"LORD, LORD HAVE MERCY!"

The Curse of God sweeps o'er the land,

Famine and horror, plague and blight

The great are throned on seats of Gold,

The starving poor are bought and sold.

While millions curse the light of Day.

The new borne Babe brings joy no more,

Diseas: Starvation, (rime and Fraud.

I USED TO DREAM.

Bear on their wings thy curse, of God,

used to dream such glowing dreams,

In looking back how strange it seems

I used to dream that when the bars used to dream the roses' breath.

Could never feel the frosts of death

used to dream the tinted mist

I used to dream I should behold

Of sunset in Italia's land:

With music such as angels send
