WEDNESDAY EVENING, OCT. 1

The announcement of the return of the Mendelssohn Club imparts a sincere and solid satisfaction to all lovers of good class organization affords is a hopeful and encouraging sign to those who believe in the true refinements of musical culture. Miss Fanny Kollogg was to have been qui the accompanying vocalist, but has been recalled home by the very serious illness, of ner father, who is not expected to recover. Of course this Miss Kellogg is not to be confounded with her world rehailed with general satisfaction.
