New York, June 5. - The large hall

the Cooper's Union was crowded last even meeting. Upon the platform were Judge

Brady, John Kelly, Bishops Spaulding,

Ireland, and many city clergymen. Judge Brady said the Irish Catholic colonization is not only feasible but is one of the grandest movements that has been started in a long time. It has no political significance, but seeks to establish homes

REVENCES.

It was an edifying feature of yester day's election in this city that so many gentlemen from no love to Mr. Metcalfe but to gratify their own personal grudges were hounding Mr. Robinson to defeat. Men who right or wrong had decreed Mr. Metcalfe's candidature as disgraceful to the Conservative party in Kingston, and who had given him the cold shoulder throughout the canvass suddenly developed into his most active partizans and hunted the Liberal candidate with all the vigor with which personal animosity could inspire them. In the course of his eight years representation of this city, Mr. Robinson had the misfortune to incur the ill-will of many by the very straightforwardness of the discharge his duty as a member. Many such to their lasting discredit placed persona pique before party or principle, and voted and worked with might and main against him. Then all those who had suffered defeat at his hands were bent upon slaking their revenge in his discomfiture, and united to compass their pur pose. Scores of old enemies and fresh soreheads were animated by personal motives, and to these defections Mr. Metcalfe is largely indebted for his success

ANOTHER HIGHLY MORAL TORY.

Mr. William McRossie, well known as than all, there is positive proof of the fac one of the city fathers, was one of those that bribery and corruption were ran Conservative gentlemen who objected to pant on the Tory side in yesternay's con the nomination of Mr. Metcalfe on 'moral test. Enough on this point, just now, t grounds.' Quite in keeping with his say that the ill-gotten success will b action in this regard was Mr. McRossie's tested in the courts, when it will trans persistent agitation for Mr. Metcalfe's spire beyond question that the electors dismissal from his position as public were not only duped but bought from school teacher, backing up his crusade by their allegiance, and that the election was letters referring to cock-fighting &c., a | iterally won by corruption and fraud. very questionable recreation at which Mr. McRossie affected to be very indignant Mr. McRossie, as School Trustee, gave repeated proof that in his opinion Mr Metcalfe was morally unfit for his post tion in the employment of the Board. Yet he could condone all his offences and so far absolve him from this old grievance as to solicit certain clergymen yesterday to vote for the Conservative candidate, These guardians of the public morals deemed it necessary to accompany their vote with the spology that they were voting on 'party grounds,' Mr. McRossie extenuating his own course with the same unworthy subterfuge.

STULTIFIED.

It is said to be a fact that Dr. McCammon owed his candidature four years ago to the manipulation of the Tory wires by Mr. Metcalfe who shunted Mr. Drennan off the track for this purpose. Such however was the worthy Doctor's gratitude to Mr. Metcalfe for this favor that he kept him at arm's length during the whole of the present contest until up to the eve of the election. Dr. McCammon explicitly stated that he could not consientiously work for Mr. Metcalfe, that his nomination was very little credit to the Liberal Conservative Association and that it was very doubtful if he could vote for such a man, and yet the party frenzy seized him at the last moment, and in the celebration of the victory last night be elaimed a small lion's share of the credit of the result, Four years ago, Dr. Mc Cammon on the bustings threatened to arraign a certain Liberal speaker in the city before "a higher tribunal" for the temerity of opposing so, good a candidate as he esteemed himself to be. How about these good pretensions now. Does Dr. McCammon stand in awe of the higher tribunal now in view of his stulti fye g action of yesterday !

Dr. McCammon was very eloquent at the Tory jubilation about the newly discovered fitness of Mr. Metcalfe for Parliament, and boasted immoderately about his auccess. Dr. McCammon is certainly in a position to appreciate the extent of it, for compared with his own minority of 144, four years ago, Mr. Metcalfe's majority of yesterday proves him to stand about 330 votes better than himself. The less crowing Dr. McCammon indulges in on the result of yesterday, the better for his own reputation and record.

THE CITY ELECTION. It would be worse than affectation for is to pretend to regard the result of yesterday's contest in this city as, "of no consequence." We sincerely deplore Mr. Robinson's undeserved defeat. On the face of it and to oplookers at a distance it will be regarded as a sable specimen of ingratitude that after being generously served by the Mowat Government in the matter of our railway, the Municipal Loan Fund, and every other matter in which the Government could possible recognize the claims of Kingston that the electors should go back at once upon it and upon the faithful member at whose solicitation these considerations were shown to the old Limestone City: make bold to say, however, that it was not upon these things, nor upon the question of good government for the province, that the local election hinged. The opponents of Mr. Robinson pursued from the first the policy of vilification and misrepresentation. Fabrications the most barefaced and unfounded were set in circulation with such adroitness as to ensuare the electors and sour the minds of certain classes of the community against him. The fact that he was an Orangeman, was the Roman Catholic electors. the lie that he had voted against Orang incorporation was circulated, and positively insisted upon, as to estrang

Wit admirable forethought the local Tory stumpers, made hot haste to belch forth poll confidently announcing to their gaping crowd of gullible admirers that th country all over was certain to follow u, their action and that the doom of the Mowat Ministry was sealed beyond redemption. But soon a change came o'er the spirit of their dream. The intelligence that Morris had only by the skin of his Ontario, N Paxton teeth re-secured his seat in the Tory constituency of East Toronto was speedily followed by the announcement that Hou. Mr. Mowat, the past and the FUTURE PRE-Perth, N Hay Perth, S Ballantyne MIER OF ONTARIO, was returned for North Oxford by over a thousand majority, and that all the Ministers had been triumphantly elected. It is needless to say how this glorious intelligence had the effect of moderating local Tory transports. Care sat upon each face, and the local triumph, and all that to many of them that triumph implied vanished into thin air as the returns continued to pile up the Government majority and extend the list of the Tory killed and wounded. The result of yesterday's battle all along the line is simply glorious! One of the best Governments that ever existed in Ontario has been magnificently vindicated by the approving and almighty voice of he people. Grasping Tory demagogues have been effectually checked and repulsed in their reckless attempt at the usurpation of universal power in Canada and need Covernment is assured to the Premier Province of the Dominion.
