Cooking,

Two facts confront us and deserve serious consideration. The forests of the world is going, just as the coal bewath our feet is going-man is a cooking animal, and must have fuel. In all the great outlets of water floods multiply, and become more and more destructive. We ricton..... are compelled to ask if there is any necessary, or perhaps obvious, connection between the two facts? Undoubtedly there is, and one of the most simple nature; and one, too, that plainly teaches that the more the earth is stripped of its natural clothing in the shape of arborescent vegetation, the more and more will it become unfit for numan habitation and a bleak howling wilderness. If the race of men wish to hold their place on the planet therefore, they will do well to preserve a reasonable extent of forest, and, at all events, they may to their own advantage occasionally plant for posterity, because while the trees are. growing they will moderate the floods somehow or other. The utterly selfish system will not way. In proportion as the forests are destroyed, human life will be denuded of of its joys in times when danger does not threatening begins in respect of torrents and floods, it will simply be exposed to fair speculation that water and not fire will make an end to the race of men .--Gardener's Magazine.

The Lottery Ticket.

An Italian gentleman with a nice little income, had a nice little servant girl, who said to him one morning: 'O, if you please, won't you give me three trancs to buy a lottery ticket with? I dreamed last night that No 41,144 was going to draw the capital prize, and I want to buy that number.

He gave the girl three francs, and next day, on happening to look at the report of the drawing, saw No. 41,144 was going to draw the capital prize, 518,652.82 Newspapers 2 cents per 4 oz hre, or, to speak more accurately,

Returning quietly to the house he concealed his emotion, and said to the servant girl: 'Susan, I have long observed with approbation your piety, beauty, modesty, skill in the art of cookery, and other good qualities calculated to adoru the highest station. Be mine. Let me lead you to the hymenial altar. No delay. Just as you are.' 'Honest Injunt' said the blushing vir-

They returned to tice house, where the husband carelessly took up the paper, and said, with a wellcounterfeited start of surprise; 'Darling, everything is bright for us on our wedding day. You remember the ticket in the lottery that you dreamed about, and I gave you three francs to buy? Where is it, my ownest?' 'Oh! I didn't buy it. I spent the money for this duck of a bonnet.

i)R. Evony .- Dear Sir. I am to day truly thankful that you have brought to my notice your very simple and efficacious "Diamond Catarrh Remedy. For many years I have suffered from the Catarrh—the disease being brought on by a too persistent effort in singing. I had laid myself "on the shelf," having received no benefit from the various nauseous remedies which I had tried. A few trials of your remedy relieved my head at once, and now efter a three months' trial I am able to ning with a clearness and case that delighted and astonished me. I wish you great success and shall not fail to recommend it wherever I see a need of its use. Respectfully yours, PROF. W. B. TAYLOR, Willoughby Ave., Brooklyn, Sept. 13, 1877
