It is said to be the intention of the Re formers of South Wentworth to protest the election of Mr. Carpenter on the score of the usual irregular practices, bu chiefly on the ground that seven electors were debarred from voting for the Re form candidate by the premature closing of the poll. The Tories threaten dreadful things in Hamilton in case a protest is entered in South Wentworth, and . it declared besides that Mr. Carpenter's majority will unanimously rise up as one man in his behalf in the event of any attempt to unseat him. In the face of all this we would strongly urge the adoption of every legitimate means to rescue South Wentworth to the cause of Reform with which that constituency has been traditionally identified.

Nepotism and violation of the Inde pendence of Parliament are being charge ed against Mr. Costigan of New Brunswick. He is enjoying a position of emolument under the Crown in the North West while holding, seat in the Commona. Under these circumstances it was plainly indecent for him to interfere in our late Provincial elections, particularly as his mission was to try to rouse and rally the Roman Catholic feeling of Outario against the Government. He seems to be looking out, not only for 'No. but for his male relations generally; a son, a brother, and a nephew, having, it is said, already been provided for at the public expense. Mr. Costigan is evident ly a firm beliver in the scriptural adage that the laborer is worthy of his hire. At any rate he certainly exacts from his masters at Ottawa abundant and substansial recognition of his party and parliamentary support of the Government of

THE GREAT REFORM REACTION-

In the face of the fact that Mr. Boutellier had just taken his seat as the Libera member for Bouville, and that the Government had an actual majority in the House, not counting the Speaker, Mr. Chapleau, indulged in the fiction that the Opposition commanded a majority in the Quebec Legislature. When pointed to the fact of the redemption of Rouville from the Tory party, Mr. Chapleau's weak retort was that Rouville was only an offset to Vercheres, conveniently forgetting that the election for Vercheres has yet to take place, and that the Liberal prospect of retaining it is beyond comparison better than the Tory hope of capturing it.

reception of the glorious news of the election of Mr. Prefontaine for Chambly. At the last general election for the Quebec Legislature Dr. Martel (Tory) was Tories wanted the Sandfield Macdonald returned for this constituency but subsequently unseated for bribery and corruption. Not being personally disqual fied, however, Martel again offered himself for election,-to be defeated by biggest whopper our contemporary has the Liberal candidate. Thus three of the perpetrated is the assertion that "Refour vacant seats have been won by the formers supported Mr. Metcalfo, know-Liberals, two of these, Rouville and ing that he was pledged to oppose the Chambly, being captures from the en- Mowat Government, with which some of emy. Vercheres will doubtless follow them had become tired." The fact is suit, but, however it may go, the Joly the election in this city did not turn at Government has a clear majority in the all on the merits of the Government. It House, giving the most practical of was largely a personal contest between contradictions to the impudent assump- the candidates, and still more largely a tion above alluded to that the Tory fight to pay off old grudges against Mr. Opposition could command a majority in Robinson, and to the operation of these the Quebec Assembly. Thus the great pet y local influences the result of the wave of Reform reaction is carrying everything before it in Ontario and Quebec. Judging from the way these by elections in the adjoining Province have gone the strong probability is that were a general election possible there Mr. Joly would sweep Quebso as effectually as Mr. Mowat did Ontario. At any rate Reform Government is all solid in both the great central Provinces of the Dominion.

THE ADDINGTON DEMONSTRATION

From our report of the Newburg demonstration, to be found in other volumns, it will be seen that it was a grand outburst of popular enthusiasm in favour of Deroche, Mowat and good Government. Although the announcement of it had been a brief and partial one, yet thousands of stalwart yeomen turned out to do honour to the members for Lennoz and Addington, and to the Premier of Ontario. The evation which each of these gentlemen received as he rose to address the assemblage not only astested to personal popularity, but furnished undoubted proof of the solid natisfaction with which the great Reform victory of Ontario has inspired the people. The Hon. Mr. Mowat was very happy in his allusions to the Reform triumph, attributing the handsome support his Government had received to the prevailing Reform sentiment of the Province of Ontario and to the intelligent appreciation of honest Government on the part of the people. Mr. Deroche, in whose special honor the demonstration was given, was tendered a tremendous reception, the cheering being again and again repeated. He is equally an honor to the constituency which has elected him and a credit to the Legislature.

To have prefered Mr. Denison to a man of Mr. Deroche's ability would have been to repeat the blunder of last September when poor Mr. McRory was actually its weight upon the body is fifteen sleeted for the Commons.
