NOTES BY THE WAY.

That the flies have become an insufferable nuisance. That the Deputy City Clerk is seeking a cool spot in Belleville.

That when the present crop passes bicycles will be very cheap. That the four brightest planets are now visible at our western sky.

That the formation of a wrecking company, with several stations on the lake, is under consideration. That the exodus from Kingston to the camp ground this season has not been so great as that of last year.

That there were six and eight in the Opera House last evening, especially among the fat people. That last night, it is said, will not bear the test of hot weather.

That the chap who took off their coats in the gallery of the theatre last evening had more consideration for comfort than for style. That the Alhambra may on Monday evening try the temperature of the Council Chamber.

That in the masonic returns, published in connection with the annual meeting of the Grand Lodge, the benevolence of the Kingston brethren was shown to be unsurpassed. That the controversy over the Orange demonstration and the police is likely to lead to a duel.

WIND WAFTS.

From Various Sources and on a Variety of Minor Themes. Good catches of fish are reported from Sharbott Lake.

One dollar bill, raised to four, has been passed upon the Customs of Gannaque.

The Napanee Telegram, the revived name of the Express, was issued yesterday by the proprietor, Mr. M. W. O'Beirne.

There are two centenarians in Tyndinaga, Mrs. Frank English, age 101, and Mrs. Lucas, who was 100 years old last December.

Twenty-five cars of sugar were shipped from Halifax yesterday, over the Intercolonial, to Kingston, Toronto and Hamilton.

A roll of cloth, bought at Walsh & Steacy's store, still lies unclaimed at the Post office.

The Post Office Department has advertised tenders for carrying a mail every Saturday, between Gannaque and Sealey's Bay.

The Intelligence urges the capitalists of Belleville to start iron ship building before "Kingston or some other enterprising place" gets ahead of it.

At a recent session of the Perth Teachers' Association a Stratford exchange says Mr. S. Woods gave a splendid address on Canadian History.

Mr. R. Cornett, who represents the Kingston district for the firm of A. Hodgson & Co., has purchased and shipped, during the past week, over 1,700 cheeses, valued at $10,000.

Hon. John O'Connor is seriously disposed. Rev. A. Spencer, Clerical Secretary, will preach in All Saints' Church tomorrow evening.

Rev. Father Stafford's health has been greatly improved by his trip to the Old Country. Hon. Mr. Mowat sails for home on August 11th.

Rev. Principal Grant will spend a few days in the vicinity of Goderich, an agreeable summer resort. The action of the American and Canadian officials, in enforcing the steamboat regulations, is giving general satisfaction.

After an absence of two Sabbaths Rev. C. A. Cook will preach in the Baptist Church to-morrow morning and evening. Rev. Dr. Ryckman, of Brantford, formerly of Kingston, leaves next week for London, there to attend, as a delegate from Canada, the great Ecumenical Council of Methodists.

Mr. C. F. Giderslewe writes to the Mail correcting the statement that the Norseman was responsible for mismanagement in Toronto harbor, leading almost to a collision. It is said that Lieut. Colonel Worsley, formerly of the Kingston District, who was moved to Montreal when the general changes round took place, some time ago, is about to resume his old position.

Something Widened. Elizabeth Aubin appeared in the Police Court this morning, charged with drunkenness, which she admitted without equivocation. She was also charged with breaking the windows of the house occupied by Mrs. Dine, a neighbor. Mrs. Aubin admitted breaking the front window. Ida Bly, a boarder of Mrs. Dine's, gave her testimony, alleging that the "letting in of the panes" originated in a child's quarrel. The entire sash of one window was knocked out. Several panes in the rear windows were broken. Mrs. Aubin was questioned as to what prompted her to commit these illegal acts. She stated that she was angry and used abusive language towards Mrs. Dine, and an adjournment was made until Monday, bail being refused.

Open Air Meeting in the park to-morrow afternoon at 4.15 o'clock. Address by Rev. Joseph Young, Rev. R. Mackay and others.

Reminders to pay your water rate and save the discount.

A GIBBY MASQUERADE.

There was much debate in public this morning when the report went forth that a young woman had been arrested for drunkenness and masquerading on the streets last night.

When the present crop passes bicycles will be very cheap. That the four brightest planets are now visible at our western sky.
