"Unifer per Orbem Libre."

A befitting recognition of the successes the able and eloquent Liberal leader has achieved in the Maritime Provinces is being planned by the Liberals of Quebec. A grand demonstration of welcome will greet his return to Quebec city and doubtless other places in the sister province will follow suit in doing him honour. This worthy example should be emulated by the people of Ontario, who have special reason to be proud of and to repose hope and confidence in Hon. Edward Blake. It is not true in his case that a prophet is without honour in his own country. No public man in Canada stands so high today in the esteem of his fellow countrymen, and of none is this more true than of the people of his native province. He is sure of an overwhelming majority from Ontario at next election and as goes Ontario so goes the Dominion.

It will be refreshing to quote anything from Mr. Snowball in weather such as we are now enduring, and certainly nothing could possibly be more timely than the speech he delivered at the recent Blake meeting at Newcastle, N.B. Mr. Snowball is M.P. for his county, having beaten Hon. Peter Mitchell, a member of the Pacific Scandal Cabinet. The Hon. gentleman, in a brief but trenchant speech, preceding that of Mr. Blake's, exposed the fallacies of the national policy. Among the worst of these he pointed out the fact of its certainty to build up the prosperity of the few at the expense of the masses of the people, and showed that although men might get a little more wages than formerly yet that they could not make their earnings go nearly so far because of the oppressive taxation. This is a feature of the case that will not be lost sight of by the workingmen of Canada at the next general election.

Sir Hector Langevin has been having a good time visiting Carling's brewery and sampling his beer. He has enjoyed it very much we mean his visit to London. It is not recorded of his inspection of the brewery that he declared himself delighted with the "hum" of the place and that he wished it continued and increased prosperity. No member of the present ministry has got the compliment and encouragement of the brewery business down so fine as that veteran son of temperance Ex-Most Worthy Patriarch Sir Samuel Tilley. "O what must it be to be there" may have been his aspiration and ejaculation when he saw that Sir Hector had been "doing" the breweries of London. Had he but been along he would have been able to repeat the compliment he so neatly paid the Halifax brewers and the Prince Edward Co. malsters, who will all vote for Tilley as their patron saint.

We are afraid the aquatic glory will depart from the Queen City with the retirement of Hanlan from the oar. Some of his reasons for backing down so suddenly from the sphere of sport that gave him fame will hardly hold water. The 'business' alternative may be a solid reason for ultimate or even early retirement, but he has been in business ever since his hotel was finished and the necessity of undivided attention to it was just as strong two or three months ago as now, and yet he allowed the Regatta Committee to publish his name at the head of the list of oarsmen who were to make the exhibition week an attraction to visitors from all parts of the country. The real truth of the matter would seem to be that Hanlan has neglected preparation and is not now in a condition to row, and that fearing from this reason a repetition of the Barrie disaster he has suddenly resolved not only not to row in this regatta but to retire from professional rowing altogether.

The Liberals of Kingston should make a note of the proceedings of their brethren in Napanee and go and do likewise. The Reformers of Lennox are determined not to be caught napping as they were in 1878, but on the contrary to leave no stone unturned to secure success for 1882, hence they have taken time by the forelock in the matter of organization with reference to both the Provincial and Dominion elections. To the lack of this very thing, while their opponents were busy as beavers and unscrupulous in the employment of contraband political weapons, the loss of Lennox at last election was directly traceable, but there is no danger of any such thing at next election for which the Liberals will be fully prepared. We see it stated that Mr. E. Hooper, the defaulting M. P. for the county, is going to live for the future in Southern Manitoba. His self expatriation from the county will save the electors the necessity of administering the grand bounce to him.

The removal of the President from the White House to Long Branch is a very important epoch in the case, and the fact that, although so prostrated, the patient has so far survived the ordeal without any apparent relapse is a matter of great and general gratification. The removal, we may be sure, had become a matter of dire necessity or it would not have been resorted to at this late stage of the case and with the President in such a palpably debilitated condition. Of course it is a pity it was not done before, but the doctors were naturally enough too reluctant to incur the undoubted risk of it until the case became so urgent as to demand removal from the malarial atmosphere with which the Presidential mansion is surrounded and permeated. Although tenaciously clinging to the hope of his recovery the public feeling is by no means buoyant as to the prospects, and the Governor of Pennsylvania has made an exhibition of himself by appointing yesterday as a day of thanksgiving for the restoration of the President to health and strength. The present low condition of the President is a grim commentary on such foolishly premature congratulations.

DIOCESAN MEETINGS.

Proceedings of the Several Committees in Session Yesterday: Financial Questions Discussed—Lain Secretary's Accounts.

The regular meetings of the Committees of the Diocese of Ontario have been in session this week. Owing, no doubt, to the extreme heat of the weather the attendance does not seem to have been as large as is usual.

FOREIGN MISSION COMMITTEE.

The meeting of the Foreign Mission Committee took place on Tuesday evening. The report of the Treasurer was presented, shewing the receipt from parishes; since May 1st of the sum of $421, of which amount $339 has been remitted to the Algoma Diocesan Fund, and the sum of $73 to the Indian Homes. An animated discussion took place as to the best method of advancing the work of the committee. The Secretary was authorized to publish a statement of receipts, accompanied by an appeal for systematic assistance.

MEETING OF MISSION BOARD.

This committee met on Wednesday morning. The chair was taken by Archdeacon Lauder. After prayer and the reading of the minutes of last meeting the report of the Clerical Secretary was read. The financial report was regarded as satisfactory, showing a gratifying increase in most of the sources of income. This was the more pleasing in view of the difficulties of a financial character with which the Board has had of late to contend. The balance due the Bank of Montreal was reported as having been reduced on September 1st to the sum of $3,340 against $4,030 at the same date last year.

A long discussion was entered upon in reference to a motion appearing on the minutes of last meeting expressing satisfaction that no less had occurred in connection with the Mission Fund through the late Clerical Secretary. It was contended that such satisfaction was hardly justified, as the last balance against the late Secretary must be debited with whatever amount the Mission Fund is credited. After a lengthy consideration of correspondence the Board adjourned.

BOOK AND TRACT COMMITTEE.

At 7:30 o'clock the Book and Tract Committee held a meeting in St. George's Hall. Rev. Canon Mulock, Chairman; Rev. F. W. Kirkpatrick, Secretary.

The manager of the repository presented his report for the year ending May 1st. The receipts were shown to be $747.20, the disbursements $742.30, leaving a balance of $4.90. For the past four months the income was shewn to be $270.61, the balance being $81.08, the capital amount was shewn to be $2,374.96. It may be added that the receipts during the four months have been $14 in excess of the income at a similar date last year, and had the Synod met the results would have been more satisfactory. The reports were received and adopted.

MIDLAND CENTRAL FAIR.

Directors and Canvassers at Work—"Success" the Motto of All—Number of Special Prizes Offered.

The dates for the Midland Central Fair are near at hand and to make it successful and interesting considerable labor devolves upon the Directors and officers of the association. The time selected for the holding of the exhibition this year is earlier than hitherto, and for this reason the appointment suits the people better although during the same week other exhibitions will be held. Last year cold weather had a damaging effect upon the show, but good weather is hoped for. The way in which the entries are beginning to flow in indicates the interest of the people. The prizes offered are liberal and worthy of being competed for. One is surprised to find so many special prizes offered by Kingstonians, especially in the stock department. To-day a meeting of the collectors of the Midland Fair was held and they will at once begin canvassing for subscriptions towards the funds of association.

The exhibition buildings have been placed in good condition. The repairs have all been made, and a fine horse ring has been laid out. The prospects for an excellent show are good, and if everything works well there will be no fear of the consequences.

A prominent feature of the week will be a dog show. The place selected for it is in the north end of the Mechanics' Hall. Numerous entries have already been made. The prizes offered are not very liberal, but then the experiment is new. Time will have to be allowed before such prizes as the association would wish can be given. Forty different classes of dogs will be shown.

Another, and probably the chief attraction of the week, will be the baloon ascension on Thursday, Sept. 22nd, at 3 p.m. Prof. Carl Myers, of Mohawk, N.Y., has been engaged. The large baloon "Carlotta" will be inflated with hydrogen gas in the presence of the people.

The Present Calamities.

To the Editor of the British Whig.

SIR,—The terribly destructive fires which have been ravaging the country should at least have the effect of calling forth the sympathy and generosity of those who have escaped anything more than temporary inconvenience. Each vicinity should do something for the necessities of those who have incurred such heavy losses, in not a few cases losing their all. If those who have sustained loss, would agree to spare a little of their substance to help those who are totally or well nigh ruined, would lift them out of despondency and destitution, and help those to recover themselves in this emergency. Let Kingston do as well as it did on former occasions. If a local Treasurer is appointed many, I am sure, would gladly send what they can spare. Yours, &c.,

FRATERNITY.

Sept. 8th.

IMMIGRANT LABOURERS.—Another lot thirty labourers arrived at Napanee this morning. They are engaged to work on the Napanee, Tamworth and Quebec Railway, and were taken on by teams to Enterprise, where they will be set at work. The English emigrants as a rule have given poor satisfaction on the road and the company are engaging a different class of men for the future.

ROWING REGATTA.

Race Postponed Until To-day—Hanlan's Conduct Severely Criticised by the Press.

Toronto, Sept. 7.—The rowing races to-day were postponed until to-morrow, when the first event of the day will be the single scull race, which will be rowed in three heats as follows:

First heat—Smith, Wise, McKay, Plaisted, Hosmer, Ten Eyck, Ross.

Second heat—McDonald, Riley, Brickland, Trickett, Elliot, Wiesberger, Conley, Courtney.

Third heat—Gaudaur, Hanlan, Berbank, Boli, Lee, Fleming, Hamm, Nagle.

There are some of the above besides Hanlan who will probably not start.

The other event of the afternoon will be the four-oared race, for which the following crews have entered: Celtic No. 1, Buffalo; Pittsburg; Nagle Lee; Toronto; Queen City; Nova Scotia; Celtic No. 2, Buffalo.

BETTING ON SINGLE SCULLS

Bookmaking was opened by Messrs. Forbes and Burgess at the following rates, and at the close of the evening the following were the quotations: 7 to 10 against Wallace Ross; 12 to 10 against Trickett; 20 to 6 against Courtney; 25 to 5 against Hosmer; 25 to 5 against Gaudaur; 35 to 5 against Warren Smith; 3 to 1 against Riley; 7 to 1 against Lee; 8 to 1 against Conley; 8 to 1 against McKay; 9 to 1 against any of the others.

TORONTO PRESS CRITICISMS.

The Mail discussing Hanlan's action says: "The public were all along led to expect Hanlan to row—his own fellow-citizens wanted to see him, thousands have come from various distances to see him, and they will all be disappointed. Hanlan—either of his own will or at the persuasion of others, allowed his name to be announced as one of the competitors; having once done that he was honorably committed to come to the scratch, whether he lost or won. His mistake, if he had no intention of rowing was in allowing his name to be entered at all, or, if he afterwards determined on retiring, in not doing so until the last moment. His motive may be the best, but his action in itself looks cowardly and base. To clear himself, Hanlan should do two things. He should first attempt to satisfy the public by at least giving an exhibition of his powers apart from the races for which he was entered; then before retiring from the aquatic arena altogether, as he states it his present intention to do, he should announce himself open to one more challenge, either from the single scull winner in this regatta, or anybody else who might wish to meet him. Then he might retire with honor."

EFFECTS OF JUNKETING.

The Globe says Hanlan's steps "by no means unexpected, as the champion was known to the connoscenti for some days past not to be fit. Whether he should have contrived to get himself fit for this regatta or not is a question best answered by himself, but finding that he was not up to the mark it was only right that he should retire, and not afford simple people an opportunity of laying money on him. The only thing in the matter to be regretted is the excuse Hanlan gives for retiring—namely, that his hotel requires his attention. If he had said out fairly and squarely that he has been knocking about too much this summer, hippodroming to any extent, and content to show himself in public to any excursion, or at any out of the way place that would give the required dollar, and thus got himself out of condition, he would have spoken the truth, and might have commanded some respect, even though by thus doing he had lowered the dignity of the title of champion of the world. There were days long ago when such men as Clasper, Messenger, Chambers and Kelly held the championship, and were proud of the honour and ready to defend it for what is now a mere song, content if they gained an honest livelihood without grasping; but those days are past, and a champion must now be ready to sacrifice his real rowing qualities to pander to the satiated tastes of would be sportsmen by a series of aquatic antics."

RAILWAY WAR.

The Trunk Lines Jarring and Cutting Rates—Immense Reductions.

Chicago, Sept. 8.—The Pennsylvania, Baltimore and Ohio, and Grand Trunk Railways yesterday met a heavy cut by Vanderbilt's lines. The Pennsylvania road made the cut to New York and Boston. The Baltimore and Ohio and Grand Trunk announce that with to-day that make a $5 rate to Buffalo and New York and a $1 rate to New York by the Erie from Buffalo or to Boston. They sell a ticket to Boston and return good for 5 days for $10. It is stated that the Grand Trunk, in retaliation, will transfer the Montreal line of Pullman cars from the Michigan Central to the Grand Trunk. The action of Vanderbilt's lines also invites retaliation from the Erie as the former's rebate tickets to New York are good only by way of the New York Central. It is expected that the Erie will go into partnership with the Grand Trunk. Local rates to-day will be strengthened in many points. The Pennsylvania company is the subject of the arbitrary rate of $5.75 between New York and Boston. The adoption of the $6 rate from Chicago to Boston will leave it but 25 cents for carrying the passengers from Chicago to New York.

INDUSERIAL EXHIBITION.

Fairly Open To-day — Visit of Mayors—Prominent Attractions.

Toronto, Sept. 8.—The weather this morning is delightfully cool and from an early hour the grounds and buildings have been thronged with visitors. The visiting Mayors are making their official inspection. To-day the various departments of the exhibition may now be said to be fairly open and the many improvements and new features are easily noticed. The main building is more tastefully arranged and there seems to be a greater variety of exhibits than formerly. The large organ is missed from its place on the upper gallery, but the large display of instruments on the lower floor furnishes a continuous supply of music. Among the outside Corderay's great electric clocks supercedes the glass hen, the silk and ribbon factories, the honey and apiary supplies buildings, and the cheese factory and creameries are new features of interest. The judges are hard at work and already awards have been made in many of the departments. Horticulturists are busy arranging their displays, which will equal those of last year.

"A SOUND MIND IN A HEALTHY BODY"—The old Roman idea of the highest degree of happiness. The liver rules the roast, indigestion creates anarchy in the physical system. Costiveness, biliousness, dizziness and bad taste in the mouth, yellow skin and eyes, loss of appetite, loss of energy, and low spirits, pains in the back and side, wind and foul stomach; all these create bad blood. NOT SO WELL TO-DAY.

Removal not All-Curative.

President's Case Still Critical.

Doctors and Nurse Dropped

Weather Unbearably Hot—To-day's Report More Hopeful—Mrs. Garfield's Confidence.

New York, Sept. 8.—The Sun says the President's unfavourable condition yesterday was not due wholly to fatigue or heat. It is feared that some of the symptoms are those of a gathering of another pus abcess. The President yesterday was nearly strangled while trying to expel pus collected in his mouth. It does not seem possible that the pus could have flowed from the greatly reduced swollen gland. The President has been showing signs of discomfort. He said to Mrs. Edson that his room was too small. Boynton said last night that the President's lungs were sounded and found all right.

PRESIDENT NOT RALLYING.

New York, Sept. 8.—The Herald has the highest authority for saying that the public fears have been greatly exaggerated. Mrs. Garfield thinks she sees signs of certain improvement. This feeling is shared by all the family attendants. They say the President's has perceptibly gained strength. Dr. Bliss declared last night that if the weather does not turn moderate quickly the President will have to be moved out of the present quarters to a cooler place, possibly to a tent upon the lawn. Dr. Bliss contrasted the situation here with that at Washington with some bitterness. He said there were only two things in favor of the Branch thus far—the absence of malaria and the patient's intense desire to be here, otherwise he would be better off in the White House. Bliss remarked that the President has not rallied, and that he must rally soon in order to get better.

A GLOOMY VIEW.

Boynton, last night, took a gloomy view of the situation. He did not think the President was suffering from a severe affection of the lungs.

Reyburn says that the gland has entirely sloughed off, but this will not materially interfere with the President's comfort should he recover, as there are enough other glands to furnish the required amount of saliva.

Yesterday MacVeigh ordered the return of the cars comprising the special train.

THREATENING DR. BLISS.

The World says Dr. Bliss said last night: "I have received a letter, to which the seal has been attached, and signed by the secretary of an unknown society in Pennsylvania. It informs me that if I do not cure the President the society will shoot me. I do not think there need be any occasion for executing the threat."

ANOTHER COMPLICATION.

The Tribune says the President's suggestion of an appetite, which the doctors tried to encourage, has entirely disappeared. There are signs of inflammation along the wall of the President's rectum which it may be exceedingly difficult to allay.

Hunt said last night it looked as though nature conspired to make the President's recovery impossible.

MORNING EXAMINATION.

Long Branch, Sept. 8.—At the morning examination, made at 8 o'clock, the President's pulse was 104. He was restless and wakeful during the early part of the night, but after midnight slept well until morning. His general condition appears more encouraging

A GOOD REPORT.

Long Branch, N.J., Sept. 8, 1:30 p.m. —The President has improved considerably since morning. Pulse 91; and no signs of fever.

IMPROVEMENT CONTINUING.

Long Branch, Sept. 8.—After the morning dressing Bliss said the patient was doing first rate. He shows much improvement to-day. His unusual restlessness in the early part of the night was attributed to the intense heat yesterday. To-day is not quite as close as yesterday, the wind having shifted to the north east. Mrs. Edson retires from the duty as nurse to-day. Her dismissal is explained by the statement that the President recently informed his wife that he would prefer having a male attendant hereafter. The President's appetite is much better this morning.

MICHIGAN FIRES.

Latest Advices of a Lamentable Character—People Perishing in Dozens.

Detroit, Sept. 8.—One hundred lives are reported to have been lost by the great fires in Michigan. Nearly all the property in Sanilac and Huron counties has been destroyed. Hundreds of farmers are destitute. The destitute families are picking their way into villages. Many of them will never recover from their injuries, the feet of the poorer people having been burned; and in some cases the children's clothing on their bodies can be pulled off in strips. The latest reports are that the fires are still raging.

Manton, Mich., Sept. 8.—The total loss by fires in this neighborhood is $200,000.

Sand Beach, Mich., Sept. 8.—Some scenes in the burnt district are shocking beyond description. There are 600 destitute families here.

Charlestown, Mich., Sept. 8.—A family of seven, named Redmond, got into a well near here to escape from the fire all were suffocated. The charred remains of Henry Cole were also found. A family named Susula perished in Paris. Mrs. Diebert and three children have been burned to death in Watertown. A family named Denison is believed to have been burned. Two families, Thornton and See, are feared to have perished near Richmondville. The wind in the burning region has changed. Last night it was feared that the flames would pass over sections that thus far have escaped.

Baloon Voyage.

St. Paul, Sept. 8.—The signal service is taking great interest in Prof. King's proposed baloon voyage to the Atlantic coast. King will be accompanied by several journalists. If the weather permits he will start on Friday.

Prejudice Kills.

"Eleven years our daughter suffered on a bed of misery under the care of several of the best (and some of the worst) physicians, who gave her disease various names but no relief, and now she is restored to us in good health by as simple a remedy as Hop Bitters, that we had poohed at for two years, before using it. We earnestly hope and pray that no one else will let their sick suffer as we did, on account of prejudice against so good a medicine as Hop Bitters."—The parents.—Telegram.

ROBBING A TRAIN.

A Bold Raid of Brigands—A Successfully Planned Attack—The Booty.

Indianapolis, Mo., Sept. 8.—Masked robbers stopped the Chicago and Alton Western Express and mail train at 8 o'clock last night, 30 miles west of Gaudell, by waving a signal lantern. The robbers had fixed a quantity of stones and logs on the track sufficient to wreck the train. The robbers were armed. When the train stopped the leader shouted, "Now, men to your work. Fire!" At the, word the air was filled with the noise of discharging fire arms. Shot succeeded one another with such rapidity that the train men and passengers imagined the attacking party to be overwhelming in numbers. The effect of firing rendered the passengers an easy prey to the brigands. Before the first shock was over a number of the robbers took possession of the train, the shooting being all the time vigorously carried on. The engineer, firemen and brakesmen were driven into the woods. The conductor offered resistance but was soon overawed and compelled to run for his life. A few of the thieves boarded the passengers' cars, drew cocked arms covered all and ordered everyone to refrain from making a single movement at the peril of their lives. There was absolute compliance with the order. Two highway men boarded the express train. The express messenger made a bold stand and refused to yield, though the muzzles of two revolvers were put against his temples. The thieves knocked him down and pounded him until he became unconscious, and then rifled the car, throwing out everything valuable and moveable. They filled the key hole of the safe with explosives and blew it open. From the safe they secured many valuables and money estimated at about $30,000. The work on the express car was done quickly and with skill. The trained confederates outside carried the booty swiftly away. The robbers then went from the express car to the passenger coaches. The passengers were ordered to hold up their hands and the robbers emptied the pockets of the passengers of their valuables.

A Grateful Husband.

Toronto 9th March, 1882.

Mr. Wintercorbyn.—Dear Sir, I wish to tender you my heartfelt thanks for the benefit my wife has derived from the use of your Hair Restorer. Some few years since she nearly lost all her hair, and what little remained turned grey. We tried every remedy in the market, some of them claiming to be wonderful discoveries, and all to no purpose. Having seen an advertisement of your discovery, we availed ourselves of it as a last resource. I am now happy to state that it not only restored the hair to its natural color, but brought in new hair where the old had fallen and my wife has to-day as good a head of hair as any lady in our city.

Yours respectfully,

WM. FRAIN, 72 Esther Street.
