NEVER-FAILING RELIEF AFFORDED BY

SANFORD'S RADICAL CURE. IT is a fact that can be substantiated by the most respectable testimonials ever offered in favor of any proprietary medicine, that the RADICAL CURE FOR CATARRE does in every case afford instant and permanent relief. No matter of how long standing, or how severe the disease, the first dose gives such evidence of its value in the treatment of Catarrhal affections that confidence is at once felt in its ability to do all that is claimed for it. The testimony of physicians, druggists, and patients is unanimous on this point, and the accumulating evidence is in point of respectability superior to evidence is in point of respectability superior to any ever before obtained in favor of a popular remedy. The proprietors, therefore, may justly feel proud of the position this remedy has attained, and believe it worthy of its reputation.

10 YEARS A SUFFERER.

From Hon. Theo. P. Bogert, Bristol, R. I. Messrs. Where & Potter: Gentlemen, — Feeling thoroughly convinced of the efficacy of Banford's Radical Curs for Catarry, I am induced to drop you a line to say that although I have been sceptical of all the nestrums advertised as "radical cures." I have never found anything that promises such relief and ultimate cure as that of Sanford's.

I have been afflicted with this dreafful disease for more than ten years; and not until recently could I be induced to presevere with any until I read the letter of Mr. Henry Wells, and can truthfully say that after using five or six bottles I am thoroughly convinced of its curative properties. Hoping that others similarly afflicted like myself will be induced to make the trial. I am, gentlemen, very truly, etc. THEO. P. BOGERT.

THE SONG OF THE FLAIL.

Twas long before the iron liorse Went snorting o'er the plain; When bull ploughs were in tashion, And sickles cut out grain ; Our honest dads in homespun gray

Were never known to fail

By the awinging of the that In those old times our mothers, too. Went singing while at work . Propared the food with skilful hands; And baked the boans and pork ;

When girls were rosy, fresh and bright-None were sick or pale -They milked the cows at morn and night. While brothers swung the find.

Their music was the spinning wheel,

At which they danced and sung.

The clauging of the loom kept time,

When our dads were young ; And clothes were made to keep us warn:, Against the snow and bail, Then happy hearts beat music with The flinging of the flatt.

And when the w uter fires were bright

The guisand and boys play blind man's but And dance and play and sing, Till nine or tan o'clock or so. When each would take the trail With some fair lass who loved to hear The intmote awing the flati

The mercy laugh would ring.

Our fathers now he low, Our mothers, too, have passed away. With sisters pure as snow. While we are lest, weak, old and gray. But may we pever tail To cherish in our hearts the day the morning of the preaching of the auniversary services. Mr. Parker came to fliciate as minister in this church about two years ago, and his salary for the first year amounted to $1,200. But some time during that year the trustees, feeling themselves unable to give such a salary, infora ed him that his emplument would be reduced to $1,000 hereafter. He seemed, and expressed himself, to be agreeable to this change, but ever since a colduess has been manifested between ham and the trustees. The bursting forth of the latent quarrel occurred in the invitting of Rev. J. B. Clarkson to With no machines they threshed their who conduct the anniversary services which were to be held to-day. Mr. Parker was absent from home unexpectedly at the time that a meeting of the trustees was called to determine upon the action to be taken towards the celebration of the anniversary. Upon his return he was informed that the Rev. Mr. Clarkson, of Brantford, had been asked to officiate. Mr. Parker did not consent to this, and he immediately telegraphed Mr. Clarkson that he would not allow him to occupy the pulpit Through the determination of the trustees to avoid open controversy, another meeting of the trustees was called, at which Mr. Parker was present. The dispute having been somewhat allayed, and a compromise having been effected between the disputants at this meeting, Mr. Clark

RELIGIOUS SCANDAL.

A PREACHER LOCKED OUT OF HIS CHUBCH

Church here, had been denied entrance to the church by the trustees. Upon enquiry, and proceeding to the above church, we found that the rumor was true, and that in consequence a large concourse of people had assembled in front of the church. For upwards of a year the smouldering dissensions between the trustees and Mr. Parker have been threatening to burst forth into an open and public quarrel, and as an inevitable result the climaxiwas reached this morning,

Great excitement was caused in Woodstock, on Sunday morning by the report that the Rev. W. R. Parker, the regular minister of the Canada Methodist through a reliable source, and verily beheve that they are true. Polygamy and Perridge, son was written to by Mr. Parker himself, answering his telegraph. But upon

Saturday morning another telegram was sent to Mr. Clarkson from Mr. Parker, again denying bim the use of the pulpit.

The trustees, upon ascertaining this, caused the church to be closed against

Mr. Parker. We may state here that Mr. Parker says that one of the considerations in the allowing of Mr. Clarkson to officiate was that the trustees should deliver up to him the accounts to be au fited; but, on the other hand the trustees entirely deny this. We have here stated the facts that have come to us

When we made on excursion in South are High not land and we were hospit. ably entertained by the Mormon Bisher at Richtield. He was a Scotchman, and had been brought up a rigid Presbyterian. 'Ah, well,' said he, 'they think ill of me at home for changing my religion. but there was my brother Aleck who took it most to heart. He was on his way to California, and turned off the road a b t to see me, and to try and bring me back to the fold. When he got here he spent the whole evening in lecturing to me, and then went to bed.
