It had its origin in China in 1333, some fifteen years before its outbreak in Europe, and it raged for twenty-five years, and swallowed towns and mountains, and swarms of locusta apread devastation everywhere. During the same period Europe had as many abnormal conditions as the east. The order of nature appeared to be reversed. The seasons were at other process. ed to be reversed. The agasons were at various times inverted; thunder atorms were frequent in mid winter, and volcanoes, long considered extinct, burst forth afresh. The theory is that the extraordinar activity of the earth, accompanied by decomposition of vast organic masses human beings-produced some change in the atmosphere inimical to life. Writers say that the impure air was actually visible as it approached with its burden of death. The plague owed its extension almost wholly to infection and contagion. Three years passed from the date of its plasters. appearance in Constantinople before it crept by a huge circle to the Russian terri-

of a Tonic Compound known as the STANLEY ETHIOPIC ELIXIR, and have found its ingredients to be wholly vegetable, and of reput-ed medicinal value. It contains no incompatibles, no mineral or other poisons, and it might be takenin even abnormal doses without producing perious consequences. I believe it to be thoroughly sate, and reliable, as far as it is a Chemical Compound." (Signed N. F. Duruis,
