CITY AND VICINITY.

REARER SHEDDING SALES.—Shedded fresh leathers, shagreened ribbons, received today at S. Burgess & Son's.

PEAS.—Fresh to string, western to north westerly, winds fair, slightly cooler weather, with light showers.

PROTESTANT VISIT.—Bishop Lewis is returning to his visit in England, and is not expected in Ottawa till October. In consequence of which the annual meeting of the Synod will probably be held in November.

A NARROW ESCAPE.—Captain Davis of the Island, captured in a small sail boat and narrowly escaped drowning. He was rescued by Mr. Cook, engineer of the Lily Nicholson, a camping party being afraid to venture out.

SCHOOL BOARD.—On Thursday evening a meeting of the School Board was called, but a quorum of members did not attend. Those present at 8 o'clock were the Chairman and Messrs. Anglin and Walker. There was important business transacted.

VESSEL INSURANCE CASE.—Capt. Carson in the city. He takes Mr. Geo. Ledford with him to Buffalo to make the necessary declarations regarding the loss of his vessel, over the insurance of which there is a difficulty. Mr. John Ledford will also go to Buffalo.

PROTESTANT ASSOCIATION.—Yesterday Capt. Gaskin, President of the Protestant Protective Association, took his colleagues and friends on the tug "Active" to the foot of Wolfe Island, where they picniced. The start was made about 9 a.m., and the return about dusk.

FAMILIES' ATTENTION.—For all that is nice and fresh in butter, cheese, hams, eggs, flour, oatmeal, corn meal, hominy, bacon, sausage, coffee (ground every morning), new teas, (full of aroma and fragrance), ale and porter, plain soda and ginger ale, go to the Golden Lion Grocery.

SMALL FIRE YESTERDAY.—About 1 o'clock yesterday morning a fire occurred on Queen street, in the rear of Mr. Owen Tierney's residence. Some of the children appear to have been playing in the stable and accidentally set it on fire. The horse fortunately was down the city. The loss will be about $100.

A WAGON ON FIRE.—On Wednesday a pollard's wagon was proceeding down a hill near St. Andrew's, a fire occurred among a bundle of rags constituting part of the load. The driver of the vehicle had the boots, or informant states, burned off his feet. Fifty pairs of socks were destroyed and a quantity of eggs.

INCREASED RAILWAY TRAVEL.—The cheap fares between the seaboard and Chicago, brought on by the railway war, have so increased the through travel on the Grand Trunk that the express trains have frequently to be divided into two sections, one following close upon the other. Six Pullman cars are to be seen occasionally on one train.

A BAIT LONG ENOUGH.—Warden Dawson was in the city today. He wished to know if the city had accepted the county's offer in reference to the maintenance of the city's prisoners in goal. He found that it had not and consequently withdrew it. "I cannot offer the bait any longer when the city won't bite," remarked the Warden to a Wino reporter.

A COMING MATCH.—At a meeting of the Onondaga Cricket Club arrangements were made to play a match at Kingston on the 24th. The party will consist of the following players: C. H. Millward, C. B. Fayette, J. B. Bullard, W. Coppins, A. J. Garrett, S. P. Bullard, W. H. Dunlop, T. Newick, F. L. Davis, J. T. Kirk, J. D. Gray, A. Moore, G. Pycroft, J. Flint, E. J. Ballard.

A REMARKABLE COINCIDENCE.—Thirteen months ago a young man named Albert Arkas, of Onondaga, was shot on the water one night in mistake for a deer which was thought to be swimming. The wound has been similar to that of President Garfield. A few days ago Arkas was on horseback from his home to Onondaga, a distance of four miles. He now poses a crutch to get around with, though he lay for nine months a great sufferer. The bullet came away of itself.

WIFE IS KISSING.—The widow of the man Wetherall, killed in Ottawa on Wednesday, states that she knew him only by that name. A near neighbor tells that the deceased said he had a wife in Kingston and some children, but owing to his improper conduct he was divorced from her, and that he would not have married again but that his daughter would not come to keep house for him, but preferred to live with her mother. The Globe has also said that he had another wife from whom he was divorced in Racine, Wisconsin.

TEACHERS' EXAMINATION.—The Globe of yesterday published the numbers of those who have passed the recent Intermediate examination. We cannot supply the names in consequence of the misplacement of the list and the inability of any one to find it in the illness of Mr. Kidd, but the following we know to have passed: Nos. 3,000, 3,007, 3,008, 3,009, 3,010, 3,011, 3,012, 3,013, 3,014, 3,015, 3,016, 3,017, 3,018, 3,019, 3,020, 3,021, 3,022, 3,023, 3,024, 3,025, 3,026, 3,027, 3,028, 3,029, 3,030, 3,031, 3,032, 3,033, 3,034, FIREMEN'S ENQUIRY.

Yesterdays afternoon William Crippie nearly drowned, and as a result of his own foolishness. (Crippie's story first seen by us was the result of a visit to a society group, whose object is to attract some of the "fancy" attracted our attention. The hour, of which we have now written, with some kind of high, with less long and more common sense, was declining in summer, which, at once settled, beyond a doubt, the idea of his society. Subsequently, he recklessly challenged any man on the field to compete with him, for sums ranging from $10 to $1000, in a series of feats, the absurdity of which would not for a moment question. He could not get a taker, and annoyed by all eyes because no one left to take his place, he spoke to his wife and she thought it best to place upon the opposite shore (Wolfe Island) his boat, which was about to be taken. And so he unceremoniously placed William in a row boat, and ferried him across the light, some time after, as the press men were being taken out on the steam yacht "Stella" for a run, on the course to be pulled over by members of the rowing club, the captain was informed that a skull had upset, and that a man was sinking. The yacht was speedily run over to the black object, which was seen floating in the water, when, lo! the reporters discovered the hero, William, who had foolishly stripped, put his clothing on the end of a plank, and essayed to swim the channel. He was holed and appeared to be safe enough at first, but a moment's observation served to satisfy the yachtmen that he would be drowned if not rescued at once. With some difficulty he was washed out, exhausted but still talkative, and later on sent back to Wolfe Island. When last seen he had reappeared on the pier, ground, in a farmer's harvest suit, and wanted to be $10 that there was a man on Simcoe Island who could perform as he had done. And verily there wasn't one to take him up.

REARER'S COMPLAINTS.

S. Lee, Henry Hunter, Henry Harold, John McEaster, Cooper Lennox, and Andrew Knapp had simply signed the paper for the purpose, they said, of ascertaining the reason for disbandment and reorganization. They had no complaint to make against the chief. There was a little objection to the inner workings of the brigade, otherwise everything was all right.

John Hunt had been told that another man would be elected to their place, which he considered unjust, as the present members had always worked properly under the rules and regulations of the department. With the other working of the company he was pleased, but as to the inside affairs there was some complaint. He was not elected by the men, but by the officers and officers alike, excepting the Chairman, Chief Horsey always claiming that position. He held that the Chief Engineer should not rule in the meetings, but simply attend for the purpose of giving advice, as an attorney on a court case. John Newton declared that Mr. Leonard and Mr. Yoniden be admitted. A objection was offered.

William Bassam expressed his surprise at finding his name appended to the petition. He had no complaint to make. Since his acceptance of the position of fireman he had always endeavored to make friends not enemies. He had been treated uprightly by the Chief and every member of the brigade. (Several members here rose and expressed their regret that they had never witnessed such disorder as had occurred at the meeting of a week previous.)

Chief Horsey then spoke. He was frequently interrupted, and at times there were so many talking that he had to raise his voice to be heard. He said that he had never witnessed such disorder as had occurred at the meeting of a week previous. He said that he had never witnessed such disorder as had occurred at the meeting of a week previous.

REARER'S COMPLAINTS.

On Thursday evening a meeting of the directors of the Kingston Cotton Mill and was held in the present office of the Secretary. At it a letter was read from Mr. John Brecken, tendering his resignation as a member of the Board. It was accepted. It appears that inadvertently Mr. Brecken omitted to pay one instalment of stock, due prior to the general meeting of the shareholders, and that his selection for the position, contrary to one clause of the charter which says "no person shall be elected or appointed as a director, unless he is a shareholder, owning stock absolutely in his own right, and not in arrears in any respect of any call thereon." The Board's authority for re-appointing him, on motion of Mr. J. B. Carruthers, seconded by J. Minnes, is embraced in the following paragraph of the letters patent: "Vacancies occurring in the Board of Directors may be filled for the expired remainder of the term by the Board from among the qualified shareholders of the company." Mr. Brecken being qualified was unanimously re-elected. He had not voted at the Board so that the informality of his election did not affect the business of the Company since the meeting of the shareholders.

Mr. Minnes is Vice-President, having been elevated to that position on his return from England.

It has been decided to build the dust flue outside instead of inside the mill, saving a space of eight feet square in each story.

Of the calls already made there is an unpaid balance of $1,800, which should be tendered at once in order that the Secretary-Treasurer may close up the stock accounts. Another call of 10 per cent. has been made payable on the 24th of the present month.

Custodian of Expresses.

A petition has been presented to the Repeal of the Township of Pittsburg requesting him to call a meeting of the people of the municipality for the purpose of proceeding to an expression of their opinion, more particularly in reference to the large and unnecessary expense connected with the selection of jurors.

AN ACCUSATION AND A DENIAL.

After a few observations Chief Horsey returned to the circumstances of the late meeting, and charged Mr. Elmer with addressing improper language to him while in the chair.

Mr. Elmer positively denied the imputation. The scene here was really interesting. The reporters were asked to smooth matters over, but a number of the men objected, one claiming that as the Wino had made the matter public, and as a Wino what he nearly every body in the city, the investigation should be published.

Chief Horsey denied having ridiculed Mr. Harry Yoniden at a recent meeting.

DISSEMINATION OF BEER.

Another discussion ensued between Mr. Yoniden and Chief Horsey regarding the turning of the engine house into a lager beer saloon. Mr. Yoniden had been reported to have introduced the subject of the subject at the meeting, and that he had been removed from the room of drunken men that invaded the room was awful. Other members here made interruptions, some objecting to the introduction of the subject in business in the department. He wanted to learn first business.

The Chief concluded his remarks by stating that after the recent regular meeting he had asked for the disbandment of the brigade. He compared the present state of affairs to a Canadian thistle. The sooner the latter were plucked out the better. He didn't know whether he would stay himself, he would not under any circumstances remain if the disorderly conduct of certain members was repeated.
