Ayer's Hair Vigor,

FOR RESTORING GRAY HAIR

TO ITS NATURAL VITALITY AND COLOR.

Advancing years, sickness, care, disappointment, and hereditary predisposition all turn the hair gray, and either of them incline it to shed prematurely.

AYER'S HAIR VIGOR by long and extensive use, has proven that it stops the falling of the hair immediately; often renews the growth; and always surely restores its color, when faded or gray. It stimulates the nutritive organs to healthy activity, and preserves both the hair and its beauty. Thus brushy, weak or sickly hair becomes glossy, pliable and strengthened; lost hair regrows with lively expression; falling hair is checked and stabilished; thin hair thickens; and faded or gray hairs resume their original color. Its operation is sure and harmless. It cures dandruff, heals all humors, and keeps the scalp cool, clean and soft—under which conditions, disease of the scalp are impossible.

As a dressing for ladies' hair, the VIGOR is praised for its grateful and agreeable perfume, and valued for the soft lustre and richness of tone it imparts.

Lay not up for yourselves treasures upon earth, where moth and rust doth corrupt, and where thieves break through and steal; but lay up for yourselves treasures in heaven, where neither moth nor rust doth corrupt, and where thieves do not break through nor steal; for where thy treasure is, there will thy heart be also. The lamp of the body is the eye: if therefore thine eye be single, thy whole body shall be full of light. But if thine eye be evil, thy whole body shall be full of darkness. If therefore the light that is in thee be darkness, how great is the darkness!

No man can serve two masters; for either he will hate the one, and love the other; or else he will hold to one, and despise the other. Ye cannot serve God and mammon. Therefore I say unto you, Be not anxious for your life, what ye shall eat, or what ye shall drink; nor yet for your body, what ye shall put on. Is not the life more than the food, and the body than the raiment? Behold the birds of the heaven, that they sow not, neither do they reap, nor gather into barns; and your heavenly Father feedeth them. Are not ye of much more value than they? And which of you by being anxious can add one cubit unto his stature? And why are ye anxious concerning raiment? Consider the lilies of the field, how they grow; they toil not, neither do they spin; yet I say unto you, that even Solomon in all his glory was not arrayed like one of these. But if God doth so clothe the grass of the field, which to-day is, and to-morrow is cast into the oven, shall he not much more clothe you, O ye of little faith? Be not therefore anxious, saying, What shall we eat? or, What shall we drink? or, Wherewithal shall we be clothed? For after all these things do the Gentiles seek; for your heavenly Father knoweth that ye have need of all these things. But seek ye first his kingdom, and his righteousness; and all things shall be added unto you. Be not there fore anxious for the morrow; for the morrow will be anxious for itself. Sufficient unto the day is the evil thereof.

THE WRONG PULPIT.

A Minister's Mistake and the Pleasant Way in Which it was Regarded.

The Lindsay Post says that a singular and amusing mistake was made by a young Methodist clergyman not a hundred miles from Lindsay a few Sundays ago. He was delegated to relieve a brother clergyman in a neighbouring village, and never having been in the place before he had to make enquiries when he got there as the location of the parsonage. It was pointed out to him, and after putting up his horse in the stable he walked into the church next door, naturally thinking from its close proximity to the parsonage to be the church in which he was to preach. The congregation had nearly all assembled, and as the young divine walked up the aisle to the pulpit expressions of surprise were manifested on all sides that they were to have a strange minister in the pulpit without having heard anything about it, and many were the surmises as to who he was. But of course the clergyman could not read their thought and sent up his list of hymns to the choir in the usual way. Then he leaned back in his seat for a breathing spell before commencing the service. As he was taking his ease a clergyman entered the church and seeing a strange minister in the pulpit he quietly took a seat in a front pew to await developments. The new comer was unable to account for the stranger's presence, as it was unusual to have a visit of this kind without some notice being given. Presently the stranger took down the hymn book from the desk and turned up the page on which he expected to find a hymn he had selected, but was astonished to observe that the numbers did not correspond. He beckoned to the clergyman in the pew to come forward and asked, "is this the hymn book you use here?" "Certainly; that is a Bible Christian hymn book," was the reply. The young minister took in the situation at once; he had got into the wrong church. After making an explanation he grasped his hat and promptly walked out, and when he got to the right church he found the congregation waiting patiently for his appearance, when he gave them an eloquent and acceptable sermon.

Holloway's Pills.

PURE BLOOD.—When the blood is pure, its circulation perfect, and the nerves in good order, we are well. These pills possess a marvellous power in securing these great secrets of health by purifying, regulating, and strengthening fluids and solids. Holloway's Pills can be confidently recommended to all persons suffering from disordered digestion, or worried by nervous fancies, or neuralgic pains. They correct acidity and heartburn, dispel sick headache, quicken the action of the liver, and act as alteratives and gentle aperients. The weak and delicate may take them without fear. Holloway's Pills are eminently serviceable to invalids of irritable constitution, as they raise the action of every organ to its natural standard, and universally exercise a calming and sedative influence.

Procrastinate Not!

Procrastination is the thief of time! Do not put off till to-morrow what can be done to-day. To-day is ours, to-morrow, we know not what will come. Reader, are you suffering from dyspepsia, biliousness, jaundice, or liver complaint? If so, a safe and speedy cure is within your reach, and the fault is your own if you go on suffering. You never can be vigorous in body, and active in mind while the stomach is out of order. Baxter's Mandrake Bitters have been used by thousands, who have found them a certain cure. Procrastinate not, go to-day to your druggist, or store-keeper and purchase a bottle.

The Snow of Mount Blanc.

Is not whiter than teeth that are daily rubbed with Sozodont, and coral gathered in ocean depths, cannot surpass the hue of gums freed from sponginess by the same salutary agent. American ladies visiting foreign lands, excite the admiration of beholders and the envy of their transatlantic sisters, with the surprising excellence of their teeth. When asked to what they owe this charm, they murmur the talismanic word Sozodont!

He Did.

Job went pretty heavily into the boil business, and the venture was a complete success. This reminds us that PUTNAM'S PAINLESS CORN EXTRACTOR is another success, and that it gives more comfort to the world than Job's boils did. Remember the name, then, for the little playful corn cometh, and the remedy therefor will gladden the heart. Positively sold by all druggists in Canada, and by J. Geo. King, Heath & Gunn, and by N. C. Polson & Co., agents for Ontario.

Loss of Appetite.

Whether from bile, colds or any other cause, the appetite begins to fail, the system commences at once to give way. If we would avoid a bed of sickness, we must cleanse and restore the digestive organs with HERRICK'S SUGAR-COATED VEGETABLE PILLS.

PREPARE FOR SPRING.—After a long, severe winter the system needs cleansing of impurities. Nature must be assisted to recuperate, the liver must be made to act, all surplus bile and impurities carried off. Zoress, from Brazil, acts as a gentle purgative. It is just introduced into this country. The remarkable results of a few doses is most surprising. Ask Heath & Gunn or Henry Wade for a 10 cent sample, and try Zoress, the most powerful remedy for Dyspepsia, Indigestion, Constipation and Biliousness ever introduced in this country.

BIGAMY—MURDER.

Money the Root of all Evil Spurring From the Foulest Depths.

The body of the woman found murdered in the woods at Guttenberg, has been identified as that of Mena Muller, alias Schmidt, alias Kettler. The man who is suspected of having murdered her is a bricklayer or a butcher, Louis Kettler. On May 2nd, the woman sold her household goods and prepared to sail for Europe in the steamer Amerique, of the French line. On Tuesday morning, the 3rd inst., she and Kettler crossed the Christopher street ferry to Hoboken and went up into North Hudson county. At the house of the Rev. Dr. Malson, of the Grove Reformed Church at Union Hill, they were married, she giving her name as Mena Schmidt, which was her maiden name. Thence they went to Mrs. Ganet Finck's saloon on Pierce avenue, west New York. She was not seen again till

HER BODY WAS FOUND.

Tuesday evening. Kettler returned to the hotel in Christopher street without the woman, and the next morning had the trunks removed to the steamship wharf. He is believed to have sailed on the "Amerique." An examination of the passenger lists of the steamer at the company's office in Bowling Green failed to reveal his name. District Attorney McGill, of Hudson county, sent a despatch by cable at once to Havre, ordering the arrest of the man on the arrival of the vessel. The "Amerique" arrived on Sunday night. Rev. Dr. Mabon said that he had married a couple on that day. He produced the record of the marriage on the church register. It read as follows: "On Tuesday, May 3rd, 1881, Louis Kettler, single, aged thirty-three, bricklayer by occupation, residence No. 1,511 Second avenue, New York, married to Mena Schmidt, single, aged thirty-four, residence 1,247 Third avenue, New York. Father of bridegroom, Louis Kettler. Father of bride, Anastasia Schmidt. Both of the contracting parties were born in Katewhein, Germany."

OBJECT OF THE MURDER.

Robbery, it is thought, prompted the murder. Mr. Muller said that his wife had between $800 and $1,000 saved. She also told Mr. Hahn that she had property at Mulhausen. The money is supposed to have been in her trunk, although it may have been in the purse she carried into North Hudson county on the day of the murder. She is known to have had with her $35 she received for a month's work at Mr. Hahn's. Neither money nor pocket book has been found. Muller says that his wife also had a gold watch and chain which had not been recovered. He had been married to the woman for six years. A year ago he left her.

It's Just A Booming

Such is the expression from all druggists and dealers everywhere who are selling DR. KING'S NEW DISCOVERY for consumption. No like preparation can begin to have such an extensive and rapid sale. And why? Simply because of its wonderful merits No cough or cold, no matter of how long standing or how stubborn, can resist it healing qualities. Asthma, bronchitis, hoarseness, hay fever, pain in the side or chest and difficulty of breathing or any lingering disease of the throat and lungs rapidly yield to its marvelous powers. It will "positively cure" and that where everything else has failed. Satisfy yourself as thousands have already done by getting of your druggists a trial bottle for ten cents, or a regular size bottle for $1. For sale by all druggists.

BUCKLEN'S ARNICA SALVE.—The best salve in the world for cuts, bruises, sores, ulcers, salt rheum, fever sores, tetter, chapped hands, chilblains, corns, and all kinds of skin eruptions. This salve is guaranteed to give perfect satisfaction in every case or money refunded. Price 25 cents per box For sale by all druggists.

Many clergymen who were obliged to withdraw from the pulpit on account of "Clergyman's Sore Throat," have recovered by using Fellows' Syrup of Hypophosphites and are preaching again. This preparation seems peculiarly and wonderfully adapted to diseases of the breathing organs.

FOR KIDNEY COMPLAINTS.—Take a teaspoonful of Perry Davis' Pain-Killer in a gill of milk and syrup, equal parts, three times a day, bathing the body freely with the medicine whenever you feel distressed.

WANTED.—A Man and a good team of horses wanted on a bush farm. A good chance will be given. Work can be had from one year to another. Apply to William David, broker, Princess Street, Kingston.

KEYS LOST.—All persons wanting keys and locks can be supplied by William David, Broker, Princess Street, opposite Parkhill's Store. He has hundreds of keys on hand.

A great smash down on watch crystals at the store of Wm. David, broker. He will supply the public with watch crystals at 10 cents each.
