CARD LINES IN OTTAWA.

O.t. va, Jan'y. 1st 187 9.

DEAR GRIP, Happy New Year, old boy, and many retursus! Hope you're all right. I, alse ; have no turkey, not even goose -plum pudding out of the question-all eaten up by trangers -(taot!) What do you pay to your weekly hash in Toronto? I mustleave here; can't stand the racket. My landlady informs me to-day that 'by raison of the number of thravellers' she will be obliged to raise prices.

Now, as a resident of the Capital I can bear with this siste of things during the least on, in modest stillness and humility, but at this season of the year it is really too bad! From the rising of the sun or anyother external remedy including limits. too bad! From the rising of the sun uptil the setting of the same, each train brings in its legion of carpet baggers. Micks and mendicants from Montreal; high-toned hairpins from Hamilton; de da loungers from Lonlon; confident coves from Kingston; quasi quality squirts from Quebec; Trinity College tramps en grand tenne, from Toronto; queer customers claid in coon-skin costs from Muskoka; and hardy habitants is hairy habiliments from Hochelaga-ail are herding here—and such expects . Go ernment situation excepting those Wir are sieting a concract. in the name of the Continenta' Congress, what are they all going to do! The Body tinard is full, and no other recruits for the army are wanted as far as heard from, but yet they still keep pouring in raising grub up to 'hotel prices' to the detriment of poor fellows like me. However, the general tout ensemble denotes a want shekels, and I judge their time here will be short, especially as I hear that John A. has organized a force armed with stuffed clubs to prevent their admission to the lobbies.

Kindly answer, send hash card if pos Yours in hunger, SPUD EATER.
