Sale of Magazines and Papers at Mechanics' Institute at 7:30 p.m.

Annual Meeting of Mechanics' Institute at 8 p.m.

CITY AND VICINITY.

Gould & Co., 185 Wellington street, sell out by auction commencing on Monday, 23rd instant.

Probs.—Region moderate to fresh winds, mostly from the north east and north, cloudy to rainy weather.

Women's Christian Temperance Union.—The regular monthly meeting will be held at Mrs. E. Chown's, Brock St., on Friday, 20th, 3 p.m.

Active Service.—The new locomotive, "G. W. Flower," of the K. & P. RR., has been tested and gives satisfaction. Her first trip in the regular service was made to-day.

Broke his Leg.—A soldier named Newman, in the service of Major Taschereau, had the misfortune to break his leg yesterday while skylarking. The leg was injured in two places.

Removed to the City.—Mr. R. Davis, shipbuilder, Wolfe Island, removed to the city, will soon open a yard at some convenient point. His work is good and in constant requisition.

Camp Location.—The Government has not made any decision as to the location of the camp in the district. Col. Villiers went to Belleville in regard to it this afternoon. Kingston is considered too far east.

A Runaway Boy.—The managers of the Orphans' Home are on the outlook for a boy named William McFartridge, aged 14 years, who was placed on a farm some time ago, but ran away and is believed to be in the city.

County Gaol.—There are in the county gaol but four men and seven women. With such a record the city is justified in agitating for a reduction in the amount which it has to pay annually for prison expenses, etc., $4,180.

Payment Forbidden.—Parties are warned against accepting Bank of Dominion notes for $2 from numbers 145001 to 146000, and also $1 bills from 155001 to 156000. The classes are A. B. C. D. The notes are payable in Toronto.

Holiday Excursions.—The St. Lawrence River Steamboat Company announce a series of excursions on Queen's Birthday. There will be no attractions to keep the citizens at home. In their flight abroad the ferry steamers will, no doubt be well patronized.

Cotton Mill.—The architects are now examining the plans, and it is probable that on Monday tenders will be asked for the erection of the building. Being about to leave for England, Mr. Minnes resigned the Presidency of the Provisional Board of Directors, and Mr. J. Richardson was elected in his stead.

For Another Term.—Sarah Ryan, who left goal a few days ago, was before the court this morning for vagrancy. She said she had friends, but they would not take care of her. She wanted to go to the Mercers' Institute, but the magistrate could not send her there. He committed her to goal for five months.

A Conjecture.—In Stevenson's lumber yard, Napanee, on Saturday, a bloody shirt was found, and the Standard, in view of the disappearance of Treasurer Hazzard, of Sheffield, suggests that probably its owner sought to conceal the traces of a deadly struggle with a victim who had been put out of the way for the sake of the money carried on his person.

Presented With a Cane.—The Railway Age says that Mr. T. G. Gorman, having resigned his position as superintendent of motive power in the Hannibal and St. Joseph RR. to take charge of the locomotive works at Kingston, he was presented by the employees with an elegant gold headed cane as a token of friendship and esteem. On his departure he was accompanied to the depot with a brass band.

Bad Acting Horse.—There is attached to "B" Battery a valuable horse, but it has the bad taste and habit of lying down in any mud puddle which it comes in sight of. Yesterday while a lady was out riding upon it a pond was reached, and in it the equine rolled, to the dismay of the equestrienne and the great damage of her elegant habit and saddle.

Interim Sessions.

Regina vs. Campbell, larceny, at Portsmouth, of overcoat, waistcoat, two pairs of gloves, a workbox and a sum of money from the dwelling house of Michael Kennedy, the prisoner elected to be tried by the judge. Being ready for his trial he was arraigned and pleaded "guilty." The judge sentenced him to be imprisoned in the Central Prison for one year. The prisoner asked the judge to sentence him to two years in the penitentiary instead of sending him to the Central, as he had previously served six months in the latter and did not like the institution very much. The judge could not see the case in the same light.

MARINE NEWS.

Accident on the Rideau—New Passenger [illegible]

The schr. A. G. Ryan has loaded 250 tons of iron ore for Charlotte.

The schr. Queen of the Lakes clears for Fairport with 421 tons of iron ore.

The schr. C. Gearing, from Oswego, with coal, is reported inwards this afternoon.

The tug Eleanor and barges, from Ironsides, arrived this afternoon. They brought in 252 tons of ore.

The schr. Bavaria cleared from Garden Island this afternoon. The tug Chieftain will tow her as far as the canal.

Swift's—Arrivals: Corinthian, from Montreal; Passport, from Hamilton; Armenia, from Ogdensburg; D. C. West, from Westport.

There has been an ice gorge at Fort William and the schr. Richardson is a complete wreck. She is owned by Messrs. Richardson & Sons, of this city.

Freight rates—Toronto to here 2c. Chicago, schr. Lem Ellsworth, wheat to Kingston 8½c.; Detroit, 6c on wheat to this port; Toledo, 5c on corn and 6½c on wheat to Kingston.

The steamer Corinthian made her first trip up this season. She has received new bulwarks, promenade deck, wheel house and other improvements. She presents a handsome appearance.

Last evening the Hiram A. Calvin was towing out the Oriental, when she ran across the Gleniffer's bows, carrying away her boom and bowsprit. The rigging of the Siberia was also injured. The damages will total probably $200.

The tug Swan, with four barges in tow, from Ottawa, broke a portion of her wheel. She was compelled to leave the barges at Newboro and come to Kingston for repairs. She grounded and was detained in the marsh for several hours.

The Montreal Witness says the Prince Arthur, one of the steamers intended to run on the new line, said to be about to be started between Cape Vincent and Montreal, at present lies in the canal at St. Gabriel locks, and is being fitted up with a new saloon and wheel-house, and is also undergoing sundry deck repairs. The new fittings will cost about $4,000. Mr. Shearer expects to have the vessel ready by the 1st of June. The Prince Arthur is about the same size as the Corsican, and is built apparently with a view to speed, being very sharp in the bows. The company have two boats, the Prince Arthur and the Rothsay. The former will run from Montreal to Dickinson's Landing, connecting there with the Rothsay, which will run between the Landing and Cape Vincent. From present appearances this line will not prove a very formidable opposition to the Richelieu.

The St. Lawrence, says the Ogdensburg Journal, is not affected by freshets. A gale down the lake, however, will raise the water above the rapids from one to three feet. A gale up the river, holding the water back in Lake Ontario, will cause it to lower in the river to nearly the same extent. A gale down the river makes it easier for a steamer to ascend the rapids, while one up makes it harder. There are periodical rises and falls in the St. Lawrence. Sometimes these periods cover four or five years, sometimes ten years. About the beginning of the past winter extreme low water mark was reached. Since the opening of the river, the present Spring, the water has been steadily rising. Up to this writing it is about sixteen inches. From the head waters of Lake Superior to the rapids the average flow of water is about twenty miles a day. The waterfall during the winter over the sources of supply of the St. Lawrence river has been very heavy, hence we may expect high water in July. The local effects of winds will be in the same high water and in low water seasons.

PERSONAL MENTION.

Mrs. Garfield is believed to be out of danger.

Mr. T. P. French, of the P.O. Department, Ottawa, is in the city.

Principal Grant preaches in the First Presbyterian Church, Peterboro, this evening.

Mrs. Dr. Meagher, a resident of this city for 50 years, left to-day for San Francisco.

Col. Strange is visiting friends in Quebec. He will be absent about two weeks.

Capt. Crawford is in the city. He reports business not extremely brisk between Port Hope and Rochester.

Ex-Vice Chancellor Blake has been retained for nearly every case on the docket at the Spring Sittings of the Court of Chancery, now in session at Lindsay.

Mrs. Isaac Simpson and Miss Maud Simpson left to-day, and Mr. W. R. McRae and J. Minnes leave to-morrow, for England. They sail on the steamer "Parisian."

Mr. Gordon Brown sails on the steamship "Parisian" on Saturday, along with Sir John Macdonald. Mr. Wm. Houston will have editorial charge of the Globe during Mr. Brown's absence.

Mr. E. H. Dickson, M. A., barrister, is now in Pelican Rapids, Otter Tail county, Mich., and thinks of remaining there to practice his profession. The opening is considered an excellent one. We should be extremely sorry to lose a citizen of Mr. Dickson's popularity and standing, but at the same time must applaud any move which promises greater advancement in life.

A Peculiar Sale.

To-day a sale of a peculiar character, and the first in this city, took place. Some three months ago W. J. Burnup left at the American Hotel two horses, a pair of bob sleighs, and other articles, upon which the proprietor of the hotel held a lien for food and accommodation furnished to Burnup and his stock, and for money paid for him at his request. The lien amounted to $112.85. In accordance with a section in the revised statutes Mr. Beaupre sold the goods to cover his claim. The goods realized $118.20, but the expense of advertising, auctioning, etc., deducted, left the seller of them out of pocket some $18. The sale was well attended.

LOST AND FOUND.

A Bay City Policeman in Search of his Wife—Their Meeting, Reconciliation and Departure.

Yesterday the steamer "Maud" brought to the city a tall, muscular and rather good looking American named Jones. He communicated with the police without delay, stating that he was in search of his wife whom he had traced to Kingston. He still further intimated that he had been informed that his "better half" had been made acquainted, by letter, through a friend, with County Constable James McLaughlin, that he had written to her in a tender and charming manner, and that finally she had left Watertown (where she had resided); come to Kingston, been met at the wharf by McLaughlin and escorted—he did'nt know where, but he was bound to find out. His narrative was interesting, and the police officers undertook to do what they could to make his mission a success. Various inquiries were made and places visited, even Mr. McLaughlin was interviewed but without satisfactory results. McLaughlin denied that he had met the woman, that he knew anything about her, but candidly admitted that she and that in one epistle she had charged her recalcitrant husband with a series of irregularities, the repetition of which produced exciting effects upon Jones and led to a lively cross fire between the accused and accuser. The afternoon wore away without special incident. Jones felt dissappointed but hopeful. He said he was confident that his spouse was in the city, and that if she only knew of it such was her intense love that nothing could keep her from him. Little by little the facts leaked out. It seemed that about a year ago he left her; that he had gone to Bay City and there joined the police; that she had heard of his marriage and came to regard herself as "widowed" to all intents and purposes; and that she had set out for Kingston but a day or two before he returned to his old home for the purpose of again taking her under his special protection. Towards evening Sergeant Carson, in whom he confided most and who had been acting as guide for Jones in his learned that the woman was employed as a domestic in the Anglo American Hotel. It was ascertained from Mr. Fralick that on the previous day a new servant had been hired by him. She was summoned down stairs and met her husband in a friendly but by no means gushing way, but she manifested her willingness to accompany him back to Watertown or Bay City and Jones felt supremely happy. Subsequently McLoughlin, annoyed at the way in which his name was being connected with the case, had a close interview with Jones at an Ontario St. Hotel. It is said that when Jim entered the house he stated positively that he did not know Mrs. Jones. Her husband asked him to step into the dining room. As he did so he was confronted by the woman, who smilingly said, "Well, Jim, what are you doing around here?" Mr. Jones then addressed him, "I thought you said you did not know her." McLoughlin was dumbfounded.

A SCRIMMAGE ENSUED.

Jones made McLaughlin promise to leave the city or stand prosecution. McLaughlin, he said, promised to go. The police wanted Jones to lay a charge against McLaughlin, but the latter refused, saying he did not desire notoriety. Re-united man and wife were to leave for home this afternoon. Jones believes his wife is true to him.

The Chief stated that with regret he accepted the resignation, and on behalf of the citizens he thanked Mr. Asselstine for the valuable services rendered the city by him during the last three years. He wished him a happy and prosperous future.

Mr. John Orr was then elected Secretary for the remainder of the year.

Primitive Methodist Conference.

The twenty eighth annual meeting of the Primitive Methodist Church commences in this city next week. The preparatory meetings of the Ministerial Association and Finance and Stationing Committees will be held on Wednesday and Thursday. Conference opens on Friday morning, the Conference sermon being preached in the evening by Rev. W. Reid. On Saturday evening there will be a memorial service, and on Sunday sacramental service and love feast. The pulpits of the several city churches will be occupied by the members of Conference. On Monday evening there will be a meeting for the promotion of holiness, on Tuesday evening a missionary meeting, and on Wednesday evening an ordination service, the charge being delivered by Rev. W. S. Hughen. The sessions of the Conference day as well as evening, will be open to all, and all are invited to attend them.

C. M. Conference.

The Stationing Committee will assemble in the Napanee Church on Friday evening. On Sunday the different pulpits will be filled by the visiting clergymen. On Wednesday Conference opens, the educational meeting in the evening being addressed by several prominent speakers, including Prof. Shaw and Rev. J. M. Hagar. On Thursday evening the missionary meeting takes place, the addresses being by Dr. Douglass, Dr. Sutherland, and Rev. J. Allen, B.A. The reception of candidates is announced for the following Friday evening, Prof. Reyner, M.A., Rev. Dr. Elliott and Rev. W. Galbraith being the speakers. The theological meeting will be held on Saturday evening.

Many clergymen who were obliged to withdraw from the pulpit on account of "Clergyman's Sore Throat," have recovered by using Fellows' Syrup of Hypophosphites and are preaching again. This preparation seems peculiarly and wonderfully adapted to diseases of the breathing organs.

WAGES QUESTION.

The Sailors' Union and Calvin & Son's Engagement of Scotchmen.

The refusal of some thirty Scotchmen to man the Garden Island timber vessels for which they had been engaged in Scotland by an agent of Messrs. Calvin & Son, was a matter of no small moment. As the men crossed to the city they become objects of considerable interest, and were interviewed by many who felt concerned in regard to the issue. The men certainly signed a contract, but they now repudiate it on the ground that they did not have the situation explained to them fully and did not know of the differences which existed between Messrs. Calvin & Son and the Sailors' Union. Mr. Crowley wishes it to be distinctly understood that he did not induce the men to quit the vessels to which they were assigned, that he first knew of their presence when four of them walked into his office, and asked to be made members of the Union. He reasoned with them and told them that it would be better for them to fulfill their engagement, but they declined. He was asked to see the others, which he says he consented to do. He found them, not on the vessel, but on the wharf at Garden Island, and used no violent and intimidating language. What the Scotchmen did was purely on their own responsibility, and really contrary to his advice.

MEETING OF THE SAILORS.

Last evening a meeting of the Seamen's Union was held in their hall. There was a large attendance. The meeting was called for the purpose of considering the case of Calvin & Son, who had imported thirty men from Scotland for their vessels.

Mr. C. W. Crowley first addressed the meeting. He stated that Calvin & Son were willing to pay the men Union wages until they could have refunded to them the $1,700 expended in bringing the Scotchmen to Canada; this amount included a half month's wages paid in advance to them in Glasgow. The men, on the other hand, stated to him that they were shipped under false pretences, and when Calvins wanted sailors again they would have to go to China for them. The men had asked the agent employing them if there was a strike, and he told them there was a scarcity of men. This they had found not to be the case. He (Crowley) told the new arrivals that they could be arrested, as they had all signed articles on the vessels. He thought it would be wise at least to make the present trip. The Union, however, had gained a victory in securing for the imported Scotchmen the current wages.

A RESOLUTION PASSED.

It was unanimously moved and carried that a vote of thanks be tendered the Scotchmen for the manly way in which they upheld the cause of the Union, that when they were brought out to fill other men's places they quit work of their own accord.

During the evening Mr. Crowley received four messages for men to work on Calvin & Son's fleet.

LATER PROCEEDINGS.

The Garden Island fleet are now now shipping men at union rates. Two of the vessels have received the crews which handled them on their first trips of the season.

The Scotchmen have nearly all departed from the city. Some have gone to Cape Vincent, others to Toronto and the Welland Canal. Only eleven of them remained in the city at noon. It is possible that Mr. Calvin will lose the $1,700 which he expended in bringing the men out. The Union men contributed the sum of $57 towards the expenses of the departing seamen.

MORE ABOUT THE SCOTCHMEN.

There was considerable excitement at the office of the Sailors Union part of the day, but by two o'clock it had subsided. This afternoon eleven of the emigrants left for Cape Vincent. The names of some of the Scotchmen we append: George Robert True, John McLeod, Alex. McMillan, Peter Colquhoun, David McClure, John McCormick, James Martin, Wm. McIntosh, Duncan McFinnes, James Miller, Thos. McRae, James McNeil, Donald McDougall, Wm. McDonald, John Campbell, James McBride, Duncan Sinclair, Alex McGrigor, Geo. Caughie, Samuel Murray, Martin McLellan, John Kelly, Donald McJennis. In an interview with some of them they said that they were taken to Derry from Glasgow and thence by steamer to Montreal. They imagined they could make more in lake service than in sailing on the ocean, on which their wages ranged from $18 to $31 per month according to the length of the voyage. One of the Scotchmen shipped on the M. L. Breck bound for Fairport from Brockville with ore.
