

The Daily British Whig

SATURDAY EVENING, FEB 8, 1879. CITY AND VICINITY.

PROBABILITIES.—Southeasterly to northerly winds, cloudy weather, snow at night.

CHILDREN'S SOCIAL.—The annual social of Chalmers Church Sabbath School took place last night, and was a very enjoyable affair for the children.

FIRE.—A chimney on a house occupied by McCullagh, on York street, took fire last evening, and but for the prompt action of the occupants might have led to a disastrous fire.

SERMON.—A series of sermons by the Rev. Wm. Jackson, on the "Life and Times of Elijah," will be commenced on Sunday evening in the Sydenham Street Church. They will no doubt be highly interesting.

ODessa RACES.—The races at Odessa on Wednesday passed off well. A crowd of nearly 1,000 were present to witness the sport. First purse, $30—P. Harris mare 1st; John Rockwell's 2nd. Second purse $20—W. Johnson's horse 1st; D. Hartman's 2nd.

CHOSEN DELEGATE.—At the meeting of delegates from the Agricultural and Electoral Division Societies of this district, held at Brockville, on Friday, the 7th, Mr. Joshua Lege, of Gananoque, was appointed a member of the Council of Agriculture of Ontario.

DRAWINGS.—There will be a fine display of drawings at the next public exhibition made by the pupils of the Christian Brothers' School. Mr. A. W. Moore is bringing them on finely. The same gentleman is engaged upon a large sized painting of Bishop O'Brien.

THE RAILWAY QUESTION.—To-day a meeting was held at Newburg in the interest of the railway scheme which the Napanee people have projected. The feeling in favor of the railway at present is quite cheerful and enthusiastic, but wait until the financing commences in reality.

ESSAY ON TEMPERANCE.—At a meeting of the Eccelesian Society last evening, Mr. Stark read a paper on Temperance, in the course of which, we are informed, the essay rose to the highest flights of fancy, and rounded off some periods in the most eloquent fashion. Mr. Stark certainly received a most attentive hearing.

THE CARNIVAL.—This evening the carnival takes place on the skating rink, and we anticipate a pleasing display of costumes and grotesque characters. The weather promises to be exceedingly fine, and, adding the addition of the band, what a happy assembly of citizens there should be! Be hand, if not otherwise announced, on Monday.

POLICE COURT.—An insane man was committed to the County Gaol. This was the only case before the Court. Writing of Court matters reminds us of the action of the Toronto police magistrate, who has notified the Executive Committee of the City Council that he wants an increase of business or he will gobble certain fees now going into the City Treasury.

IN MEMORIAM.—We now write of Capt. Gordon W. Finkle, whose death occurred about noon to-day, and the surviving members of whose family are deserving of the most heartfelt sympathy, but a few days having elapsed since the funeral of the wife and mother. Capt. Finkle was an experienced mariner, and filled many important steamboat appointments on the lakes and river.

LOOSE WORK.—When Mr. Mackenzie's Government was in power a great row was kicked up by the Opposition because advertisements were inserted in papers far from the points by which they could be affected. Now Sir John's conduct seems to be run by Tory publishers, and there is an abundance of patronage floating about, not of much benefit to the country, but of vast importance to the newspaper men.

TAKEN TO TASK.—A writer in the Montreal Witness—an ardent church admirer—takes the Bishop of Ontario to task, holding that the sermon delivered by his Lordship at the consecration of Bishop Doak would lead one to suppose that he held that the Church of Jesus Christ must be universally Episcopalian, and that denominations which are not Episcopalian, do not form a part of this universal church, but are only "bad imitations" of it. The correspondent fails to find any justification for the assertion in the bible.

FATHER LEONARD'S LECTURE.—Last evening there was a mass meeting of the Irish Societies, held in St. Patrick's Hall, at which arrangements were made for a lecture to be delivered by Rev. Father Leonard, who is, perhaps, the most eloquent speaker in the Kingston Diocese. The subject is one which should be interesting to all, and especially to every Canadian—Canada—Three Hundred Years Ago, its Missionaries and its Martyrs. The several Irish Societies have united in this case, and have determined to make every effort to secure a large attendance for the benefit of the poor, which is the object of the lecture. The mutual programme on the occasion will be a special and unusually excellent one.

WEBBER.—The Inter Ocean gives place in its columns to this waft of importances: "In return for the privilege to American ships to cross wrecked American vessels and crews on Canadian beaches, bars, or reefs—when the Canadians have no wrecking tags themselves—our neighbors propose that the tonnage dues on Canadian bottoms be abolished, and that Canadians may be allowed to serve on our steamers as captains, mates, and engineers, without swearing allegiance to the United States. How very generous our Canadian cousins are, eh? If Canadian ships cannot render assistance to distressed American vessels in time, American ships will succor them if they have to do so by force."

THE ELECTION PETITION.—Street rumor has it that the trial of the Kingston election petition will not take place until after the meeting of Parliament, which opens on Thursday next. The statement appears to be authentic; and, more than that, it seems to have Sir John's great approbation.

NAVIGATION.—A new falling remedy for pain; Nerviline is unequalled for the speedy relief of all neuralgic, rheumatic, and other pains; Nerviline is sold only by N. O. Polson & Co., druggists.

HOUSE OF INDUSTRY.

THE BUSINESS OF THE ANNUAL MEETING.

The annual meeting of the above institution took place yesterday in the City Council Chamber, at three o'clock. The following gentlemen were present: Messrs. Mehar, B. W. Robinson, J. B. McLaren, L. Simpson, D. Gibson, G. Robertson, A. Chown, Fraser, Gage, Romanes, Macdonnell and the Mayor.

Mr. Gibson was moved into the chair. The minutes of last annual meeting were read and adopted. The Auditor's report was read by Mr. D. Fraser, a synopsis of which we now give:

Table with columns: RECEIPTS, Balance from last year, Government grant, Members fees, Donations, etc.

EXPENDITURE. Clothing, Fuel, Boring well, pump, etc., Sundries, Salary of Supt. and Matron, Balance on hand.

STATE OF INSTITUTION. During the year the Directors changed the old system of tendering for rations, a committee being appointed to purchase the supplies as required. The Superintendent reported that by the new system, besides giving better satisfaction, a saving of $448.88 had been effected, and that 248 rations more had been given out.

On motion of Mr. A. Chown a vote of thanks was tendered to Mr. D. Fraser for his comprehensive report. Mr. D. Fraser said he was thankful for the resolution. He had been Director for many years, but didn't wish to act again. He congratulated the Mayor upon the position he occupied, and was sure he (the M.) would look well into the cases of the poor.

DIRECTORS, COMMITTEES, ETC. The balloting for Directors resulted in the election of the following: Messrs. Chown, Macdonnell, B. Robertson, Gage, Mehar, Romanes, Simpson, Gibson, with the Mayor, Drs. For, McCammon and Oliver, appointed by the Council.

Messrs. Simpson and Gibson were appointed a Committee to strike the Visiting Committees. Mr. I. Simpson was unanimously re-appointed Hon. Secretary-Treasurer.

A motion was passed that in the annual report the number of times the Directors attended the meetings of the Board, and the number of times they visited the house, be stated.

It was moved that a Committee of Messrs. Gibson, Macdonnell, B. W. Robertson and Romanes be appointed to consider the advisability of issuing tickets for the House of Industry, at so much per dozen, to be given by the citizens to persons in need.

Messrs. D. Fraser and G. Robertson were appointed Auditors. WIND WAFFS. Carnival to-night. Tandy Bros. sing in barnia on the 13th.

The regular meeting of the Council will be held on Monday evening. Quite a number of cases of typhoid fever are reported in this vicinity. It has struck the Cape at last, and a grand walk will take place this evening.

The Oddfellows will attend the funeral of the late Bro. Greaves to-morrow. The Garden Island boss spellers are going for the Queen's College students next.

Who has William Taylor's money—the $2,000 awarded him by Judge Jones? Mr. J. E. Daley, of Oldham's orchestra, is ready to undertake the instruction of pupils.

"Dr." Stark has advanced a new theory for the treatment and cure of consumption. This fine weather has given the attention a chance to get outside and exercise their lungs.

The Mechanics' Institute is now an attractive and at the same time most useful institution. Capt. Somerville, of Ottawa, a prominent Mason, fraternized with the brethren in the city to-day.

Did you ever notice that the man who never gets any letters makes the biggest fuss when the mail is late? It is no use talking about fast driving. The police should just take a note of offenders and let the magistrate settle the differences between them.

Mr. A. Desel made his bow in our sanctum this morning, but he didn't come to fight. Desel is not much on deals. The Cape Vincent people learn that Captain Howard has leased Grenadier Island for the coming season, and will draw to Mr. D. F. Britton's saw mill, a pine tree which measured eighteen standards logging 9 feet, or in other words the log scaled 8771 feet.

PROFESSOR BILL.

HIS FIVE READINGS IN ST. ANDREW'S HALL.

There was a very fair attendance at St. Andrew's Hall last evening, on the occasion of Prof. A. M. Bell's third reading in Kingston. The gifted elocutionist met with a hearty greeting as he stepped upon the platform in company with Prof. Watson, President of the Elocution Society of Queen's University, who, in a few words, introduced the reader. Professor Bell, as most of our readers know, has a genial presence, a voice of rare and brilliant capacity, a polished diction, and a gracefulness of gesture which places him in the foremost rank of elocutionists and readers of the present day.

His rendition of Macaulay's "Battles of Lake Regillus" was such as to draw forth a very hearty applause. Certain passages were delivered in a manner so vivid and graphic that it needed but a little stretch of the imagination to fancy ourselves in presence of the reality. We did not see the javelins, arrows, and battle axes flying around, but there were moments during the reader's progress when we fancied we heard the clash of steel, the battle cry, the exultant shout of victory and the lamentations of the dying and vanquished.

In pleasing contrast with the field of carnage was the reading of Longfellow's "Monk of Casal Maggiore," in which the Professor displayed to the fullest extent his rich vein of humor contained in the poem. The proverbial fables of a very plain order of mankind are by no means "chased up" in this production of the great American poet. By means of the Professor's elocutionary powers, all the characters in the serio-comic scene were brought, as it were upon the stage, and to the lady monk and his wayward friend, with the long ears and solemn mien.

"The Island of the Scot," selected from the "Lays of the Scottish Cavaliers," was next given and was loudly applauded. Perhaps the most thrilling effort of the evening was "The Revenge," selected from Tennyson's new "Ballad of the Fleet," which will undoubtedly rank among the finest productions in the English language. As our readers know there are some passages in this poem that will stir the soul of any good and true man, and especially a Briton, be he Scotch, English or Irish.

The ribility of the audience was taken to its utmost by the readings of Mrs. Stow's "Minister's Housekeeper," selected from "Old Time Stories." The fair sex must needs laugh heartily at this production, notwithstanding the fact of its being a tremendous rebuke to them as scandal mongers, for we here assert most emphatically that the women at the present day, with scarcely any exception, create an immense amount of unnecessary trouble in the world by their weakness for scandal mongering, and the worst of it is, the victims are generally those of their own sex.

We heartily wish Professor Bell would open all his future readings with "The Minister's Housekeeper." The second part of the Professor's programme consisted in the reading of selections from Sheridan Knowles' patriotic drama of "William Tell," including condensed and connected scenes, and Tell's colloquy on Freedom.

"The Curfew," adapted by the Professor for the occasion, was tremendously applauded. A Scottish rhapsody on "The Bagpipes," by A. Fisher, was very laughable. The entertainment closed with the rendition of an original oratorical rhapsody, "A Mass meeting of the Prohibitory Liquor Law League." The present condition of the Temperance question was very truthfully shown in this rhapsody.

The powers of ventriloquism that were more or less necessary in this reading, as a good many different speakers appeared to take part in the "mass meeting," of different opinions and of no settled opinion at all "rose to explain," among whom was a certain minister whose monotone speech was very comical indeed, and served as a mirror in which more than one reverend "stickler at trifles" might see himself reflected and hear his own dirge like voice.

Entertainments of this class will always meet with the patronage of the more cultivated public. They are intellectual treats of a rich and rare description. It is to be hoped that the Professor, who is comparatively speaking still young, may long flourish to instruct and amuse the public, by whom, if sterling applause is any criterion, the gifted elocutionist is highly appreciated.

Gananoque News. The Reporter comes to hand with the following: Mr. Francis Mallette, father of the young woman who was said to have been indulging in charms and mysteries, wishes us to contradict the reports that have been circulated.

The ice now being harvested is the purest ever known here; it is without speck, and so transparently clear that a block of eighteen inches can be looked through easily. Mr. Wm. Kettle, living on Lot No. 16, 1st con. Lansdowne, has cut and drawn to Mr. D. F. Britton's saw mill, a pine tree which measured eighteen standards logging 9 feet, or in other words the log scaled 8771 feet.

At the suit of Mr. E. E. Abbott a writ of attachment has issue against the firm of Messrs. Squires & Ash, which also involves Messrs. A. Jack and P. Heaslip, although they were not actually partners.

Mrs. Cornelius Cook, wife of the Light-house keeper, of Gananoque, died of fever, and was buried a week ago last Monday. Her sister, Mrs. Kenon Shirling, took care of her till the end, and then went home, and died on Monday last.

Talk of hard times. A Toronto firm found so trouble in disposing of ten or twelve safes to good customers in this village, that an agent takes us that his prospects for selling ten or three more are good. The tea meetings, concerts and entertainments have all been well patronized, and several hundreds of dollars in hard cash realized for various objects.

On Thursday evening the 15th, there will be a tea meeting in the Presbyterian Church, after which there will be an entertainment. Messrs. M. Seward, Oxtley and J. Cumberland of Queen's College, will give readings, and the Burton sisters, of Kingston, will be present. Misses Sarah and Mary singing duets, and Miss Sophia singing Scotch songs.

SPELLING MATCH.

THE CONTEST AT GARDEN ISLAND LAST EVENING.

The spelling match between twenty-five members of the pupils of Cataragui School, and the same number of Garden Island School, took place, as per understanding between Messrs. McIntyre and Bole, the respective teachers, and resulted in a victory for the Islanders. The audience was so large that the folding doors between the two school rooms had to be opened to give sitting-room to Mr. John Simpson, of Cataragui, who chosen umpire in behalf of Cataragui School, and Mr. Anthony Malone for the Garden Island School. The match (one of the students from the Medical College) gave out the words, and at 2 p.m. the contest began. Quite a little time elapsed before any one was spelled down, a Cataragui pupil being the first placed horsed-combat. The battle waged furiously until twenty-five minutes to six, when the last of the Cataragui pupils, Miss Hossie Jacobs, went down. This young girl deserves great praise, as she fought long and determinedly for a long time against thirteen of the Islanders, who were still on their feet. The following are the names of the victors: Mary Ann Crosby, Minnie Phillips, Julia Cusheon, Dora E. Malone, Kate Cunningham, Minnie Donnelly, Mary Emund, Sarah E. Lewis, Flora Rogney, Charles Harris, Thomas Ferguson, Robert Donnelly and Alpheus Bebbant. The victors and the vanquished then lunched together, a comfortable spread having been provided in another wing of the building. Short speeches were made by Messrs. Simpson and McIntyre, complimenting the Islanders, and acknowledging the fairness of the contest, but hinting that ere long the battle will have to be fought over again at Cataragui, to which Mr. Bole replied, avowing that the contest was a hard one, and if fought over again he would have to look to his laurels. Prizes were then distributed to the victors. A prize was also given to Miss Jacobs, the Cataragui girl who stood up the longest on that side.

The Grand Trunk Brewery. This institution, so well and favorably known to our citizens for the purity and sweetness of its ales and porter, is now, it is said, turning out better articles in these lines than ever before. This is saying a good deal, but it is accounted for by the fact that the proprietors are all men of large experience, who attend closely to business, and who devote a share of their time in trying to improve on the old method so tenaciously adhered to by others in the trade. During the Fall and Winter new vats have been put in and improvements made wherever needed, so that they are now in a position to supply their many customers and the public generally. Cleanliness is the first consideration with them, no housekeeper, we are bound to say, being even one-half as particular in washing their dishes as the members of this firm are in preparing their tubs for the mash. This is the institution with which Mr. James Morton, son of the late lamented distiller of that name, is connected. He attends personally to the brewing, and we are sure the many friends of the family will wish him that success which his industry and perseverance should entitle him to. This is the only institution of the kind with which he is connected, and he is desirous that the public should not confound his name with that of any others in the business, and that all orders intended for him should be addressed to the Grand Trunk Brewery, and no other. This firm has some claim on the consumers of the city, as they say they have been mainly instrumental in keeping ale at its present low price, not withstanding the great increase in the duty within a couple of years.—Advt.

Changes in Tariff. Precious few in this city have belief that the promise made to the electors before the last elections "will ever be realized or fulfilled, but think some tinkering will be done to the tariff. Some of our local merchants are preparing themselves for the vagaries of the Government. We are informed that for some days past the freight traffic over the R.W. & O. Railway, and to Kingston via Cape Vincent, has been something very extraordinary than usual. Of course the snow blockade had a tendency to cause accumulations of goods, but there must be other causes than this to create the present rush, and we must conclude that to the prospective tariff changes—paltry or important or merely prospective—the life in trade, is due. In one day a thousand barrels of sugar passed through the Cape for one firm in this city, and a gentleman residing at the former place informs us that it is nothing remarkable to see a dozen of sleighs in procession, heavily laden, heading for Kingston, the nearest frontier stopping place in the District.

Singing at Rockwood. The choir of Chalmers' Church gave an entertainment to the inmates of Rockwood Asylum, the following being a synopsis of the programme: The choir sang an opening anthem, "The earth is the Lord's," succeeded by a solo from Miss S. Burton, "Making Hay." Mr. Johnson read a short piece, and Mr. J. Galloway sang a solo, "That Husband of Mine." Misses Burton rendered their duet, "I would that my love, next; and then there was a short reading by Mr. Brunell, when the choir sang "Jingle Bells." After this piece Mr. W. J. Gage came on with a solo, "I am a Friar of Orders Gray," which in turn was followed by Miss J. Galloway's solo. Mr. Johnson again read and the choir contributed "The Sleigh Ride," as a chorus. Again, Mr. Johnson sang "Nancy Lee," and then there was a reading by Mr. Brunell. Mr. S. Burton sang "The wind that wafts my sighs to thee," and Mr. Galloway rendered the solo, "Tommy make room for your uncle." The Misses Burton gave a pleasing duet, and the programme closed with a chorus, "Good-night, ladies," (by the choir) and the National Anthem. The inmates of the Asylum seemed to be very much delighted, if we can judge anything by the applause each piece received.

—It takes $10,000 per year to keep the streets of Montreal clear of snow in winter.

La Clayton.

The husband of Mrs. Kent Mason, the lecturer, has written a letter to our contemporary, complaining of the publication of a paragraph which appeared in the Whig "some few weeks ago." A. L. Clayton has received all the notoriety and sympathy in this section to which he is entitled. The statement that he paddled around the country, living on his wife, did not originate with the Whig, but was printed in it as the condensation of an article which was published by a contemporary. A brother of the lecturer wrote us that the statement was incorrect, and we gave space to the contradiction. That was about a year ago, perhaps, and we thought the matter was then settled. A. L. Clayton is a badly abused man. He tells us he was the agent of Mrs. Kent Mason-Clayton, that he engaged halls, posted bills, and slaved night and day, and would not give $20 for all the remuneration he received during the nine months he travelled with his wife. Poor fellow!

A Gentle Hint. In our style of climate, with its sudden changes of temperature—rain, wind and sunshine often intermingling in a single day,—it is no wonder that our children, friends and relatives are so frequently taken from us by neglected colds, half the deaths resulting directly from this cause. A bottle of Bosche's German Syrup kept about your home for immediate use will prevent serious sickness, a large doctor's bill, and perhaps death, by the use of three or four doses. For curing consumption, hemorrhages, pneumonias, nervous coughs, croup, or any disease of the throat or lungs, its success is simply wonderful, as your druggist will tell you. German Syrup is now sold in every town and village on this continent. Samples bottles for trial, 10c; regular size, 75c.

The Horse Owner's Friend. NERVILINE AND OIL LIMENT has truly won an enviable reputation upon its own merits. It penetrates so quickly, it immediately removes all inflammation or soreness that may have been caused by a Sprain, Bruise, Galls, Strained Ligaments, or from any other cause where a Liment is required. Rub it in faithfully with the hand. Once tried, always used.

NERVILINE is a positive necessity to those who are subject to nerve pains on exposure to cold; Nerviline at once penetrates through the skin to the source of pain; Nerviline is one of the most certain remedies for neuralgia, affording speedy relief to the sufferer; Nerviline has been used by hundreds in Kingston and vicinity from whom it has received the highest praise. Nerviline can only be procured from N.O. Polson & Co., druggists. Try Nerviline, the new family remedy for pain.

TO CONSUMPTIVES.—The production of a remedy that may be truly be said to alter the prospects of the Consumptive as to give hope of cure in not a few cases, and of much prolonging of life in by far the greater number—the only remedy worthy of the name, which is carefully and faithfully used may arrest and cure the disease, and is proved to relieve it, and probably cure it, in any other known remedy. It is a great desideratum. Yet, this desideratum is fully met in Bosche's Pure LIVER OIL PREPARED BY DRUGGISTS AND GENERAL DEALERS. Price $1.00 per bottle; six bottles for $5.00.

FACTORY FACTS! WITH WHAT SALLOW COUNTENANCE and haggard looks, poor appetite, languid miserable feeling, poor blood, inactive liver kidneys and urinary trouble, that close constricted, careful attention to all factory work gives the operatives, and all the physicians and medicine in the world cannot help them unless they get out of doors or USE PHOSFOZONE!

A preparation which restores to the human frame the most essential elements of life, giving energy and vitality to the whole muscular and nervous system. PHOSFOZONE for restoring impaired and broken down constitutions, has no equal.

"PHOSFOZONE" can be had from every Chemist and Druggist throughout the Dominion. Price $1 per bottle or six for $5.
