A Worthy Service,

It is well-known that small-pox has prevailed in Mill Point and vicinity, and that, as a natural consequence, the people became not only uneasy but some what terrified. Mr. Rathbun, senior, took every precaution to prevent the apread of the disease, having an isolate building erected, and skilled medical men and nurses placed in attendance. But there were some few deaths, and Mr. Bathbun's courage, humility and kindness became more manifest. It is said that, assisted by the gardener, he dug all the graves for the small-pox victims, HIRD AND LAST DAY-NO PROVINCIAL WANTED - THE DIBSOLUTION YESTER-DAY -- PROTESTS -- A FINAL REVAEW.

The Midland Central Exhibition closed last evening with a recorded success without a parallel in the history of local fairs, and the President, Directors, and officers are to be felicitated upon the results. It was all that it was expected to be, and a great deal more. Having thus shown what can be done by a concentration and use of energy and influence, our leading citizens should in the future manifest less of the spirit of dependency and make the best use of the means and facilities at their command.
