Toronto, April 7 .- The Mail thi merning contains the following cablegram, dated London, April 5th : William Elliott, the champion oarsmar of England, was given a benefit last night in the Victoria Music Hall, Newcastleon-Tyne. Responding to a call for a speech, Elliott, in the course of his remarks, referred to his past record, and then mentioned that on June 16 he had to row either Boyd or Hanlan for the championship on the Tyne. At this there were cries from the audience of "Boyd" and then "Hanlan." Elliott said he was r pared for both and did not care w nich, a remark which called forth tremendous applause. Elliott continued and said that if he had his health and was h and well on the day of the race, and if Hanlan or Boyd showed himself a better man than he the audience might be sure whichever it might be he was entitled to the championship of England. They (the audience) might guaranteed has been seldom beheld. Shouts were that the man that won would have to be the best sculler. (Applause.) He would just say a word or two about somethin that appeared in the papers at the be ginning of the week. He (Elliott) had gone up the river like other people with a wish to see the Canadian oaraman. He saw the latter coming towards lim and stopped until he came up. Hanlan was rowing about twenty-two or twentythree strokes to the minute. He (Elhott) rowed with him a short distance and it had to be in the papers.
