nothing can be further from the fact. The advanced branches of a good English education were taught to much more senior pupils than any now attending the public schools by that veteran educationalist, Mr. Thomas Gordon, more than 20 years ago and they have been maintained in the public schools from that day to this. It is true the sixth class is of comparative recent organization, but the numbers in it bear but a small proportion to the pupils that are enrolled in the Fifth classes. We shall earnestly deprecate and vigorously oppose the abolition of those classes in our public schools that have proved so serviceable during the past quarter of a century in preparing the youth of our city for the useful and practical pursuits of life.

REPRESSION OF CRIME.

The woman Bridget Blackhill has been sentenced to imprisonment for life for procuring an abortion at the cost of the life of Maggie Mackay. There were some extenuating circumstances in the case, as for example the defective personal character of the victim, who had lived in terms of loose intimacy with several men in succession after the death of her own husband. The prisoner, too, it was evident, had no idea that she was imperilling the life of her "patient." Besides this, not only did she appear to be stricken with remorse at the fatal effect of her action in the case, but she pleaded guilty, both by signing the ante-mortem statement of the victim and afterwards at the trial. Then, too, the charge of murder was dropped by the Crown, and she was convicted on her own confession of abortion merely. In the face of all these apparent mitigations of her offence the prisoner was sentenced to the Kingston Penitentiary for life. Severe as the punishment may seem no one can deny the justice or the necessity of it. Judge Armour in pronouncing sentence referred in terms fittingly severe to the prevalence and enormity of the evil and righteously declared it to be a crime not only against society but against God. In addition to this he also took into the account the fact that by means of this heinous offence human life was always imperilled and frequently taken as in the present instance. For these reasons His Lordship felt it his duty to impose a severe punishment as a deterrent against resort to this species of murder. The sentence will be approved by public sentiment and the hope entertained that by this means a crime which has been most alarmingly on the increase will experience an effectual check. It is high time it were stamped out of existence by the sternest exercise of legal repression and penalty, when it is unfortunately too evident that nothing else is an adequate preventive or remedy for such a plague-spot upon the morals of the community.

That Special Audit.

To the Editor of the British Whig.

SIR,—Now that the special audit of the late County Treasurer's books is finished a very important question arises as to who is to pay for this luxury the County Council has been indulging in. I am informed that the audit will cost not less than $1,500, and that the Auditors have not found out anything during their investigation to justify such a large outlay.

It is also rumored that the action of last year's Council, in appointing Special Auditors, was not legal. If this is so the present Council had better think twice before passing a large account which they may be called on by some ratepayer to refund to the county out of their own pockets.

Of course the Special Auditors will have to be paid, and if the present Council refuse to do so the members of last year's Council will be called on to foot the bill. As many members of the present County Council were also members of last year's Council, they will have no small difficulty in choosing on which horn of the dilemma they will sit.

Yours, etc.,
A RATEPAYER.

Pittsburg, March 19, 1881.

Mr. Calvin's Pet Bill.

To the Editor of the British Whig.

SIR,—Mr. Calvin again puts the defeat of his little legislative bantling upon the Government. One year ago Mr. Mowat certainly did oppose the bill when it was brought forward at an inopportune stage of the session, and had substantial reasons for doing so I have no doubt. This year, however, if supporters of the Government did oppose the bill in Committee, on reasonable grounds, judging by their fairly expressed opinions, so did Mr. Meredith, the leader of the Opposition. Evidently the little pet was not slaughtered by any party executioner, but killed off by general consent as very weak and sickly game, whose life it would be an agony to prolong.

Yours truly,
SQUARE DEAL.

Concert at Collinsby.

Last evening a concert was held at the school house of the united school sections of Collinsby and the Front Road. It was well attended considering the state of the roads. We understand it was gotten up by Mr. Lyon, the teacher out there, to raise a fund with which to procure prizes for the school. Out of the three or four concerts held a goodly sum has been collected. The chair was occupied by Mr. S. S. Baker, who very ably conducted the business of the meeting. The programme, consisting of dialogues, speeches, recitations and readings, was furnished by young ladies and gentlemen from the vicinity, and was very creditably rendered, the following being some of those who took part in the concert: The Misses Wartman, Miss Lyon, A. Lyon and Mr. A. Glass. The musical part, with one or two exceptions, was furnished by Miss S. McDonald, the Misses Galloway, Miss Smith, Messrs. J. Galloway, W. Middleton, E. Cooper, E. C[...]ley and J. S. Wood.

The enumerators appointed for Frontenac are as follows, the Commissioner being D. J. Walker, Inverary:

Zopesa and Brazil.

As a result of the new commercial enterprise just assuming importance with Brazil, is the introduction of ZOPESA, so justly celebrated where it is known for the cure of all forms of Indigestion. The company have opened a laboratory in Toronto. ZOPESA comes to us highly endorsed and recommended, its certainty to relief and cure Dyspepsia and Constipation, makes this remarkable compound a necessity in Canada. The company make sample bottles at the trifling cost of 10 cents, to be had of Heath & Gunn and Henry Wade.

The Owen Sound Advertiser says we want more practical men in Parliament and fewer lawyers and salary-grabbing political bobblers.

RUSSIAN NEWS.

The New Policy of the Emperor Promising Greater Peace.

London, March 19.—Rochefort writes from Geneva that Roussakoff is a dupe. Nihilists only a few days before the assassination of the Czar, hence the incredulity of the Geneva refugees when Roussakoff's name was mentioned as one of the assassins. Rochefort states that up to Monday night at least Roussakoff had confessed nothing. The Nihilists pretend they are kept informed of what passes in the prison, and in a few days will be able to publish accurate reports of all interrogatories to which Roussakoff submitted. It is said that had the first shell missed the Emperor, three others would have been thrown before he reached the palace.

ANOTHER ARREST.

It is announced that a man has been arrested who is habitually addressed by his accomplices as "My Lord." The Agence Russe declares that this appellation is given by the Nihilists to Jeliaboo, the instigator of the plot to blow up the Imperial train near Moscow. The man was arrested on the 11th inst. He appears to be one of the leaders of the Nihilists.

GERMANY AND RUSSIA.

A Berlin despatch says, Great satisfaction is felt here over the circular of the Russian Foreign Office, as it is said to be strictly in conformity with the autograph letter of the Czar to the Emperor William. The idea of holding a European Congress for the repression of anarchical intrigues is again being ventilated.

AUSTRIA'S ATTITUDE.

Vienna, March 18.—In consequence of the refusal of the Austrian and Hungarian Diets to press a vote of condolence on the occasion of the death of the Czar, Baron Von Haymorle, Austrian Premier, has resigned. Count Kalnoky will succeed him.

Vienna, March 19.—The Emperor and the Court are painfully affected by the Reichsrath not voting the resolutions of condolence on the death of the Czar.

CZAR'S FUNERAL.

London, March 18.—The Imperial heralds proclaimed that the body of the Emperor will be removed to the Petropoulovski fortress to-day. All houses, shops and public buildings will be draped in black and white. The police have searched all the houses in the neighborhood of the Michael riding school and in Little Garden street. All householders and lodgers along the route of the funeral are prohibited from admitting strangers in their dwellings to witness the procession except on their own responsibility.

St. Petersburg, March 19.—The Czar's funeral procession to-day will be divided into thirteen sections. Seventy five orders and decorations and nine imperial crowns will be carried before the funeral car.

CORONATION OF THE CZAR.

The coronation of the Czar will probably take place at Moscow on the expiration of the period of deep mourning, the Imperial party remaining at Moscow until the end of the year.

POPE'S ADVICE.

Rome, March 19.—The Pope has written to the Catholic and united Greek bishops of Russia instructing them to order requiem masses in all the churches for the late Czar, and requesting them to issue pastorals requiring loyalty to the new Czar. The Pope announces that the freedom of the Catholic church in Russia as agreed upon by the late Emperor will be maintained.

A GOOD MOVE.

St. Petersburg, March 19.—The following proposals are said to be under consideration: Imperial Ukases giving evidence of three firm purposes of his own will firstly, to promote intercolonization by the migration of the peasantry to rich unoccupied lands, funds being provided therefor; secondly, to give more land to the peasants generally; and thirdly, to liberate the peasants from the expensive regime of passports.

SOCIALISTS' JOY.

London, April 19.—Freheit, the organ of the Social Democrats, appears with a wide red border. Its first article is headed, "At Last." The article begins, "Triumph! triumph! One most abominable tyrant is no more!"

NIHILIST'S STORY.

Paris, March 19.—Rochefort sends from Geneva the following account of the interview with a Nihilist named Krapotken. He says the murder of the Czar was fixed for four days earlier than it was actually committed. The exiles in Geneva, had grown very uneasy at hearing of nothing, and were wild with joy when the news of the assassination arrived.

SATURDAY'S GLEANINGS.

—Several of the dismissed members of the Ottawa police force are going to Manitoba.

—Mr. J. J. Borrie, grocer, Montreal, has gone to "seek pastures new and fields afresh," leaving $10,000 liabilities.

—They only charge $45 to cremate a fellow at Washington, Pa. Low rates ought to make the business popular.

—Sir Charles Dilke has requested Professor Hind to send all future charges and communications to the Dominion Government.

—Small-pox is causing terrible ravages in the Ha-Ha Bay district. Nearly two hundred people have been attacked with the disease during the last few weeks, and twenty-eight deaths have occurred. To add to the misery of the stricken community provisions have run short, and it is threatened with a famine scarcely less disastrous than the pestilence.

A Cocking Main.

At a late hour on Wednesday night a posse of police, headed by the Hamilton Chief of Police, went over to Rock bay, where they had been informed a cocking main was to be in progress. Arriving on the premises positions were taken up and the chief bursted in one of the doors, when a strange scene was presented. About forty sports and blacklegs were congregated and about the same number of birds. The fun was in full blast, and the appearance of the officers created no little consternation. A dash was at once made for doors and windows, several of the crowd rushing upstairs and dropping from windows there. Scarcely a whole pane of glass remains in the house, so eager were the gamesters in their flight. They all succeeded in getting away, the police making no effort to secure any, as the names of the whole party are known, and they will be summoned in a batch during the week. The only booty brought back was thirty two birds, which were produced in court this morning. The affair is the talk of the street to-day.

EMERALD ISLE.

St. Patrick's Celebration—Appeal for Orange Aid—Vessel Seizure.

London, March 18.—The News thinks it possible that the Land Bill will be introduced before the Easter recess.

The House of Lords passed the Arms Bill.

A Dublin despatch says the celebration of St. Patrick's Day was unusually quiet throughout Ireland.

Mr. Forster and a few friends have given 250 tons of Champion seed potatoes to the poor of Belmullet, county Mayo.

It is now stated that forty pounds of powder was packed in the box discovered under the Mansion House window. The Lord Mayor has received a number of telegrams from the American colonies congratulating him upon his narrow escape. He also received a number of threatening letters.

Dillon addresses a land meeting at Loughrea to-day. Healy speaks at Mount Ballow and Kettle, and another member of the League attends a meeting in this city. Annie Parnell addresses a meeting at Kells, Westmeath, to-day. Parnell is expected in Ireland to-morrow. He is to speak at Enniskillen on Monday.

Dublin, March 18.—The services of the Orange Emergency Committee has been asked for by McDonagh, the leading counsel for the defence in the recent State trials, at sales of seized stock on his property in Kilkenny county, where the tenants are largely in arrears and refuse to pay.

Leith, March 17.—The Customs officers boarded a vessel loaded with oil cake from New Orleans. A box was discovered and seized containing several thousand cartridges.

London, March 19.—The vessel boarded by Custom's officers at Leith, yesterday, in which was discovered several thousand cartridges, is the British bark "Peruana" from New Orleans. The captain gives a satisfactory account of his possession of the cartridges.

Harrisburg, Pa., March 19.—A resolution of sympathy with the Irish and requesting the people to extend them pecuniary aid, was negatived by the Senate Committee on foreign relations yesterday.

London, March 19.—In the Commons on Monday, on going into Committee of Supply, Mr. O'Donnell will move that Mr. Playfair was under an erroneous impression in his ruling, he having disregarded the authority of the chair in connection with O'Donnell's recent suspension. Mr. Parnell had arranged to go to Ireland to-day, to attend to a public meeting at Enniskillen, but in view of the prospect of a lively debate on O'Donnell's motion he will probably not go.

HOUSE OF COMMONS.

Prorogation on Monday—Visitors for Kingston.

Ottawa, March 19.—The House will prorogue on Monday at 3 o'clock. The Foot Guards will furnish the guard of honor, and the Dragoon Guards the escort for His Excellency.

Hon. Mr. Caron and a party of friends left this morning for Kingston on a visit to the Military College. They will remain over to-morrow, returning to Ottawa on Monday.

The majority of the Senators and members left the city last night for their homes; others are leaving to-day. Barely a quorum will remain over for prorogation on Monday.

The House was crowded last night. Some consternation was caused by the throwing down of a parcel of paper from the public gallery, facing the Senators' gallery. The free and easy practices of some honorable gentlemen caused much amusement. They pelted each other with blue books and sang popular airs. When the House adjourned the corridors resounded with Bon soir mes amis, bon soir.

The Committee on Manufacturers intend to recommend the granting of $5,000 towards the establishment here of a glucose factory by Mr. J. G. O'Dougherty.

War Again Probable.

London, March 19.—The Standard announces that it has an unpleasant duty to perform, and states that the telegraph despatch affirming the acceptance by the Ambassadors of the Porte's proposals is altogether inaccurate. These proposals are altogether inadequate. The cession of Crete is the only substantial feature. The Ambassadors will make a counter proposal that the Porte shall cede not only Crete but Thessaly and perhaps a strip of Epirus. War is almost inevitable in consequence of the independent attitude of Austria and Germany. There are reasons to believe that the Powers will informally notify Greece and Turkey that the latter will not be permitted to send a ship into Greek waters.

Vennor's Hit.

Chicago, March 19.—One of the worst storms of the season began here at day break, the rain quickly turning to snow. The streets are almost impassable and traffic is terribly embarrassed. The extent of the storm is not yet known. It interferes with telegraph communication in all directions.

Chicago, March 19.—By noon five inches of snow had fallen. There is great interruption of telegraph business. The wires look like two-inch ropes. The storm is not very severe in the North but it has extended West as far as Omaha, and South to St. Louis and Kansas City, and East as far as Crestline.

B. Dinsmore, C. P. Huntington, Jos. F. Denagro, John H. Starin, Seligman & Co., $2,000 each.

Railway Agreement.

New York, March 19.—The Times says that at the Trunk Line Joint Executive Committee meeting recently so flagrant were the violations of the pool agreement that it was reported that the Trunk Line managers formally resolved to withhold from the subordinates hereafter the power to make rates, thus placing the entire responsibility upon the Presidents of the various roads. Should a cut be reported a general and open reduction to the level with the cut rate will be at once ordered.
