THURSDAY EVENING, OCT. 16

THE PATCHWORK SPREAD.

The cottage stands back from the sidewalk. In front is a large willow tree. While waiting among morning glories. A flower hanging basket is full. Madras vine climb over the window. And lady slippers over the door. While mother, she sits in her rocker, Busy making a patchwork spread.
The garden is teeming with flowers. The bright portulacas in bloom. With Myrtle and gay creeping Charlie. And sweet Anemone like perfume. But brighter and sweeter than any. Gay flowers that grow in her bed. In the seat over that sits in the rocker. Busy making a patchwork spread.
With pieces of maulin beside her. Each one of a different hue. Some light and some dark and some plain one.
Sound well worn as well as some new. They do not seem to get any older. So that when it is all completed. It is a beautiful patchwork spread.
The children are home for vacation. They gambol and play in the room. And the bright sunbeams are playing. And also dithely singing a tune.
I think as I watch her spare figure. And see her sweet hair in her head. How much that quilting has done. Resemble that bright patchwork spread.

Beware of American Counterfeits.

I most respectfully take leave to call the attention of the public generally to the fact, that certain Goods in New York are being sent to many parts of the globe, under the name of my Pills and Ointment. These Goods bear on their labels some address in New York. I do not allow my Medicines to be sold in any part of the United States. I have no Agents there. My Medicines are only made by me at 553, Oxford Street, London. The books of directions affixed to the numerous make a caution, warning the public against being deceived by counterfeits. Do not be misled by this audacious trick, as they are the counterfeits they pretend to be. These counterfeits are purchased by unprincipled Vendors at one half the price of my Pills and Ointment, and are sold to you as my genuine Medicines.
I most earnestly appeal to that sense of justice which I feel sure I may venture upon asking from all honorable persons, to assist me, and the public as far as may be in their power, in denouncing this shameful fraud.
Each Pot and Box of the Genuine Medicines bears the British Grenadier's Stamp, with the words "HOLLOWAY'S PILLS AND OINTMENT, LONDON." On the label is the address, 553, Oxford Street, London, where alone they are manufactured.
Holloway's Pills and Ointment being another address are counterfeit.
The Trade Marks of these Medicines are registered in Ontario. Hence, any one through out the British possessions, who may keep the American counterfeits for sale, will be prosecuted. Signed
THOMAS HOLLOWAY,
553, Oxford Street, London.

THURSDAY EVENING, OCT. 16

THE PATCHWORK SPREAD.

The cottage stands back from the sidewalk. In front is a large willow tree. While waiting among morning glories. A flower hanging basket is full. Madras vine climb over the window. And lady slippers over the door. While mother, she sits in her rocker, Busy making a patchwork spread.
The garden is teeming with flowers. The bright portulacas in bloom. With Myrtle and gay creeping Charlie. And sweet Anemone like perfume. But brighter and sweeter than any. Gay flowers that grow in her bed. In the seat over that sits in the rocker. Busy making a patchwork spread.
With pieces of maulin beside her. Each one of a different hue. Some light and some dark and some plain one.
Sound well worn as well as some new. They do not seem to get any older. So that when it is all completed. It is a beautiful patchwork spread.
The children are home for vacation
