GRAND TRUNK RAILWAY. Presentation to Mr. Bowen. A Worthy Recognition of His Services and His Gracious Reception of the Hon. Mr. Bowen.

On Saturday a deputation of the employees of the locomotive works visited the house of Mr. A. C. Bowen, Assistant Engineer. Owing to ill health the company had lately given him a three months' leave of absence.

DEAR SIR—We have learned with feelings of the very deepest regret that your medical adviser has ordered you to suspend work temporarily and seek such change and rest as may result in the complete restoration of your health.

Mr. Bowen replied feelingly, stating that he felt deeply grateful for such an act of kindness and consideration. The circumstances were so flattering to him and would be affectionately remembered by him.
