ROUTING. In amusing contrast with the ecstation extravagances of our local contemporary on the result of the city election is its modest comment on the general result throughout the province. The latter article is evidently the most pitiful tissue of limping apologies and admission which it was possible for the Tory scribe to perpetrate upon paper. For example it refers to Hou. Mr. Mowat being 'routed' in East Toronto, whereas he came within 68 of beating ex-Lieutenant Governor Morris in a constituency which ast September returned a Tory candidate to the Dominion Parliament by over 900 to the call; tiercely and desperately the majority ! At the same time that he was Tory forces threw themselves against the thus pushing Mr. Morris so hard, Mr. citadel. But all in vain. The invincibil Mowat was 'routing' his own proper op. THE LIBERAL VICTORY.

More complete returns than yesterday the city of Kingston, redeemed last Sep. occasion he was unearthed and brough tember from its serfdom to the Tory to the light by his supporters, when his Chieftain himself, did not as a constitue ency participate in this magnificent triumph of the Liberal party, it is a source harangue on Thursday evening Mr. Mc of intense satisfaction to the seven hundred and fifty men who, in this city, on Thursday, refused again to bow the knee to the Tory Baal, that the principles to which they loyally adhered were vindicated by a vast majority of the people of Ontario. The Tory opposition to the good Government of Oliver Mowat was indeed routed horse, foot and artillery. The Government enjoyed in the last Parliament a good safe working majority. That majority has been doubled by the result ity of 12 to 15 the Ministry will hereafter be sustained by a majority of nearly thirty in a House of 88 members. THE "GITADEL" IMPRECNABLE.

Was it not the great panjandrum Macpherson, who, writing to the U. E. Club, of Toronto, insisted on the absolute necessity of capturing the 'Ontario Citadel' before even the Dominion Tory triumph could be regarded either as safe or complete? The giant Tory pamphleteer has come to regard his destiny to be to direct the rise and fall of political dynasties. In was, of course, because he assumed an attitude of 'independence' when the Pure Paris Green. Tory Chieftain preferred Sir Hugh Allan before him for the Pacific Railway con was undermined and overturned on the 5th Nov., 1873. It was also because this Collossus strode through the old Saugeen Division and levelled his pamphlet artillery against the late Liberal Government, that the Mackenzie Ministry fell on the 17th September, 1878. And then this political Warwick and party king-maker saw that to complete the work of Tory restoration the citadel of Ontario must be wrested from the Libes ral garrison and hereafter be constantly manned by Tory troops. His issued his edict and laid his plans accordingly. His pamphleteering ordnance was again brought into play.
