A SERMON

MARY J. M COLL.

Going to church this morning, Helen?
Mamma thinks we ought to go.
But that prosy parson preaches;—
I shall go to sleep, I know.
After Kingsley's thrilling sermons,
Think of setting calmly down
To the "dry-as-dust" discourses
One hears in this dull, old town.

Never heard St. Ives' new curate?
Oh, how much you've missed, dear girl!
While he's speaking, one seems standing
Very near the Gates of Pearl;
And he looks just like an angel,
In his gown—he's quite too good
For (I cannot think who wrote it)
"Human nature's daily food."

Yes, his people all adore him
Only think, last Christmas day
Forty pairs of lovely slippers
To his study found their way;
Costly knick-knacks, scores of foot-rests,
Pictures, books, and easy chairs.—
"Traps enough," his "Boots" told Dennis,
"To have stocked a dozen fairs."

He's a hero, braver never (Saved King Arthur's Table Round.
No respecter he of persons—
Every heart he seems to sound.
Once, "Thou shalt not steal," his text was:
"Few," he said, "alas, how few
Keep this law! Let conscience answer,
Are you honest? Are you true?

Steal's an ugly word, I grant you.
Well, 'defend not' means the same.
How we hate to give our bobbies!
As we call them, their just name.
Guiltless—are you? Have you never
Smuggled broadcloth, satins, furs?"
I thought of my Alexandrides—
Mrs. Upton glanced at hers.

"Did you pay each dollar duty
On your velvets, silks, and lace?"
"Great sensation!" Breathless silence.
Eloquent was every face.
Belle Brown brought her Paris dresses
Over in a "crooked" way;
Kate Clyde, too, her gloves and stockings
And exquisite lingerie.

After church, we talked it over,—
Vowed that we would never more
Cheat those prying, port inspectors;
Why, it seemed a joke before.
"Carriage waiting." Well, I'll tell you
Of another, on the way,
Just as stirring,—how I wish, dear,
We could hear him preach to-day!

—Baldwin's Monthly.

EASTER.

The icy arms of Winter half unclose,
The world is full of subtle, growth and bloom,
And Spring, a fragile, tender child, is reared.
Within a cradle that is Winter's tomb.
Along the slumbrous air a whisper runs,
It fills the solemn silence like a tune:
It softly calls "Awake! dear blossoms all,
And ope your eyes to greet the golden noon.
Awake! the Resurrection Day has come!
The Lord Himself has led the way from prison;
Put on your whitest robes, O lily bells,
And chime the anthem, "Christ the Lord is risen!"

MARY E. HIGGAR.

GREATEST WALK ON RECORD.

HOW A COLORED MINISTER TELLS THE STORY.

Brother Bell, of the Colored Congregation, a few nights since, at a prayer meeting, took occasion, in the course of an exhortation upon the duties of life, to fire a passing shot at the walking mania, now so prevalent, and developed some facts in relation to pedestrian feats that seem hitherto to have escaped notice. He said:—

My beloved bredren and sisters, dar is one ting I'm bound to say to you befo' I closes de exercizes dis nite, and dat is, don't you take no stock in dis here walkin' bianess. Let dem white trashy, men and wimmin, alone; don't you spen' your money or your preshus time runnin' round after them; and for de Lord's sake and your own, don't you try to make fools ob yourselfs by tryin' to imitate dem wise. You men will find plenty ob exercise in attendin' to your work, and you wimmin enuff to do ober your wash tubs and nusin' your babies, instead of trampin' roun' an' roun' de sawdust, day on and day off, jess to please a passel ob fools, an' ruin your own self. Besides, my b'loved frens, all de braggin' dat dey duz about dere long walks, long times and what dey calls fizzikie endocorinse ain't wuth shucks wen you comes to compar' dem win one performance dat tuk place thousands of years ago, an' de reason dey don't mention it is bekase none ob dese sportin' folks ober roads dere Bibles. Well, I'll tell you what it was, and it's de greatest sportin' match, as dey calls it, dat ober come off on the face ob dis yearf. None ob your hippy drum bisniss heah. No, sah! No, sah! Fair heel-an'-toe walkin'; judges appointed, track measured, time kep', accordin' to the Scriptures, an' a rec-kord made—yes, an' a rec-kord dat can't be denied, 'cause here it is—yes, here it is, in dis preshus book! Now, jiss turn ober your Bibles, me frens, and look at fift chapter ob Genesis, twenty second vass, and what do you fin'? Why you gne dat 'Enoch—walked—wid—God!'—(after he begatted Mesfoushree—three hundred years!—Three—hundred—years!! Dat was a walk for you! Jiss shut yo' eyes an' fleet on it! Three—hundred—years!! Besides de rec-kord says dat when de ole man made dat match, an' had dat chile (who kep' on livin' until he was nine hundred an' sixty-nine year ole—monsus good stuff in in dat family!)—I say, when de ole man made dat match, an' had dis chile, he was sixty-five years ob age, an' den walked—three hundred years! Talk 'bout yo' 'fizzikle endocrines' after dat! Talk 'bout yo' pluck' an' yo' 'grit' after dat! Why, de ole man has done laid out allob dese nowadays blowers as flat as a dead shad! So much for dis 'stordinary performances. But dat ain't all ob it. Dere's mo' yet. If you'll jiss look at de twenty-fourth vuss ob de same chapter you will fine, my b'loved frens, what a orful warning is in dat vust po' foolish creature who has conceit to make such onskal attempts. Did any good come ob de ole man Enoch's walk. Did he make any ting outen it? No! my brethen an' sisters. No! No! He loss by it—loss ebberything by it—ebber 'peared in de ring agin—in fack, he 'vent up.' Jiss read de vuss—'An'—Enoch—walked—wid—God—an' he—was not' dat is, he warn't nowhar, 'for God tuck him!' To be shuah he tuk him! He was bound to be tuck! He held out for a long time, de ole man did; he was game to de last; he was doin' his level best, but 'Ole Master' was too loud to de stride, an' too soun' in de wind for him, an' tuck him on de last roun.' Yes, my b'loved frens, an' he'll take anybody dat tries dat game on him, an' hide his 'skin-ern' a kite,' jist as he did Ole Bess' Enoch. So take warnin' by dis orful lesson; let all dis kind of foolishness alone an' tend to yo' proper callin's like good Christuns. An' now let us pray!

THE U. S. INDIAN POLICY.

COMPLICATIONS IN THE CASE OF SITTING BULL.

Washington, April 12.—The Indian question was under consideration in the Cabinet yesterday. Secretary Schurz took the ground that to promote the best interests of both whites and Indians it was necessary that the Indians should be kept upon their reservations and out of the way of bad white men, who would incite or provoke them to acts of violence. The entire Cabinet did not, however, wholly coincide with these expressions. In regard to the case of Sitting Bull it was admitted that there were many complications. If he came south on an avowedly hostile errand, there could be little question as to the responsibility of the Canadian Government, but the presence of so large a body of consumers has nearly depleted the locality of game, and it is upon that they depend for subsistence. Other food must be brought them or they must go where there is other game. The latter is the only available alternative for them, and it is believed they will be forced to a movement shortly. In the event of such a movement in a peaceful manner it might change the present aspect of affairs as regards the Canadian Government. The question whether our Government should permit such a movement as long as the Indians remain quiet, or treat them as the hostiles they were when they crossed the border, received consideration.

Peculiarities of Languages.

The Hindoo have no word for 'friend.' The Italians have no equivalent for 'humanity.'

The Russian dictionary gives a word, the definition of which is 'not to have enough buttons on your footman's waist coat;' a second means 'to kill over again;' a third 'to earn by dancing.'

The Germans call a thimble a 'finger-hat,' which it certainly is, and a grasshopper a 'hay-horse.' A glove with them is a 'hand-shoe,' showing that they wore shoes before gloves. Poultry is 'feather cattle;' whilst 'oxygin' and 'hydrogin' are in their language 'sour stuff' and 'water stuff.'

The French have no verb 'to stand,' nor can a Frenchman speak of 'kicking' anyone. The nearest approach, in his politeness, he makes to it is to 'give a blow with his foot.' Neither has he any word for 'baby' nor for 'home' nor 'comfort.' The terms 'upstairs' and 'downstairs' are also unknown in French.

An Honest Medicine Free of Charge.

Of all medicines advertised to cure any affection of the throat, chest or lungs, we know of none we can recommend so highly as Dr. King's New Discovery for consumption, coughs, colds, asthma, bronchitis, hay fever, hoarseness, tickling in the throat, loss of voice, etc. This medicine does positively cure, and that where everything else has failed. No medicine can show one half so many positive and permanent cures as have already been effected by this wonderful remedy. For asthma and bronchitis it is a perfect specific, curing the very worst cases in the shortest time possible. We say by all means give it a trial. Trial bottles free. Regular $1. For sale by J. G. King, successor to E. H. Parker, Market Square, Kingston.

BOSCHEE'S GERMAN SYRUP can now be purchased right at home, it is the most successful preparation ever introduced to our people. It works like a charm in all cases of consumption, pneumonia, hemorrhages, asthma, severe coughs, croup and all other throat and lung diseases. No person has ever used this medicine without getting immediate relief, yet there are a great many poor, suffering, skeptical persons going about our streets with a suspicious cough, and the voice of consumption coming from their lungs, that will not try it. If you die, it is your own fault, as you can go to your druggist, Heath & Gunn, or Henry Wade, and get a sample bottle for 10 cts and try it; three doses will relieve any case. Regular size only 75c.

NERVILINE is a positive necessity to those who are subject to nerve pains on exposure to cold; Nerviline at once penetrates through the skin to the source of pain; Nerviline is one of the most certain remedies for neuralgia, affording speedy relief to the sufferer; Nerviline has been used by hundreds in Kingston and vicinity from whom it has received the highest praise. Nerviline can only be procured from N.C. Polson & Co., druggists. Try Nerviline, the new family remedy for pain.

Why not make up your minds, at present, what Hotel you are going to stop at when you arrive in New York? The Grand Central, on Broadway, is now kept on both the American plan at $2.50 to $3.00, and the European plan at $1.00, and upwards, per day. An elegant Restaurant, at moderate prices is conducted by the Hotel.

A VALUABLE DISCOVERY.—The discoverer of a process for making Cod Liver Oil palatable is certainly a public benefactor. The manufacturers of Scott's Emulsion of Pure Cod Liver Oil have found this process. They not only make it perfectly palatable, but increase its highly esteemed virtues, and by the addition of the Hypophosphites of Lime and Soda, which is a splendid brain and nerve tonic, present the most wonderful remedy for Consumption, Scrofula, and all Wasting Diseases, that has ever been discovered.

The efficacy of Bryan's Pulmonic Wafers in curing Coughs, Colds, and all Bronchial Affections, and clearing the afflicted has caused imitations to spring up in the United States, where these marvellous Wafers are known, they bear down all opposition and eclipse all rivalry; the demand for them has steadily increased for the last twenty years, until now the sales average over one hundred thousand boxes a year. Eminent members of the medical profession without number admit that they know of no preparation producing such beneficial results as these Wafers. When taken in season they effect a permanent cure. Sold by all druggists and country dealers at 25 cents per box.
