KINGSTON ELECTION CASES. DR. STEWART'S MOTION—HIS GROUNDS FOR BECOMING THE PETITIONER—THE LAW ON THE SUBJECT—HE WILL PRESS HIS OWN PETITION.

As one of the Waio staff passed up Princess Street yesterday afternoon he was accosted by a citizen, who is at the same time somewhat of a politician, and asked, "What is to be done about it?"

—"Done about what?" queried our representative in an inquisitive way.

—"Why about the election cases. Dr. Stewart may become the petitioner, and he may push them both. What do you think?"

—"We confessed that we did not really know what was likely to be the upshot of the present legal discussion of the election cases, but we were not long in doubt as to the part which Dr. Stewart proposed to play. We found him a few minutes later, and at once returned to ask for a little information, if he had no objection."

—"It is easy understood," said he. "Here is the motion I made in Toronto; you'd better take a copy of it."
