(Winnipeg Free Press.) A most horrible tale comes to us from the Far West -a tale of cannibalism and murder so sickening in its details that we doubt its equal was ever heard of. The Fort Saskatchewan, under date of June 27th, the writer of which is a thoroughly reliable person, is as follows: It appears that rumors have been floating around for some time past regarding the cannibal-istic practices of the Indians, and these reports assumed such a shape that the authorities took cognizance of them and succeeded in arresting the saspected party. The latter goes on to say: They have an Indian in jail here for eating his wife WONDER OF MODERN TIMES and four children, who died of starvasome of them himself. Capt.
