PRINCESS STREET.
NEWEST STOCK!

MONDAY EVENING, JUNE 23.
REMEMBERS.
GARDEN PARTY at Mortonwood.

DR. BERGIN.
The Cornwall election trial has been adjourned to Oct. 3rd. Enough, however, has already transpired to show that the election was most corruptly conducted.

AN OLD CRY REVIVED AND APPLIED.
One thing is certain, far greater number of Reformers voted for Mr. Metcalfe on the fifth inst than there were Conservative supporters of Mr. Robinson on the occasion of his first election eight years ago.

PEDESTRIAN PUNISHMENT.
Another brutal exhibition of long-distance pedestrianism has lately been footed in London, England.

WASHINGTON.
BITTER SCENE IN CONGRESS—NEARLY UP TO OTTAWA STANDARD.
The scene in the Senate Chamber last night was a disgrace to the country, as night sessions almost invariably are.

THE YOUNG PEOPLE OF THE O. M. Churches have been so sparing themselves no trouble in providing a first-class entertainment at the Garden Party at Mortonwood to-morrow (Tuesday).

SOUTH AFRICA.
So far the balance of victory and advantage has been with the Zulus in the South African war, and yet reports are rife of Cetewayo's desire for peace and readiness to surrender.

CRICKET.
ROYAL MILITARY COLLEGE VS. K.C.C.
On Saturday the match between the Cadets of the Royal Military College and the K.C.C. was completed.
