Ayer's Cathartic Pills,
For all the purposes of a Family Physic,

Curing Costiveness, Jaundice, Dyspepsia, Indigestion, Dysentry, Foul Stomach and Breath, Headache, Erysipelas, Piles, Rheumatism, Eruptions and Skin Diseases, Biliousness, Liver Complaint, Dropsy, Tetter, Tumors and Salt Rheum, Worms, Gout, Neuralgia, as a Dinner Pill, and Purifying the Blood, are the most congenial purgative yet perfected. Their effect abundantly show how much they excel all other Pills. They are safe and pleasant to take, but powerful to cure. They purge out the foul humors of the blood; they stimulate the sluggish or disordered organs into action; and they impart health and tone to the whole being. They cure not only the every day complaints of every body, but formidable and dangerous diseases. Most skilful physicians, most eminent clergymen, and our best citizens, send certificates of cures performed, and of great benefits derived from these Pills. They are the safest and best physic for children, because mild as well as effectual. Being sugar coated, they are easy to take, and being purely vegetable, they are entirely harmless.

A DUCAL PARTY.

Rough Reminiscences of Their Experiences at Railroading in America.

A throng of men with ruddy faces and tweed coats filled the hallway of the Brevoort House yesterday afternoon, and hearty voices, whose tones were full of raising inflections, made inquiries and gave directions. The following names were entered on the hotel register: The Duke of Sutherland, the Marquis of Stafford, Thomas Knowles, M.P., W. L. Stephen, J. P. Bickersteth, Geo. Crosfield, Henry Crosfield, George P. Neale, and W. H. Russell. They had all arrived from England by the Cunard steamer Gallia, which came in last Thursday.

Dr. Russell is the well-known correspondent who was here for the London "Times" during the civil war. Mr. Neale is the General Superintendent of the London and North Western Railway, and the others are directors of the railway.

"We have come," said Mr. Neale to the reporter of the "Sun," "on a trip of and we want to get about the country some, and especially to see the great West. And then we intend to learn something by actual inspection and experience of the American railway system. We have heard a great deal of American locomotives, and now we want to see how they are made, and inspect the great machine shops of American railways. We expect to visit Philadelphia, Baltimore, Washington, Cincinnati, and Chicago, of course. We shall go to Boston, and to Montreal and Toronto. West, we shall go as far as St. Paul, and we shall go south as far as St. Louis. There the party will separate, some going to the Pacific coast, but most of us will come back by way of Pittsburg, stopping at Altoona to see the shops there. Altogether we expect to make a stay of a month or more."

Dr. Russell, now a somewhat elderly gentleman, with a white moustache and the appearance of a diplomatist, told the reporter something more about the Duke of Sutherland's plans. "The Duke," he said, "has a large hereditary interest in the London and North Western, and is an active director. He takes the greatest interest in railway affairs, and indeed all that relates to mechanical progress. I recollect hearing an anecdote told of a collier who saw the Duke one day riding on a locomotive. 'There he goes,' said the man, 'a-ridin' on his own engine, on his own road, a-burnin' his own coals, and now he is perfectly happy.'" added that the Duke, in whose company he was travelling, is going to California by the Southern Pacific route, but that his son, the Marquis of Stafford, will return east from St. Louis with the other directors, having to go back to England to resume his parliamentary duties. Dr. Russell himself is here simply on a pleasure trip, he said.

"But you will write something about your visit, won't you?" said the reporter.

"Well, not for a long time yet, anyhow."

George B. Roberts, President of the Pennsylvania Railroad, Frank Thomson, General Manager, and John Scott, General Solicitor, were at the Brevoort house to welcome the party, who will be the guests of the Pennsylvania Railroad in their western trip.

The title of the Duke of Sutherland in the English peerage dates from 1833; his title of Earl of Sutherland in Scotland is the most ancient in the peerage of that country. His estates both in England and Scotland are large. He is a tall gentleman, with silvery hair and grey beard, and, dressed in a sack coat and trousers of grey cloth, he was bustling about the hallway of the Brevoort in a hearty, informal fashion. His son, the Marquis of Stafford, is a young man of thirty.

The party expect to remain in New York some time. "We have already received twenty-three invitations to dinner," said Dr. Russell, laughingly, "so that you see we shall be kept pretty busy."

Sir Henry Green and Lady Green are with the party. Their trip is solely one of pleasure.

Taking His Trade Away.

The impossibility of pleasing everybody is well illustrated by the following incident: The captain of a certain Atlantic steamer is accustomed to hold a religious service upon every Sunday that finds him at sea. And when there is a clergyman among his passengers, that gentleman is usually invited to take charge of the exercises. But, upon a recent trip, the good captain found upon his passenger list the names of seventeen ministers. When Sunday came he was at a loss to know which one he had better ask to assume the direction of public worship; and finally concluded that all parties would perhaps be the best suited if he took that position himself, as he had frequently done in the absence of a regular minister. Accordingly, when at the appointed hour the passengers had assembled in the ship's cabin, the commander opened his Bible and began the service. At this one of the ministers, who is in charge of a fashionably and wealthy society, and who had supposed there could be no doubt of the captain's placing the meeting under his direction, abruptly left the cabin, and in a somewhat unpleasant frame of mind commenced pacing the quarterdeck directly over the worshippers' heads. In a few minutes an officer approached and request him to stop his walk, as it was disturbing divine service. Turning quickly, and almost fiercely, upon the astonished seaman, the clergyman replied: "The captain has taken my trade away from me, and I propose to look after the safety of the ship!"

It's Just A Booming.

Such is the expression from all druggists and dealers everywhere who are selling Dr. Kyso's New Discovery for consumption. No like preparation can begin to have such an extensive and rapid sale. And why? Simply because of its wonderful merits No cough or cold, no matter of how long standing or how stubborn, can resist it healing qualities. Asthma, bronchitis, hoarseness, hay fever, pain in the side or chest and difficulty of breathing or any lingering disease of the throat and lungs rapidly yield to its marvelous powers. It will "positively cure" and that where everything else has failed. Satisfy yourself as thousands have already done by getting of your druggists a trial bottle for ten cents, or a regular size bottle for $1. For sale by all druggists.

Procrastinate Not!

Procrastination is the thief of time! Do not put off till to-morrow what can be done to-day. To-day is ours, to-morrow, we know not what will come. Reader, are you suffering from dyspepsia, biliousness, jaundice, or liver complaint? If so, a safe and speedy cure is within your reach, and the fault is your own if you go on suffering. You never can be vigorous in body, and active in mind while the stomach is out of order. Baxter's Mandrake Bitters have been used by thousands, who have found them a certain cure. Procrastinate not, go to-day to your druggist, or store-keeper and purchase a bottle.

The Agony Over.

Walking, the source of so much misery to many, becomes, after using Putnam's Painless Corn Extractor, a service of pleasure. Corns are small in size, but their importance is not to be judged by their size, as anyone fond of a tramp can testify. Try Putnam's Extractor for corns. No discomfort, no caustic application, no blood letting, and yet splendidly effectious. For sale by J. G. King, Heath & Guan, and by Noe. Polson & Co., agents for Ontario.

HUMOROUS.

The undertaker.

Intemperance holds its votaries with a vice-like grip.

About this time of year our streets display a foaming population.

Quail on toast—When the man put down for an after-dinner speech weakens at the prospect.

The snow is only just gone, and in a week or two more the "Is this hot enough for you?" fiend will make life a burden.

House-hunting is now the seasonable sport, and the merry click of the latch-key and cheerful chirp of the landlord are heard on every hand.

Bernhardt gains two pounds while in America.—"Boston Post." Is that all all? Thought she had realized ever so many hundred thousand dollars.

It is estimated that on a general average two out of three people who go to hear Dr. Wild, get off an "original" joke on his name on the way home.

Wisconsin men don't shoot each other to settle their quarrels. At midnight's solemn hour they throw dead cats in each other's wells.

A Chicago photographer has discovered a process whereby he can take the soul of a sitter. He has large orders for these new pictures to set in pin heads.

Beaconsfield anecdotes are now in order, and the enterprising anecdotist who has gone long on Carlyle stories and now finds them a drug in the market is diligently recasting them to suit the late statesman.

Lady visitor to Scripture class—With what weapon did Samson slay his enemies? After a period of unbroken silence, fair questioner (touching her looming cheek,) What's this? Chorus—The jor bone of a hass, mum.

The Indians are undoubtedly capable of being civilized, and among the industries to which they are specially adapted is the shoe trade—(interval of five minutes for profound meditation.) "Oh, yes, I see it now, shoe-trade, shoot raid, ha, ha!"

The lamb is the favorite animal of the spring poets, the faithful dog of the writers of moral stories, and the mule has justice meted out to him by the paragrapher; but the humble and despised hog gets his innings in the commercial reports, and claims more space than the rest of them put together.

Crying at weddings has gone out of fashion. Smiling is the thing now, and the bridegroom is not made to feel as though he was a hard-hearted pirate and buccaneer, who is ruthlessly destroying a happy home. This is a big improvement.

An interesting game of railroad euchre took place on the G.T.R. the other day. "I pass," said the dead beat, presenting a scalp ticket with half a dozen holes punched in it. "I order you up," replied the conductor. "I assist," remarked the brakeman—"clubs are trumps, I believe." "Well, make it diamonds," said the passenger, planking the fare and pointing to a pin worn by the conductor. And so he got sent to Chicago.

"Look here," said Gus De Smith to a newspaper reporter, "you tell me a couple of good jokes; I want to get 'em off as original, you know, at a little social gathering to-night. I'll lend you five dollars if you do." "Can't possibly do it. If you got off the jokes everybody will know you stole them, and if it leaks out that I've got five dollars people will think the same of me," and hence the dead lock still continues.

Sensible Advice.

You are asked every day through the columns of the newspapers and by your druggist to use something for your dyspepsia and liver complaint that you know nothing about, you get discouraged spending money with but little success. Now to give you satisfactory proof that Green's August Flower will cure you of Dyspepsia and Liver Complaint with all its effects, such as Sour Stomach, Sick Headache, Habitual Costiveness, Palpitation of the Heart, Heart-burn, Water brash, Fullness at the pit of the Stomach, Yellow Skin, Coated Tongue, Indigestion, Swimming of Head, Low Spirits, &c., we ask you to go to J. G. King, druggist, and get a sample bottle of Green's August Flower for 10 cents and try it, or a regular size for 75 cents. Two doses will relieve you.

Gentle Purgatives.

In the light of experience, gentle purgatives are the most effective means of purifying the system, and eradicating diseases in any form. Heebick's Sugar Coated Vegetable Pills verify this; for they sweep away all internal discomforts at once. They are for sale everywhere.

"Where have you been for a week back?" enquired a man of his neighbor; "I have not a week back," retorted he, "you misunderstand me," remarked his friend; "but if you ever get a weak back try Burdock Blood Bitters." It cures all debility arising from disordered Kidneys, Liver, or Blood, and is the best purifying Tonic in the world. All medicine dealers supply sample bottles at 10 cents, regular size, $1.00

For Canker in the Mouth, Throat and Stomach.—For a wash for the mouth and a gargle for the throat, make a strong mixture of Perry Davis' Pain Killer in milk and water, sweetened with loaf sugar; and take, internally, three times a day, a teaspoonful of the Pain-Killer mixed in a gill of milk and water, sweetened with loaf sugar.

A Real Necessity.—No house should be without a bottle of Hagyard's Yellow Oil, in case of accident. There is no preparation offered to suffering humanity that has made so many permanent cures, or relieved so much pain and misery. It is called by some the Good Samaritan, by others the Cure all, and by the afflicted the Angel of Mercy.

Everybody uses "Tearbery," the new toilet gem to beautify the teeth—to sweeten the mouth and breath—delightfully refreshing. Emphatic testimony of its superior excellence—try it. Price 35c. Sample packages five cents.

It sets the sluggish liver in motion, very slightly acts on the bowels, giving a sense of health and comfort within an hour. It is the safest medicine. Taraxacum and Podophyllin is a fluid made only by J. Pepper, Bedford Laboratory, London, whose name is on every label. Bottles, 2s. 9d. and 4s. 6d. Sold by all chemists. A most valuable and essential medicine for India, Australia, the Cape and colonies generally.
