The Daily British Whig

SATURDAY EVENING, APRIL 12, 1879. CITY AND VICINITY. Tax letter of 'A Reader' will appear on Monday. PROBS.—Moderate to fresh winds, clear to fair weather.

MARITIME COURT.—The case of Mowat v. Fraser, tried before the Judge of the Maritime Court, resulted in the dismissal of the petition...

CARVING.—Mr. Dawson, the Reform nominee for the County, has commenced canvassing...

CONSECRATION.—The Lord Bishop of Ontario, as Senior Bishop present, will preside at the consecration of the Bishop-elect of Toronto on May 1st.

LOCATIONS.—The Gananoque Reporter states that a bank manager from Kingston, who spent several weeks on Tidd's Island last year, has rented a house on Squaw Point for the coming summer.

THE PUMPA BRANCH.—Mr. Henry Folger came home today from Manitoba. He appears to have liked the country immensely.

THE FIRE DEPARTMENT.—Mr. W. S. Smyth has been advanced to the position of Captain of No. 1 Company.

THE $1,000 CASE.—We learn that Chief Justice Mowat, Sir John Macdonald, Hon. Mr. Mackenzie, Mr. Gunn, and others, have been summoned to give evidence in the case which is to be tried at the Assizes (opening on Tuesday), respecting the return of the $1,000 deposited when Sir John's election was protested in 1874.

ILLUSTRATED.—For some months the Weekly Globe has been giving sketches of men and places, illustrated. The last issue gave two pictures of Kingston, and a lengthy written description.

PANTOMIME.—The agent of the Tony Dier Pantomine Troupe was in the city yesterday. He has arranged for the appearance of that company in the Opera House for a short season, commencing on the 17th inst.

NEW CLOTHING.—The members of the Fire Department are having new clothing made, the uniform being somewhat similar to that worn by the Montreal men on the occasion of their visit to Kingston when the tournament took place.

EMIGRATION WESTWARD.—All who have visited the new North-Western Province pronounce largely in favour of that country for agricultural purposes. It is calculated that as many as 60,000 emigrants will go to Manitoba this season.

PERSONAL.—Hon. S. C. Wood, Provincial Treasurer, visited the city yesterday. Mr. J. W. Langmuir, Inspector of Prisons and Asylums, paid his regular and accustomed visit to the institutions coming under his supervision.

VACANCIES.—Ontario Diocese has three parishes without clergies—Ganville, Bearshburg, and Rollet. To each is assigned a grant from the Diocesan Mission Board; the first two receiving, each, $300, and Rollet $200.

FRIZ LIPS, CENTRAL FAIR.—The British Who has purchased the exclusive right to publish the Price List of the Midland Central Fair of 1879, and will soon issue it.

THE LATE MRS. HERSEY.—The funeral of the late Mrs. Daniel Hersey took place yesterday afternoon from her residence to the Methodist Church, Williamsville, thence to Calvary Cemetery.
