THE LAST DAYS

INTERESTING OBSERVATIONS BY THE REV. E. B. SMITH, OF CONNECTICUT.

Mission of the Apostles. Serious Tribulations Pending. General Decay. See a Ministry of Some Sort.

Rev. E. B. Smith's discourse last evening in the Catholic Apostolic Church was devoted to the purpose which God had in view in the prolonging tribulations of the Church. God is a God of mercy, and takes no delight in afflictions of children of men, especially ones of those who are His people. His Church. Were the baptised in those relations to their Lord which he established at the first, tribulations would not be possible. As those who have been baptised belong to Christ, He is His property, it is His interest to His heart to bring them into full obedience to Him. The baptised may be viewed as God's property. Those who are truly children of the Lord will be known as such by man's knowledge and when no minister or officer has the right or power to point out to those who are building with hay and wood and stubble, but yet are true disciples of Christ, who will suffer the loss of their works by being burned up before so low by fire, on those who are obviously led to lay hold upon the high way going forth in the interest of the whole Church but primarily in their own interest. Those they to whom the Apostle may be said to have in mind by the words, And the very God of peace sanctify wholly and purify my spirit and soul and body by His own baptism. "Counteracting the Possum" is a very pointed cartoon, meaning more than many words.
