GRAND TRUNK RAILWAY. Hours of Arrivals and Departures from Kingston Station, Montreal Time.

CITY AND VICINITY. An exhibition to-day in Spence & Crumley's window the show case of police military.

STRIKE NOT SETTLED. The tailors strike is not yet over. All the large employers of labour have not consented to the terms submitted by the men.

THE GRAIN MARKET. The amount of grain arriving in the city is rather small. The prices are good, with an upward tendency.

INSURED HERE. Mr. Thos. Lockery, tobaccoist, Belleville, injured his leg in jumping from the express train on Thursday morning at the Kingston depot.

LATE TRAINS. A correspondent of the Montreal Herald complains of the irregular running of trains on the Grand Trunk R.R.

BIG PEARS. Mr. T. Seale has shown us some excellent specimens of Bartlett pears, the average weight of which is over 10 ounces.

A WASTE OF MONEY. It is said that the Pictou camp cost the country in the vicinity of $30,000. The Fort Hope News quotes the rumor that full pay was drawn for those men who only served three or four days.

BOY INTERRED. Mr. Bonnie, of Kingston, went to Toronto on Thursday and ordered the interment of the remains of his son William, recovered on Wednesday at the Hamlet. It was his intention to bring the body to Kingston, but it was in such an advanced stage of decomposition that he decided to inter it there.

DEATH AT LAST. Mrs. Fitzgibbon, from whose side Dr. McLean, Dr. Pellan and other surgeons removed a very large tumour a few days ago, has had strength to survive the operation and passed quietly away.

PROPERTY DISCOVERED. The boots and shoes, taken from the British American Hotel yesterday morning were left on the sidewalk on the opposite corner of the street. They were picked up by a city baker, who retained them until last night, when he read in the papers of how they got into the street.

FINIS HONORIS. The attendance at the Opera House last evening was very slim, but nevertheless the play was carried through in a satisfactory manner. Last evening was the second performance of "Harold Kirk" by this company.

WOULD NOT RELEASE HIM. Some time ago a long petition was sent here from Boston, asking for the release of one Charles Wilkins, who is an hour of temptation and while partially intoxicated stole $30, but afterwards, repenting, returned it to the owner.

WHAT'S THE NEWS? High fares have been pretty well dumped out. The "Harold Kirk" Company play its Grandstand on Monday evening.

THE INVESTIGATION. The investigation among the Pictou fishermen has brought out more information than Mr. McLaughlin, M.P., calculated upon.
