Daily British Whig.

If the price of coal should drop, now that the winter is over and gone, the reduction will doubtless be attributed to the beneficent operation of the national policy. It must be remembered, however, that whatever the price of coal may be now that the pressing demand for it is relaxed, that price is precisely the amount of the duty more than it would be if it were not thus taxed by the tariff. This fact, which is also true of everything else affected by the tariff, may seem to be so self-evident as not to require to be stated at all, but it is one which is nevertheless persistently ignored by the admirers and defenders of the policy of taxation.

Bradlaugh is appealing to the people on the plea that the Tories in the British parliament are utilizing his case to block the wheels of Government and retard the public business. There is much truth in this contention, but so far as Bradlaugh is concerned he has himself to thank for the trouble he is in. Had he quietly taken the oath at the first no question of personal disability would have been raised. He was so conscientious about it then as to refuse to take the oath which he would now be glad enough to swallow. His atheistic bravado has cost him rather dear, and his experience proves how hard it is very often to lie down in a bed of one's own making.

By calling itself the Government of Conciliation the Quebec Cabinet lays claim to the consideration and indulgence of its opponents. This pretension is based upon the fact that the present Cabinet in Quebec is called a coalition on account of the presence therein of a couple of renegades from the Liberal party, Messrs. Flynn and Paquet. As usual these men are more bitter against their former friends than are the thorough-paced Tories of the Cabinet. We cannot see that the ratting of these men to the Government at all entitles the latter to the indulgence of the Opposition. That forbearance was extended to them last session, but the Government is taking advantage of the relaxation of criticism to plunge the already debt-burdened Province deeper into the vortex of political and financial bankruptcy and ruin. The plain duty of the Liberal Opposition in the Province of Quebec is one of unyielding opposition to the corrupt taxationists, and the most searching investigation and scathing criticism of the present mal-administration of provincial affairs.

NOT YET SATISFIED.

It will be remembered that in the case of the county of Halton the Scott Act was recently adopted by the rather narrow majority of 87. The opponents of the Act are not yet satisfied that they were beaten in the contest and so have applied for a recount of the ballots. The scrutiny has been granted by Judge Miller and will take place on the 26th inst. The majority, though small as compared with the total number of votes cast, is yet a large one to obliterate by means of recount, and though it may be reduced it is hardly possible the result of the election will be reversed by the scrutiny. It is in a case of this kind where the attempted "Boultbee Act" would come in, for if a majority not of the votes cast, but of the total number upon the voters' list, were required the act would be considered defeated if it could only command a majority like the above. However, the majority, i.e. of the votes polled, should prevail in every popular contest and there is no good reason why the Scott Act should be any exception to the rule.

ONTARIO BOUNDARY AWARD.

Sir Francis Hincks delivered his promised lecture on the question of the Ontario boundary award on Friday evening last to a large representative and influential audience in the city of Toronto. The subject on which the veteran knight spoke for upwards of two hours is one of absorbing importance to the people of Ontario, and the full text of the lecture, which has been promised in compliance with the unanimous request of the audience that heard it, will be looked for with much interest by the general public. This question is not in itself nor should it ever have been made a political one. Unfortunately, however, it has been made such by the present Dominion Government which has persistently refused to do this province justice in the matter. It has hitherto been the wholesome habit for a new government not to go back upon the procedure of its predecessors in non-political matters but herein the present Federal Cabinet has taken a new departure. Obeying as usual the behests of Quebec dictators, or else indulging in a personal spite against his native province, Sir John Macdonald has from the first endeavored to set aside the award of the arbitrators in reference to our provincial boundaries. Of the justice and fairness of the award there can be no manner of doubt. Sir Francis Hincks, who was himself the arbitrator for the Dominion, lays special stress upon this fact. He tells us the conclusion which formed the basis of the award was not the result of conference and argument. The plan of individually considering the merits of the question was adopted: the papers having a bearing on the subject were referred to each arbitrator separately and when they came together to compare notes they found that they had virtually reached one and the same conclusion. How monstrous it is under such circumstances to unceremoniously set aside the award and thus attempt to deprive this province of her just rights. Too cowardly to say what were the true boundaries, if the award did not correctly define them, the Bill of last session, making the eastern boundary of Manitoba coincident with the western boundaries of Ontario, was nothing but a miserable attempt to shirk the issue and let it drift into an interprovincial quarrel between Ontario and Manitoba. The action of the present Dominion Government in this matter is worthy of the severest reprehension.

ANNUAL DRILL.

Published Regulations — Arrangements for Camp Life—Economy and Care Influence Assured.

The regulations for the annual drill of 1881-2 have been published. The city corps are to be allowed to perform the drill at the local head quarters, officers to be paid at the rate of $1; non-commissioned officers and men 50c; horses, 75c for each day's drill consisting of three hours. The maximum number of officers, non-commissioned officers and men of rural corps to drill in camp in this district is 1,006. Selections will be made from rural corps of the arms in each district in proportion as their strength bears towards each other. Those not drawn from drill last year will be taken first. The officers, non-commissioned officers and men of such corps as drill in camps of exercise will be paid for each day's drill of six hours, the net pay of their respective ranks as laid down in paragraphs 698 and 702 of the Regulations and Orders $1 per diem, in addition to free rations as laid down in paragraph 497 and free forage (for horses) as laid down in paragraph 501 of the Regulations and Orders, 1879. Fuel for cooking will be issued on the scale laid down in paragraph 530 of Regulations and Orders 1879; and an allowance at the rate of $6 per troop and company, and $10 per field battery of artillery will be paid to each corps to enable them to provide camp kettles.

The Deputy Adjutant General in each district will receive special instructions from headquarters to enable him to supply necessary requisitions and specify the routes by which corps must proceed in going to and returning from camp.

RATIONS AND EQUIPMENTS.

As the issue of rations in camp will not commence until the morning of the second day. Corps proceeding to join will be required to find one day's cooked rations and one day's forage. 25c. per officer and man and 35c. per horse will be issued in money in lieu of rations for the first day of camp.

In addition to his ordinary equipment each officer and man must supply himself with and take to camp one knife, fork and spoon, one tin plate and one tin drinking cup. Each company must provide one butcher's knife, one meat fork, one shovel and one axe. Each battalion must provide camp kettles and necessary cooking utensils.

The supply officer will be allowed one day before the opening and one day after the closing of camp to arrange for the delivery of supplies from contractors and for closing his accounts. He should, however, so systemize his work in camp as to insure his having all vouchers and accounts for each day properly fyled and completed during that day.

GOVERNMENT SUPPLIES.

Necessary tents, and one blanket per officer and man will be supplied on application of each commanding officer, under the provisions of paragraphs 615 to 626 of the Regulations and Orders 1879.

The camp Quarter Master will be allowed one day before opening and one day after closing of camp, to arrange for issue of, and to receive over, and return camp equipment to store and close his accounts.

The Quarter Master and one man per company of each battalion may proceed one day in advance of their corps, in order to make necessary arrangements for the encampment of their corps under instructions from the Deputy Adjutant General of the District. They will also, if required, remain one day for duty after the camp breaks up.

If the weather is unfavorable and tents wet when camp breaks up, the Deputy Adjutant General of the District will use his discretion in giving orders for the protection of the public interests in respect to the articles to be returned to store.

MINOR PROVISIONS.

In cases of illness contracted in camp, compensation will be limited to a period not exceeding 60 days.

No person is under any circumstances to sell ammunition issued at the public expense by Government to any corps for practice.

Twenty rounds of ball and twenty rounds of blank ammunition for practice, under the provisions of paragraphs 271 to 284 inclusive of the R. and O. 1879, will be allowed to each man authorized to drill.

Troops of cavalry are restricted to 35 horses each, for pay.

No mounted officer shall receive pay for more than one horse, actually used by him.

The pay for horses shall cover any expense incurred for shoeing while at drill.

The attention of officers is drawn to paragraphs 156, 177 and 178 of the R. and O. 1879 relating to their uniform, clothing, &c.

PREVENTION OF FRAUD.

Before any corps receives pay, the commanding officer shall be required to certify in his own handwriting, at the end of the pay list of his corps, that each officer, non-commissioned officer and man for whom pay is demanded, was actually present with his corps and performed the number of days of drill for 1881-82, specified opposite his name.

The Deputy Adjutant General in each district will see that the expenditure for drill is kept within the appropriation, and to that end will take steps to select, in the manner indicated, from corps in his district, to make the maximum strength authorized for drill. The corps not selected, and which cannot be paid, are hereby relieved from the performance of drill during the year 1881-82.

St. Mary's Cathedral.

In St. Mary's Cathedral yesterday the feast of the Patronage of St. Joseph was observed. The services were very grand and imposing. The Bishop officiated at 8 o'clock and administered communion to a large number of persons. At 10:30 o'clock Grand High Mass was celebrated by the Rev. Father O'Brien, assisted by Fathers Twohey and Kelly as deacon and sub-deacon. The Rev. Father Hogan preached a very effective sermon on the efficacy of prayer, laying particular stress on the clause of his text, "Whatever ye ask the Father in my name it will be given unto you." His Lordship presided on the throne, supported by Rev. Fathers Higgins and Hogan. In the evening Grand Vespers were celebrated, the same gentlemen officiating. The music and singing by the choir was unusually good and appropriate to the high festival. His Lordship the Bishop will on next Sunday evening grant the Papal Benediction and a plenary indulgence, high privileges bestowed on him by the Sovereign Pontiff before he left Rome, with the request that they be conferred on the people of each parish in his diocese. The Bishop will address the congregation on this occasion. The altars yesterday were beautifully decorated and illuminated. The May services will be continued each evening during the month.

Colonel Herchimer will leave Montreal for the North West to-morrow with twelve recruits for the Mounted Police; 11 are French Canadians and 1 Irish.

COURT OF CHANCERY.

Opening of the Case of Conroy vs. Ward—Settlement Talked of.

Sharp at three, o'clock [illegible] the Court crier called "order," the barristers arose, Vice Chancellor Blake took his seat upon the Bench, and the Court of Chancery was declared to have been duly opened. The first case on the docket was that of Conroy v. Ward, in which the interest of a large number of persons was centred. No less than eight lawyers were in the case—Messrs. R. T. Walkem, Q.C., J. B. Walkem, R. V. Rogers, G. M. Macdonnell, W. H. Sullivan, and T. H. McGuire, of Kingston; and D. A. O'Sullivan, Q.C., and J. S. Ewart, of Toronto. Mr. R. T. Walkem, who represented the plaintiffs with the exception of Mrs. Margaret Garde, stated that a settlement had been arrived at on Saturday last, and that he had notified his witnesses to that effect. This morning, however, he learned that Mrs. Garde disagreed with the terms of settlement. The amount she was to receive by it was $10,000, the same amount that would have been awarded to her if the first will was proven to be valid. Mr. Walkem said he had no right to insinuate, but he believed that influence had been brought to bear upon her to contest the will. There was a general titter at this statement.

Hon. V. C. Blake said: What you have no right to insinuate you state boldly. (Laughter.)

Mr. McGuire, who about twenty minutes previously had been retained by Mrs. Garde, said that from what he heard Mrs. Garde had been induced to sign a paper before she knew what the terms of the settlement were. There were certain matters in the will that would not be carried out by the settlement if agreed to.

The Vice Chancellor asked if Mrs. Garde was aware that the onus of attacking the will would fall upon her. The others were agreeable to the settlement, and she would have to take proceedings alone. After remarks from Messrs. R. V. Rogers, D. A. O'Sullivan, Q.C., and G. M. Macdonnell, an hour was given for Mr. T. H. McGuire to consult Mrs. Garde as to whether she would proceed or not.

The case of Yule v. Ferguson was then taken up.

LATEST CABLEGRAMS.

BEACONSFIELD'S MONUMENT.

The motion to erect a monument to the memory of Lord Beaconsfield will, without doubt, be opposed by a majority of the Radical members, but still there is great opposition to Mr. Labouchere's amendment, which is not likely to have over a hundred supporters.

CONSERVATIVE LEADERSHIP.

Sir Stafford Northcote's organ says: "The statement that the Conservative peers meet on Monday to ratify the selection of Lord Salisbury for the leadership is premature and misleading. The question Who shall lead the party? is not now in issue. The question of who shall lead in the House of Lords will be decided at Monday's meeting."

There is no doubt that Lord Cairns and Sir Stafford Northcote feel sore on the subject, but the decision will be loyally accepted by the Tories.

London, May 9.—At the Conservative peers meeting to-day the Duke of Richmond proposed and Lord Cairns seconded the motion, that Lord Salisbury lead the party in the House of Lords.—Carried unanimously.

BRADLAUGH'S CHEEK.

Mr. Bradlaugh states that if the Government fails to secure Tuesday for consideration of the Oaths' bill it will be his duty again to present himself to take the oath.

TARIFF TALK.

The battalion which assisted to depose him has been broken up, and the officers sent to distant posts. It is believed that there will be no public trial, but the accused will be quietly exiled.

RECENT STRIKES.

Bricklayers' Demand—Meeting of Brakesmen—Close of their Agitation.

Toronto, May 9.—Over a hundred bricklayers attended a meeting this morning to consider the wages question. It was resolved to strike at once unless an increase was granted from $1.30 to $1.50. Several employers have already given in.

A meeting of the Grand Trunk brakesmen was held yesterday. After the chairman had opened the meeting Mr. J. B. Richardson, the delegate who went to Montreal to discuss the question with the General Manager, gave an interesting sketch of his visit to that city, his reception by the other delegates, and his interview with Mr. Hickson, who received him in the kindest manner. The chairman read the following letter amid loud applause, and it was at once unanimously decided to send copies to the officials of the company, Manager Hickson, and officials of the Grand Trunk Railway:

Gentlemen—"The Home Committee, on behalf of the brakesmen in Toronto district, desire to thank you for the courteous reception extended to their delegate, and the considerate treatment with which you met the petition of the men for increased wages. The agreement arrived at is satisfactory, and should prove mutually beneficial. The Committee give expression to the unusual feeling of the brakemen when it is said that no effort will be left undone by any one to deserve your continued confidence, and to further in his humble way the great interests with the control of which you are entrusted."

Star Route Robbery.

New York, May 9.—Official records show that the Government paid at the rate of $30,000 a year for service on the Star route from Shreveport to Red River Landing, which was originally let for $12,000. Chase Andrews secured the route from Frietown to Eagle Pass, Texas, at $630 per year, but obtained an increase to nearly $12,000. Payment for the service on the route from Canon City to Del Norte, California, was increased from $15,000, the contract figures, to $70,000. The annual pay on the four routes in Oregon was increased from $17,000 to $164,000. In none of these cases was adequate service rendered for the pay.

Rescued Crew.

Antonio, May 7.—Pato, a negro, tells a strange story to the effect that he was a sailor on the French war ship La Marise, which encountered a hurricane and was abandoned after several men were washed overboard or killed by falling spars. The rest of the crew floated for two weeks on a raft, two dying from starvation. The survivors were rescued and taken to New Orleans whence Pato came here. The French Consul thinks the vessel was a Russian war ship.

Disease in New York.

New York, May 9.—There have been 268 cases of cerebro spinal meningitis in New York since January 1st, of which 223 cases were fatal. They are supposed to have been caused by bad sewerage. Horses also frequently die of the disease. The Health Department is endeavoring to prevent the disease from becoming epidemic.

Jews in Padolea have been maltreated. The troops have been sent to their protection.

IRISH QUESTIONS.

Leaguers' Arrest—Cardinal Manning Speaks Out—Parnell's Following, etc.

London, May 8.—It is said that prominent members of the Land League will be arrested to-morrow. It is understood that the resolution, to abstain from voting on the Land Bill, adopted by the Home Rulers is almost certain to be amended to enable the Parnellites to vote for its second reading.

Michael Gibbons, John Gibbons, and John Marum, Roscommon farmers, have been arrested under the Coercion Act. Cardinal Manning forbids the use of Catholic clubs, halls, and schools to Land League meetings. Mr. Dillon's arrest has given a check to lawlessness. The number of outrages decreased last week.

The agitation about the land question will also be more active in both countries. The Radical policy is making great headway, not only in Ireland but throughout England. The Irish Home Rule members hold a caucus to-morrow and will decide upon the course they will pursue, but apart from them it is clear that the moderate Home Rulers, of whom Mr. Shaw is the head, represents the best element of the Irish people.

New York, May 8.—The Tribune's London special says: It is remarkable that of the sixty Home Rulers who followed the leadership of Mr. Butt only seventeen are faithful to Mr. Parnell. Many protests come from Ireland against Mr. Parnell's proposal to refrain from voting on the second reading of the Land Bill.

Dr. Sullivan's Explanation.

To the Editor of the British Whig.

Dear Sir,—Your article of Saturday, headed "Varioloid Sensation," contains a few errors so far as my opinion is concerned. I said Miss Ainsworth's case was a mild case of small pox or variola, that there was no danger of her life, and that from the precautions the authorities took it would not at all be likely to spread. Your article implies what I could not state that "no other would take it," which is not correct.

Respectfully yours,
Dr. Sullivan.

The Agony Over.

Walking, the source of so much misery to many, becomes, after using Putnam's Painless Corn Extractor, a service of pleasure. Corns are small in size, but their importance is not to be judged by their size, as anyone fond of a tramp can testify. Try Putnam's Extractor for corns. No discomfort, no caustic application, no blood letting, and yet splendidly efficacious. For sale by J. G. King, Heath & Gunn, and by N. C. Polson & Co., agents for Ontario.

An old, but reliable proverb and which has been proven to the subscribers that what they have already quoted is only the simple truth and everything in their line is Pure and not Musty!

They can with confidence recommend anything they keep for sale and with straight forward dealings will show the public at large that they are not what others are, nor do what others do, as they sell an article for its value only and let it speak for itself afterwards.
