Damaged Grain.

This morning the schr. W. J. Prestor arrived from Chicago, laden with 16. 500 bushels of corn. She was at once placed alongside an elevator to be dis charged. After, 12,000 bushels had been slevated it was found that the balance. 4,500 bushels, was damaged and unfitted to be classed as good and wholesome. The captain alleges that the damage was caused by a stress of weather. After leaving Chicago he passed through a severe gale and the schooner was at once headed for Milwaukee. Before reaching there she shipped a good deal of water and was in danger of sinking. The captain will probably enter a protest and have a survey.
