DAILY BRITISH WHIG. Under the Olden Tree. AN EASTERN ENTERPRISE.

THE GRAND TRUNK RAILWAY.

The Grand Trunk Railway is not disposed to allow the Canada Pacific Syndicate to acquire a monopoly of the railway lines and business of the country.

SPREAD OF MORMONISM.

So energetic have the Mormon delegates presented their missionary labors in England, and so numerous are the converts they have won as many as 1,600 that Mr. Gladstone has been appealed to in the hope that he would stop what has not been inaptly termed, "an unlicensed immoral traffic."

DOCTORS' DILEMMA.

Doctors differ concerning the Giteau as well as other cases. Dr. G. M. Beard hits the mark when he says that if the prisoner had shot a boot black instead of a President few experts would assert his sanity.

PERT HOPE GUIDE.

The relief of a past age should be wiped out of our statute books; and a man should be at liberty to travel on any of the public roads of the country, or sell any article he has to dispose of, without let or hindrance of any kind.

MONTEAL STAR.

Canada does not receive in return the value of a pinch of snuff for the $50,000 a year Military College.

IN JANUARY.

The Revival of Science Lane is the subject of record by the Rev. Wm. H. Woodhouse.

BY JUDGMENT DELIVERED.

By a judgment delivered by Mr. Justice Rivarville, of Montreal, the salaries of civil servants are declared exempt from any community not created by a mechanic, a baker, a clerk in a mercantile establishment, or any other wage worker.

BRIBERY PUNISHED.

The Court of Queen's Bench in London recently gave an example in every way worthy of being followed.

ACCOUNTING FOR RESULTS.

The Tory press still continues to be troubled about the West Northumberland election.
