LET IT PASS. Be not swift to take offence. Let it pass !

Let it pass !

Brood not darkly o'er a wrong.

Anger is a fee to sense,

Which will disappear ere long. Kather sing this cheery song-Let it pass ! Let it pass! Strife corrodes the purest mind. Let it pass! As the unregarded wind Let it pass!

Any vulgar souls that live

May condemn without reprieve. Tis the noble who forgive. Let it pare ! Echo not an angry word, Let it pass ! Think how often you have erred, Let it pass! Since our joys must pass away, Like the dewdrops on the spray,

Wherefore should our sorrows stay ?

Let it pass!

Let it pass ! If for good you've taken ill, Let it pass ! Oh! be kind and gentle still; Let it pass!

Time at last makes all things straights Let us not resent, but wait, And our triumph shall be great; Let it pass

Let it pass !

Bid your anger to depart. Let it pass! Lay these homely words to heart, "Let it pass !" Follow not the giddy throng: Better to be wronged than wrong: Therefore sing the cheery song Let it pass! Let it pass !

THE REFORM RULE. FROM THE SPERCH OF HON, E. BLAKE.

(Globe.) Ii is to be expected of a Reform Gove ernment -- of a Liberal Government, at any rate-that they will lead the van in matters of legislation, not that they will prematurely intrude matters upon the consideration of the Assembly before they have received that preliminary sifting of discussion in the press, amongst the people, in the House, which is es-sential in order to the ascertainment of the true value of such proposals, but they are expected as a Government to keep well abreast at any rate with formed public opinion as to all matters of legislation; and I think you cannot appear more confidently upon any aubject than upon this, because if you have fallen behind upon that subject the duties of legislation develve upon your opponents It is not enough, according to my view at any rate, for an Opposition to sit on the left hand of the Speaker and to shout 'No' every time a proposition is made from the other side. (Hear, hear, and laughter.) Criticism is very important -is, with a Government of undoubted activity, the ch of function of opposition, and a very useful function it is. But i ticket holders. Tell her with the policy pursued by the present Opposition. It is your duty to bring forward such legislation as you deem requisite, but if you do not bring it forward it is the duty of the Opposition to do so. is nearly over. I thank you very cordial-ly for the kind reception you have given me on this, my appearance. I thank the gentleman who proposed my health with such kind expressions, and for the manner in which he did so. It was with me, while I was connected with the business of either House, a source of great gratification to be surrounded by the kind friends, with whom it was my privilege to act and consult. As my hon, friend Mr. Mowat has said of himself, so I may say of myself, that the political alliances I formed at that time were not the strongest that I formed -that alliances of personal friendship, growing out of our political alliances, were stronger and even pleasanter than those political ones. I cannot go back to your Chamber, I cannot look at the some of our old conflict, without feeling my heart thrilled with emotion, when I remember the days that we passed at that time in battling for what we thought the rights and interests of our country.
