POLICE COURT—FRIDAY.

Diagnosed of "Blow Case" and Disgraced "Assault Case" Necessity of Prosecution.

John Blair, a tailor with a badly "blown face" and an eye that was almost closed, acknowledged his libelous letters and was allowed to depart.

Israel Labadie, a sailor from Montreal, fell into bad company and—result, an appearance before the Magistrate.

Sarah Ryan desired to be committed to the county jail, having no home or means.

What is your remedy? "Wemyer resort to some expedient for the purpose of granting immediate relief, but I am inclined to wait until the Christmas holidays."

John Elliott was charged with assaulting a young lady by striking her on the face and pushing her off the sidewalk.

The lady assaulted took the stand. On the right side of her chin was a dark mark where the prisoner had delivered a blow.

ATTENDANCE AT SCHOOLS.

Half Three Rooms Grand Trunk Company. Inspector Hired to Provide Against The Inspector's Explanation.

Are the schools generally overcrowded? "I was asked Inspector Kidd, yesterday afternoon, a statement in regard to one department, made at a recent meeting of the School Board, suggesting the enquiry."

"No," he replied, "but Miss Davidson's room has considerably more than it should have. Miss Spankie has more than a reasonable number, and the Froontown school promises to be quite full."

"What is your remedy?" "Wemyer resort to some expedient for the purpose of granting immediate relief, but I am inclined to wait until the Christmas holidays."

KINGSTON & PEMBROKE RAILWAY.

University of the West Extension. "Special" and "General" Mr. Michael Grady's Last Observations.

Last evening Mr. M. Grady returned to the city and gave a most favourable account of the work which had been done on the Kingston & Pembroke R.R. extension.

"It is very rough in some places—so much so as any place through which he has been engaged in building rail-roads—but it is very romantic."

The new section begins at the old terminus, at the Mississippi river, which is crossed by trestle work 80 feet in length, after which a gradual ascent is made until the summit of a peculiar ridge is reached, a distance of three miles from the river and including grades aggregating 150 feet, the longest of which is 70 feet to the mile. Then the WINDING ANTIQUE CREEK. It crossed four times by means of culverts. The creek is not wide but is deep enough to float timber to the Mississippi, into which its waters enter near the railway bridge.
